Ike Approves Farm Plan

"Realistic" Price Prop Setup Urged

Chief Executive, Benson Agree On 5-Point Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson agreed Tuesday on a new farm program including legislation to base price supports of storable commodities, particularly wheat, on market prices rather than the parity formula.

Benson explained the program in a formal memorandum and news conference at the White House. He said the proposals will form the basis for new legislation which will recommend to Congress next year.

The program, Benson said, also calls for:

1. An expanded program for the voluntary retirement of land from crop production for the next 5 to 10 years under the soil bank with particular reference to areas of notable surplus.

New Markets, New Uses

2. Aggressive research aimed at developing new markets and new uses for farm products.

3. A vigorous "food for peace program."

4. An expanded rural development program to help farmers in the low income areas attain a higher standard of living.

Benson said the new price support proposal for storable commodities would be "related to market prices in recent years, not to an obsolete parity formula based on conditions a half-century ago."

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them for things they normally buy.

Wheat Major Headache

Benson said the new support program, particularly on wheat, would be about the same as Eisenhower recommended to Congress last year, and on which it is now working with respect to corn.

Using the term "realistic price support programs" in his memorandum, Benson said he meant by this that programs should be adopted to permit commodities to move into consumption instead of storehouses.

"This is a very serious problem with respect to wheat," Benson said. "We can't go on indefinitely supporting artificial prices for wheat."

He said the present price support for wheat is 77 per cent of parity on the 1960 crop. He added that 30 per cent of the cost of price supports goes for wheat, but wheat represents only 6 per cent of farm income.

Cranberry Industry Protests Quarantine

Angry Growers Demand Tests Be Speeded Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cranberry producers, angry and dismayed, demanded Tuesday that the government move quickly to locate and get off the market the cranberries it says are risky to eat.

The producers want to make sure housewives have no qualms about buying cranberries, traditional fare for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Otherwise, the growers and processors face heavy financial losses at the peak of their season, with the holidays just around the corner.

There were sharp words for Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming, including a demand that he be fired. Flemming told about the offending berries at a news conference Monday.

Flemming said parts of the 1959 cranberry crop from Oregon and Washington were found to be contaminated by a weed-killer — aminotriazole — that can produce cancer in rats.

He did not say how much of the crop might be affected, or where it may be on sale. Flemming added that there was no reason to suspect the current crops from Wisconsin, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

FDA Takes Action

Then Flemming went on to advise that housewives be on the safe side by not buying cranberries unless they can determine that the berries are not contaminated. That especially made the cranberry producers angry.

Flemming mentioned one 1959 lot from the Oregon-Washington area as having been distributed before it was identified. Another lot, he said, was caught before it was distributed. He added that the 1958 crop from the same area also is being tested.

The Food and Drug Administration said it is trying to find out too if any other crops might have been contaminated by incorrect use of the weed killer.

The FDA quickly dispatched 100 inspectors, one - fourth of those available, along with 60 chemists to its 17 district offices throughout the country. They are expected to begin by Thursday the tedious tesitng job to cull out any contaminated cranberries.

A & P Halts Sales

Although heated denials came from producers that any contaminated cranberries are on the market, some stores yanked their cranberry stocks from the shelves. Others said they felt sure their stocks were all right, and said they would take no action.

The huge A&P grocery chain announced in New York withdrawal of cranberries and cranberry products from sale in all of its 4,000 chain stores across the nation.

Most of the A&P berries came from unaffected areas but a spokesman said the chain wanted to be on the safe side in the public interest.

The demand that Flemming be fired came from Carlton I. Pickett, executive secretary of the Massachusetts Farm Bureau Federation.

In a telegram to President Eisenhower, he said: "If Flemming has any evidence there is any harmful residue on cranberries, he has known it a long time.

"His release just prior to Thanksgiving Day is inept, callous and harmful to a very important segment of agriculture.

"He has a duty not to yell fire until he knows there is one."

FCC Authority In TV Scandals Will Be Probed

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new probe aimed at determining whether punishment can be meted out to persons responsible for TV quiz show rigging and other fakery in broadcasting was launched by the government Tuesday.

The Federal Communications Commission announced that it will hold hearings shortly with the idea of finding out whether it can take action under existing law.

This unanimous decision by five commission members—two others are out of the country and did not take part—marks a shift in policy. FCC has maintained until now that the law gives it no authority over program content except to bar obscenity and lotteries.

When the quiz show scandals broke more than a year ago, a grand jury in New York City conducted a lengthy investigation. Its findings never were made public. Presumably the grand jury found no violation of New York law.

The grand jury's report was studied, however, by the staff of the House Commerce subcommittee which last week wound up public hearings at which there was testimony of widespread fixing on the quiz shows, now mostly off the air.

In closing the hearings last Friday the subcommittee chairman, Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), prodded the FCC to take action. Noting that the Federal Trade Commission already had announced plans for a crackdown on dishonest broadcast advertising, Harris said "I hope we will have similar action by the Federal Communications Commission."

Crop Output Due To Equal Record

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said Tuesday total crop production equal to last year's record now seems assured,

It said in a crop report that a slightly improved outlook for cotton, sorghum, rice and sugar beets counteracted small October reductions in corn and soybean prospects.

Harvest progress was said to be lagging behind the rapid advance of the sunny October days in 1958. But it was ahead of the unusually slow rate during the cool, wet fall of 1957.

Corn and sorghum production showed slight declines from the Oct. 1 estimate as yields expected earlier failed to materialize in several early heavy producing states.

Nevertheless, the corn crop remained the largest of record—16 per cent above the previous record last year and 35 per cent above average.

Livestock pastures for the nation as a whole were among the most favorable of record for Nov. 1, the report said.

Cranberry Industry May Seek Indemnity

BOSTON (AP) — A move to seek reimbursement to the cranberry industry of a hundred million dollars, because of alleged damage by a government warning that some berries are contaminated with a poisonous spray, was announced Tuesday night by an industry leader.

George C. P. Olsson, president of Ocean Spray Cranberries, Inc., said he would ask his board of directors for authority to file a bill in Congress for the indemnity.

Culinary Experts Suggest Cranberry Substitutes

NEW YORK (AP) — Food experts came up with substitute ideas galore Tuesday for what housewives can serve with Thanksgiving turkey instead of traditional cranberries.

The suggestions were made in the wake of a government warning about possibly contaminated crops.

A change from the usual fixin's might be refreshing after all, concluded most of the experts.

AP food editor Cecily Brownstone suggested:

"Why not wine jelly? That's a tradition even older than cranberries, and since old-fashioned dishes are enjoying a new vogue, here's happy thought. You can buy it ready - prepared or make your own. The easiest way is simply to combine your favorite red wine with gelatine, fruit juice and sugar to taste, and mold. If you want to start from scratch, here's a tested recipe:

"Put two cups of wine—a ruby port or rose is good—in the top of a double boiler over boiling water, add three cups of sugar. Heat and stir two minutes. Remove from heat, stir in a half bottle of pectin, pour into sterilized glasses and seal."

Albert Stockli, chef of New York's newest gourmet restaurant the Four Seasons, said: "We will serve bar-le-duc—that's red currant jelly — with the turkey this Thanksgiving, I think. It's available in almost any store. For color effect you might also serve a green jelly, such as mint.

"Another idea is pomegranate jelly. You can buy pomegranate juice in bottles, and simply add gelatine — decorative and delicious!"

Steel Firms In Race To Hit Peak Output

Between 50-75% Of Normal Work Force Back On Job

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Major steel firms counted between 50 and 75 per cent of the normal work force back on the job Tuesday in a race to hit peak production.

By the end of the week virtually all of the 500,000 steelworkers will be back on the job. More than 20,000 of 335,000 workers idled in allied industries also have been called back.

Railroads, hardest hit, expect to recall additional help dependent on the needs of the mills. Steel-owned coal mines also showed a pickup in production.

Normal Output Month Away

Some steel firms already have found output exceeding expectations, three days after the Supreme Court ruling to uphold the Taft-Hartley injunction in the 116-day strike.

Quick-heating electric furnaces yielded the first new steel. But despite industry's fast recovery, normal production is expected to take from four to six weeks.

An auto industry spokesman reported that steel production resumed in time to prevent any serious disruption of car output by three automakers—Ford, American Motors and Studebaker-Packard.

GM, Chrysler Feel Pinch

However, the pinch of steel shortages may continue to affect General Motors and Chrysler. GM will halt the last of its assembly lines Wednesday for lack of steel. Steel shortages have idled more than 210,000 auto workers most of them at GM.

And for the first time since World War II the Great Lakes shipping season has been extended beyond the normal Dec. 15 closing date.

The Army Corps of Engineers announced winter closing of the Soo locks between Lakes Superior and Huron will be postponed indefinitely to permit continued iron ore shipments.

Mountaineers Rescue Last Of Three Dogs

COUPEVILLE, Wash. (AP) — Two seasoned mountaineers Tuesday rescued the last of three black Labrador retrievers trapped since Sunday high on a Puget Sound island cliff.

The ecstatic reunion scene of boy and dog was re-enacted for the third and final time.

Windy, a year-old female, had no more than touched the beach than she churned up a whirlwind of sand in racing to the arms of her 11-year-old master, Jimmy Denamur.

Earlier in the day, the second Labrador, Moochie, 3, had slid and scrambled to safety from a ledge halfway up the 200 - foot Whidbey Island shoreside cliff.

Moochie's master, Michael Small, 9, promptly went into an orbit of joy.

Babe, the first of the three dogs to escape, got down Monday under the coaxing of her 15-year-old owner, Peter Cuper.

Windy, frightened and hungry, had landed in the most precarious spot after the three dogs fell over the cliff Sunday, apparently while chasing a deer.

Heroes of the day in Jimmy Denamur's eyes were two Seattle members of the Mountain Rescue Council, William Westbo, 26, and Paul Williams, 34.

With Westbo working an anchored safety rope from the top of the cliff, Williams swung onto the ledge where Windy was trapped and brought the dog back without trouble.

Worker Falls To Death From Court Building

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 19-year-old sheet metal worker fell to his death from the roof of the Supreme Court building Tuesday. His mother was in the building at the time.

Rexford H. Megill apparently slipped on a roof tile and fell 50 feet to a marble plaza on the north side of the building.

Megill was an employe of the architect of the Capitol.

His mother, Mrs. Ruth H. Megill, is a supervisor in the Supreme Court cafeteria and was at work scarcely 50 feet from the spot of Megill's fall.

White House Brands Mazey "Demagogue"

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House press secretary James C. Hagerty called labor union leader Emil Mazey a demagogue Tuesday for saying President Eisenhower paid off a political debt by getting a court order that halted the steel strike.

Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers Union, shot back that Hagerty is "a stooge of the steel companies, a lackey of big business."

David J. McDonald, whose United Steelworkers Union is at the core of the dispute, kept well clear of the row.

"I've never had a fight with a president in my life and I'm a little too old to begin to fight presidents now," McDonald told newsmen.

The Mazey-Hagerty exchange—at long distance—grew out of Mazey's speech Monday to the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department.

The UAW leader said then "I charge President Eisenhower with a political payoff to steel companies" in invoking the Taft-Hartley law to end the 116-day steel shutdown at least for 80 days. Mazey said the alleged payoff was in return for $214,500 he said was contributed by steel company officials to Eisenhower's 1956 reelection campaign.

"Such demagoguery, leveled against President Eisenhower, is, of course not really worthy of comment. I am sure that the American people realize that the President acted only when it was clear that the welfare of the United States dictated positive action under the law. Such action was upheld by the courts of our land," Hagerty told a news conference.

Mitchell To Fulfill His Pledge, Eat Hat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell is going to eat his hat on the Labor Department steps Wednesday morning because his predictions of employment improvement haven't come true.

It was reported the labor secretary is having a hat made of cake so he won't choke in fulfilling his payoff pledge.

Mitchell forecast at an AFL - CIO unemployment rally last April that employment would climb to 67 million and unemployment drop below three million by October. The figures then were 64 million and over four million.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, said Mitchell was talking through his hat. Mitchell promptly promised to eat his hat if he proved wrong.

Actually, Mitchell's forecasts probably would have come true except for idleness fostered by the steel strike.

TV Star To Wed

SAN FERNANDO, Calif. (AP)—Actor Dale Robertson and a pretty young non - professional from Texas got a marriage license Tuesday. Robertson, 36, star of TV's "Tales of Wells Fargo," and Lula Mae Harding, 26, of Victoria, Tex., said they plan to wed Friday.

Fire Wipes Out Family Of Eight

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (UPI) — A 26-year-old mother and her six children died Tuesday in an explosion and fire that destroyed their rural home near here.

The father, Charles Harris, 27, an odd-job man, died later in a hospital, apparently believing that his wife and children had been saved.

"Call my home and see how everybody is," Harris muttered to attendants before succumbing to burns over 90 per cent of his body.

His wife, Janet and their children, Pamela, 6, Charles Jr., 5, Jack, 4, Penny, 3, George, 2, and Paula, 6 months, had perished in the fire.

The mother and children were trapped inside the two-story frame structure when kerosene poured on a wood fire in the kitchen stove touched off an explosion.

Harris was blown through a front door or window by the blast.

Four Airmen Die When Jets Crash In Storm

Among the victims was Ronald D. Hemdy, 23, Frederick Md.

A number of other planes—the Air Force wouldn't say how many—groped through the blinding storm until dwindling fuel forced them to land in places as much as 250 miles apart on rolling central Montana wheat lands.

A 29th Air Division officer blamed a plugged ground control approach runway at Malmstrom Air Force Base near Great Falls for the crash.

A T33 jet trainer sheared its landing gear in touching down at the base and prevented its use by the twin-jet F89 Scorpions, he said.

They were returning to the base, low on fuel and in near-zero visibility.

No one was hurt in the trainer mishap.

World's Mightiest Sub Joins U.S. Naval Forces

GROTON, Conn. (UPI) — Nuclear-powered USS Triton, the world's mightiest submarine, joined the nation's battle forces Tuesday and opened an exploratory era which may decide the feasibility of underwater tankers, cargo ships and transports.

Triton, which recent trials proved could operate at high speeds while surfaced or submerged, was commissioned a ship of the line at a dockside ceremony at the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp.

The 447-foot sub, displacing 5,900 tons, and costing 110 million dollars, began active service with a message of "congratulations and good luck" from President Eisenhower to Capt. Edward L. Beach and the 172 other officers and men who will operate the first nuclear-powered radar picket boat.

Triton will carry the ship's bell of the conventional submarine of the same name which was sunk by Japanese depth charges off New Guinea during World War II. The silver-coated bell was presented to the ship by Mrs. Willis A. Lent of Mystic, whose husband commanded the first Triton and survived its destruction.

Rear Adm. Lent, retired, died only recently. The bell was left in port when the earlier Triton sailed on its final mission.

Vice Adm. Bernard L. Austin, deputy chief of naval operations for plans and policy, said the Triton's performance "will be carefully followed by naval designers and planners the world over."

Khrushchev's French Visit Set March 15

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle announced on Tuesday that Nikita S. Khrushchev will visit France March 15, possibly for two weeks. He conceded Russia was making a real peace drive and cited the menace of Communist China as a major reason.

The French President outlined his views on the approach to an East-West summit meeting at a news conference attended by 800 newsmen in the ballroom of Elysee Palace.

It was only the third such conference held by De Gaulle since he returned to power last summer.

He said the French government "counted on" the Soviet Premier to spend at least two weeks in France—until the end of March. An East-West summit meeting would come after that, he said.

For the first time in public, De Gaulle declared there were signs indicating an easing of international tension. He said Khrushchev's personality was a major factor.

Another major reason he said, was that Russia, for all its strength, "can do nothing whatsoever in the face of the yellow multitude which is China, numberless and poverty - ridden, indestructible and ambitious, building up by force of effort a power which cannot be measured and looking around it at regions into which it must one day expand."

Besides his meeting with Khrushchev, other prior conditions for a summit meeting de Gaulle imposed were:

—"An improvement of international relations must take place in the course of the coming months, so that the chiefs of state may meet in an atmosphere of easing tension and not in an atmosphere of crisis."

—"The Western chiefs of state who are to take part in the future East-West conference must reach agreement ahead of time on the questions to be discussed and the common position which they will take on each of these topics."

Worthington Heads U.S. Steel

NEW YORK (AP)—Directors of United States Steel Corp. Tuesday reached across the contentnt to pick Leslie B. Worthington as the firm's new president.

Worthington, 57, who came to this country from England as a boy of 5, has been president of Columbia-Geneva Steel Division at San Francisco.

He succeeds Walter Munford, who died Sept. 28 from a cerebral hemorrhage after accidently wounding himself with a paring knife.

In his new position Worthington will be chief administrative officer of the nation's biggest steel producer. The chief executive officer, and No. 1 man, will continue to be Roger Blough, chairman.

As the son of a coal miner, Worthington grew up in the little coal town of Witt, Ill. He worked in the town's general store during summer vacations. His high school graduating class consisted of two boys and three girls.

Worthington, as chief administrative officer, will be the top man in personnel.

Pentagon Mum On Red Missile Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department had nothing to say Tuesday about a published report that an American tracking station in the Aleutian Islands recorded the flight of a Soviet ballistic missile test fired into the Pacific.

Asked about an item in the magazine Newsweek, a spokesman said that there is no comment either that it is correct or incorrect.

The magazine article said the missile landed in the Pacific north of Midway.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A 19-year-old sheet metal worker fell to his death from the roof of the Supreme Court building Tuesday. His mother was in the building at the time.

Rexford H. Megill apparently slipped on a roof tile and fell 50 feet to a marble plaza on the north side of the building.

Megill was an employe of the architect of the Capitol.

His mother, Mrs. Ruth H. Megill, is a supervisor in the Supreme Court cafeteria and was at work scarcely 50 feet from the spot of Megill's fall.

White House Brands Mazey "Demagogue"

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House press secretary James C. Hagerty called labor union leader Emil Mazey a demagogue Tuesday for saying President Eisenhower paid off a political debt by getting a court order that halted the steel strike.

Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers Union, shot back that Hagerty is "a stooge of the steel companies, a lackey of big business."

David J. McDonald, whose United Steelworkers Union is at the core of the dispute, kept well clear of the row.

"I've never had a fight with a president in my life and I'm a little too old to begin to fight presidents now," McDonald told newsmen.

The Mazey-Hagerty exchange—at long distance—grew out of Mazey's speech Monday to the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Department.

The UAW leader said then "I charge President Eisenhower with a political payoff to steel companies" in invoking the Taft-Hartley law to end the 116-day steel shutdown at least for 80 days. Mazey said the alleged payoff was in return for $214,500 he said was contributed by steel company officials to Eisenhower's 1956 reelection campaign.

"Such demagoguery, leveled against President Eisenhower, is, of course not really worthy of comment. I am sure that the American people realize that the President acted only when it was clear that the welfare of the United States dictated positive action under the law. Such action was upheld by the courts of our land," Hagerty told a news conference.

Mitchell To Fulfill His Pledge, Eat Hat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell is going to eat his hat on the Labor Department steps Wednesday morning because his predictions of employment improvement haven't come true.

It was reported the labor secretary is having a hat made of cake so he won't choke in fulfilling his payoff pledge.

Mitchell forecast at an AFL - CIO unemployment rally last April that employment would climb to 67 million and unemployment drop below three million by October. The figures then were 64 million and over four million.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, said Mitchell was talking through his hat. Mitchell promptly promised to eat his hat if he proved wrong.

Actually, Mitchell's forecasts probably would have come true except for idleness fostered by the steel strike.

Fire Wipes Out Family Of Eight

GLENS FALLS, N.Y. (UPI) — A 26-year-old mother and her six children died Tuesday in an explosion and fire that destroyed their rural home near here.

The father, Charles Harris, 27, an odd-job man, died later in a hospital, apparently believing that his wife and children had been saved.

"Call my home and see how everybody is," Harris muttered to attendants before succumbing to burns over 90 per cent of his body.

His wife, Janet and their children, Pamela, 6, Charles Jr., 5, Jack, 4, Penny, 3, George, 2, and Paula, 6 months, had perished in the fire.

The mother and children were trapped inside the two-story frame structure when kerosene poured on a wood fire in the kitchen stove touched off an explosion.

Harris was blown through a front door or window by the blast.

Four Airmen Die When Jets Crash In Storm

Among the victims was Ronald D. Hemdy, 23, Frederick Md.

A number of other planes—the Air Force wouldn't say how many —groped through the blinding storm until dwindling fuel forced them to land in places as much as 250 miles apart on rolling central Montana wheat lands.

A 29th Air Division officer blamed a plugged ground control approach runway at Malmstrom Air Force Base near Great Falls for the crash.

A T33 jet trainer sheared its landing gear in touching down at the base and prevented its use by the twin-jet F89 Scorpions, he said.

They were returning to the base, low on fuel and in near-zero visibility.

World's Mightiest Sub Joins U.S. Naval Forces

GROTON, Conn. (UPI) — Nuclear-powered USS Triton, the world's mightiest submarine, joined the nation's battle forces Tuesday and opened an exploratory era which may decide the feasibility of underwater tankers, cargo ships and transports.

Triton, which recent trials proved could operate at high speeds while surfaced or submerged, was commissioned a ship of the line at a dockside ceremony at the Electric Boat Division of General Dynamics Corp.

The 447-foot sub, displacing 5,900 tons, and costing 110 million dollars, began active service with a message of "congratulations and good luck" from President Eisenhower to Capt. Edward L. Beach and the 172 other officers and men who will operate the first nuclear-powered radar picket boat.

Triton will carry the ship's bell of the conventional submarine of the same name which was sunk by Japanese depth charges off New Guinea during World War II. The silver-coated bell was presented to the ship by Mrs. Willis A. Lent of Mystic, whose husband commanded the first Triton and survived its destruction.

Rear Adm. Lent, retired, died only recently. The bell was left in port when the earlier Triton sailed on its final mission.

Vice Adm Bernard L. Austin, deputy chief of naval operations for plans and policy, said the Triton's performance "will be carefully followed by naval designers and planners the world over."

Khrushchev's French Visit Set March 15

PARIS (UPI) — President Charles de Gaulle announced on Tuesday that Nikita S. Khrushchev will visit France March 15, possibly for two weeks. He conceded Russia was making a real peace drive and cited the menace of Communist China as a major reason.

The French President outlined his views on the approach to an East-West summit meeting at a news conference attended by 800 newsmen in the ballroom of Elysee Palace.

It was only the third such conference held by De Gaulle since he returned to power last summer.

He said the French government "counted on" the Soviet Premier to spend at least two weeks in France—until the end of March. An East-West summit meeting would come after that, he said.

For the first time in public, De Gaulle declared there were signs indicating an easing of international tension. He said Khrushchev's personality was a major factor.

Another major reason he said, was that Russia, for all its strength, "can do nothing whatsoever in the face of the yellow multitude which is China, numberless and poverty - ridden, indestructible and ambitious, building up by force of effort a power which cannot be measured and looking around it at regions into which it must one day expand."

Besides his meeting with Khrushchev, other prior conditions for a summit meeting de Gaulle imposed were:

—"An improvement of international relations must take place in the course of the coming months, so that the chiefs of state may meet in an atmosphere of easing tension and not in an atmosphere of crisis."

—"The Western chiefs of state who are to take part in the future East-West conference must reach agreement ahead of time on the questions to be discussed and the common position which they will take on each of these topics."

"Realistic" Price Prop Setup Urged

Chief Executive, Benson Agree On 5-Point Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson agreed Tuesday on a new farm program including legislation to base price supports of storable commodities, particularly wheat, on market prices rather than the parity formula.

Benson explained the program in a formal memorandum and news conference at the White House. He said the proposals will form the basis for new legislation which will recommend to Congress next year.

The program, Benson said, also calls for:

1. An expanded program for the voluntary retirement of land from crop production for the next 5 to 10 years under the soil bank with particular reference to areas of notable surplus.

New Markets, New Uses

2. Aggressive research aimed at developing new markets and new uses for farm products.

3. A vigorous "food for peace program."

4. An expanded rural development program to help farmers in the low income areas attain a higher standard of living.

Benson said the new price support proposal for storable commodities would be "related to market prices in recent years, not to an obsolete parity formula based on conditions a half-century ago."

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to prices charged them for things they normally buy.

Wheat Major Headache

Benson said the new support program, particularly on wheat, would be about the same as Eisenhower recommended to Congress last year, and on which it is now working with respect to corn.

Using the term "realistic price support programs" in his memorandum, Benson said he meant by this that programs should be adopted to permit commodities to move into consumption instead of storehouses.

"This is a very serious problem with respect to wheat," Benson said. "We can't go on indefinitely supporting artificial prices for wheat."

He said the present price support for wheat is 77 per cent of parity on the 1960 crop. He added that 30 per cent of the cost of price supports goes for wheat, but wheat represents only 6 per cent of farm income.

Worthington Heads U.S. Steel

NEW YORK (AP)—Directors of United States Steel Corp. Tuesday reached across the contentnt to pick Leslie B. Worthington as the firm's new president.

Worthington, 57, who came to this country from England as a boy of 5, has been president of Columbia-Geneva Steel Division at San Francisco.

He succeeds Walter Munford, who died Sept. 28 from a cerebral hemorrhage after accidently wounding himself with a paring knife.

In his new position Worthington will be chief administrative officer of the nation's biggest steel producer. The chief executive officer, and No. 1 man, will continue to be Roger Blough, chairman.

As the son of a coal miner, Worthington grew up in the little coal town of Witt, Ill. He worked in the town's general store during summer vacations. His high school graduating class consisted of two boys and three girls.

Worthington, as chief administrative officer, will be the top man in personnel.

Pentagon Mum On Red Missile Report

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department had nothing to say Tuesday about a published report that an American tracking station in the Aleutian Islands recorded the flight of a Soviet ballistic missile test fired into the Pacific.

Asked about an item in the magazine Newsweek, a spokesman said that there is no comment either that it is correct or incorrect.

The magazine article said the missile landed in the Pacific north of Midway.

Americans Around Globe To Observe Veterans Day

By The Associated Press

Americans around the world will pay tribute Wednesday on this Veterans Day 1959 to the nation's men and women who have fought—and died—in war.

The tone of the ceremonies, as in years past, will be set at Arlington National Cemetery in the nation's capital.

There Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, Army chief of staff, will lay President Eisenhower's wreath on the Tomb of the Unknowns at 11 a.m. This will be the climax of ceremonial honors rendered by units of all the armed forces. In the tomb are the unknowns of World War I, World War II and Korea.

Other cities will hold their own ceremonies or observances. And as usual the day will be observed where American troops are stationed overseas.

For federal workers and for many school children it will be a holiday.

The Veterans Administration said in Washington there are more than 42,000 U.S. veterans who served in the armed services prior to 1900.

Calling attention to Veterans Day, the agency said there are 60 surviving veterans of the Indian wars, fought between 1860 and 1898.

There is one Confederate veteran of the 1861-65 Civil War, on VA rolls.

There also are about 42,000 veterans of the Spanish-American War still alive. It was fought in 1898.

There are 2,750,000 living veterans of World War I, 15,230,000 of World War II and 5,456,000 of the Korean conflict.

War Memorial Rites Cancelled At Baltimore

By The Associated Press

Federal and state courts, banks and similar institutions will be be closed Wednesday as Maryland observes Veterans Day, but the services honoring war dead have been cancelled in one instance because of the lack of public interest.

For the first Nov. 11 since the structure was opened in 1925, there will be no memorial program at the War Memorial Building in Baltimore.

The building, with its list of engraved names of the state's World War I dead, will remain closed.

Lt. Col. Thomas G. McNicholas, superintendent of the memorial, said the services had been called off because "we could never get a creditable crowd."

The program last year drew about 300 persons. In 1957 the turnout was only 85. The main hall of the building can hold 2,000 persons.

A Veterans Day luncheon will be held in honor of Maj. Gen. Milton A. Reckord, adjutant general of the Maryland National Guard, in a Baltimore hotel.

At Hagerstown a big parade is planned. Units in Confederate uniforms will march and modern jet planes will fly overhead. Drum and bugle corps, floats, majorettes and school children also will parade.

Similar programs are planned in other Maryland cities and towns.

Husband Resists Epitoph Ruring

NEWTON-LE-WILLOWS, England (AP)—When Bill Kempster's wife died he sadly composed an epitaph for her gravestone.

"I will not say goodby, but in some fairer clime bid you good morning. Yours til the end of life's story, wonderful woman. Your very loving husband, Bill," it said.

But Newton Urban Council officials said it could not appear on the gravestone because there was no reference to God "or comfort in Christian doctrine."

Kempster, 62, said he could not understand this reasoning and will resist the ruling.

Seven Arrested For Reported Pinball Payoffs

UPPER MARLBORO, Md. (AP) —Seven persons were arrested Monday night in a crackdown on pinball machine payoffs in Prince Georges County.

The arrests at four taverns brought into use the 1957 Wheatley law aimed specifically against pinball payoffs.

Drafted by State Sen. H. Winship Wheatley Jr., (D-Prince Georges), the law declares possession of a federal gambling stamp is prima facie evidence of a gambling violation.

Ninety establishments in the county recently have purchased 225 such stamps at a cost of $250 each, States Attorney William L. Kahler said.

"Police have been observing all these places, but we held off on arrests until undercover men could actually witness payoffs and give us a stronger case," Kahler said.

Kahler said the prosecution of the seven suspects will serve as a test case, as pertains to the mechanical operation of the pinball machines.

5-Stage Rocket Rises 1,050 Miles

WALLOPS ISLAND, Va. (AP)—A five-stage rocket roared more than a thousand miles into the sky Tuesday to let a tiny transmitter count the density of electrons at that height.

The Army's Ballistic Research Laboratories, which supervised the shoot, reported that the project, called "Strongarm," went off exactly as planned.

All five stages fired correctly, and the transmitter operated satisfactorily throughout the ride, the Army said, and the nose cone landed in the Atlantic 800 miles off shore about 28 minutes after firing.

The Army said the last stage, which remained attached to the nose cone, reached a height of 1,050 statute miles after building up a speed of about 17,000 feet a second at the last burnout.

Making up the 56½-foot rocket, which had a total weight of 7,125 pounds, were an Honest John rocket, two Nike-Ajax boosters, a modified Recruit and a "scaled" Sergeant missile.

Dr. C. T. Perkins, Mental Hygiene Director, Dies

BALTIMORE (AP) — Dr. Clifton T. Perkins, state commissioner of mental hygiene, died Tuesday after a lingering illness. He was 58.

The announcement was made by Gov. Tawes, who was notified of Perkins' death by the family.

Dr. Perkins had been in ill health for some time. Last week he said he planned to resign because of his confinement, but Tawes said Perkins would be retained as a state consultant at least until he reached retirement status next July.

Tawes said Perkins would stay on at his present salary of $20,000 a year "because of his outstanding ability and the great service he has performed for the State."

Tawes immediately instructed Rudolph J. Depner, assistant to Perkins, to take over the administration of the department until a successor to Perkins is named.

Dr. Perkins came here nine years ago from Massachussetts to reorganize a mental hospital system which had become known as "Maryland's shame." He had been commissioner of mental hygiene for 12 years in the New England state.

At the time Perkins was hired, a 20-million-dollar expansion was inaugurated for Maryland mental institutions and conditions rapidly improved.

Last year Perkins was offered the post of associate director of mental hygiene for the Southern Regional Education board, with headquarters in Atlanta.

Gov. Tawes announced after assuming office in January, however, that Dr. Perkins had agreed to remain in Maryland.

Dr. Perkins is survived by his widow, the former Anne Margaret Jackson, and a daughter, Mrs. James A. Shera of Baltimore.

Burial will be in Amesbury, Mass., but arrangements were incomplete.

One out of three non-smokers carries book matches, presumably for the convenience of friends who smoke.

Baltimore Pedestrian Deaths 'Disgrace,' Tawes Says

PIKESVILLE, Md. (AP) — Gov. Tawes said Tuesday night that Baltimore City's pedestrian accident record is "a shocking disclosure—a disgraceful condition."

In a speech prepared for a pedestrian safety seminar at the State Police headquarters here, the governor said:

"Think of it — 212 persons run down and killed and 8,172 injured on Baltimore City streets from 1956 to 1958. The economic loss from these accidents is estimated at 5½ million dollars.

"The really disturbing aspect of this record is so many children between the ages of 5 and 9 were victims. More than a fourth of those who died in pedestrian accidents were boys and girls under 15 years of age."

The governor said he observed with interest and concern the fact that jay-walking was a major factor in the city's pedestrian deaths.

The studies were made by the American Automobile Assn.

"These studies," Tawes said, "are of great assistance to all of us who are making an effort to reduce the appalling rate of death and injuries in traffic accidents."

Gov. Tawes announced after assuming office in January, however, that Dr. Perkins had agreed to remain in Maryland.

Dr. Perkins is survived by his widow, the former Anne Margaret Jackson, and a daughter, Mrs. James A. Shera of Baltimore.

Burial will be in Amesbury, Mass., but arrangements were incomplete.

One out of three non-smokers carries book matches, presumably for the convenience of friends who smoke.

Baltimore Pedestrian Deaths 'Disgrace,' Tawes Says

PIKESVILLE, Md. (AP) — Gov. Tawes said Tuesday night that Baltimore City's pedestrian accident record is "a shocking disclosure—a disgraceful condition."

In a speech prepared for a pedestrian safety seminar at the State Police headquarters here, the governor said:

"Think of it -- 212 persons run down and killed and 8,172 injured on Baltimore City streets from 1956 to 1958. The economic loss from these accidents is estimated at 5½ million dollars.

"The really disturbing aspect of this record is so many children between the ages of 5 and 9 were victims. More than a fourth of those who died in pedestrian accidents were boys and girls under 15 years of age."

The governor said he observed with interest and concern the fact that jay-walking was a major factor in the city's pedestrian deaths.

The studies were made by the American Automobile Assn.

"These studies," Tawes said, "are of great assistance to all of us who are making an effort to reduce the appalling rate of death and injuries in traffic accidents."

Safety Goal Set By Street Department

The Department of Streets and Public Property which had only two disabling injuries with a loss of 12 days in the past year, has set a goal of no disabling injuries for the second year of its safety program, Commissioner John J. Long said yesterday.

Long revealed the goal in a letter to Mrs. Margaret Kimble, deputy commissioner of the Maryland Department of Labor and Industry, Baltimore. He said the safety program was instituted for the local department a year ago at his request and with Mrs. Kimble's permission, Lynn Walker, inspector for the state agency, assumed supervision.

The department set its safety record despite the fact "it has it~ share of hazards," Long said.

Long added that Walker has done a good job and with Mrs. Kimble's permission will continue to assist engineers, superintendents and foremen in the safety program. In the second year, it is planned to have foremen assume more responsibility. They will set up and lead their own safety meetings and closely followed prescribed procedures, Long said.

On another matter, Long said Street Department crews have made a concerted effort to clean up necessary patchwork on streets before too cold weather sets in for the winter. Otherwise, he added, the streets would have to remain unrepaired until warmer weather comes. Two crews have been assigned to the task, he said.

Referring to the department's beautification program for the city, Long said there are a number of small park areas being prepared.

In connection with this he said he has written a letter of thanks to the membership of the Opti-Mrs. Club for the sundial it had installed at the Greene Street-Baltimore Street small park area. He said it is a worthwhile addition and has already brought many compliments. The letter addressed to Mrs. George R. Eyler, president, stated that the department appreciates the cooperation of the club.

Health Topics To Be Discussed At Mt. Savage

A meeting is scheduled Monday at 7:45 p. m. in Mt. Savage at which residents of that community will discuss with Health Department officials recent orders in connection with sewage and dilapidated homes.

Colin Bowers, a Mt. Savage resident, appeared before the board yesterday to ask if Leslie Clark, attorney for the commissioners, would attend the meeting. Clark said that it was the first he had heard about the matter and he had a prior commitment for that night.

J. Byron Dowling has served at least 20 orders on property owners on sewage drainage and also has notified owners of several dwellings to either plac. them in good condition or else raze them. The dwellings are listed as not fit for habitation.

Bowers also asked the board why something has not been done to have the town jail building painted and a heating stove installed.

He was told that the constable should obtain several bids on a heating stove and then the county would grant approval for such a purchase. Commissioner John J. Rowan told Bowers that there is no money in the budget for painting the jail building.

The commissioners yesterday approved four orders by Dowling concerning sewage drainage problems. Three were at Wrights Crossing and one at Mt. Savage. The property owners involved are given 30 days to correct the health hazards posed by the sewage drainage.

Burza Hanlin, dog warden for the western section of the county, submitted his report for October.

During the month he sold license tags for 200 dogs with $157 being received for mal~ dog tags and $84 for female dog tags. Two dogs were reclaimed by owners, two others were adopted, 158 calls were made, 76 dogs destroyed, 92 dogs picked up and four dog bite cases investigated. Hanlin had 1,252 miles travel during the month.

Local Airman Talks With Senator In Spain

Air Force Sgt. Austin B. Mullenax, son of J. O. Mullenax, 506 Pine Avenue, is one of a group of Marylanders pictured in a service newspaper talking with U. S. Sen. J. Glenn Beall during the senator's recent tour of Spain.

The senator met with Maryland constituents at Zaragoza Air Base for an informal discussion.

Mullenax, married to the former Phyllis Shatzer, daughter of Edward Shatzer of Irons Mountain, is a career Air Force man and has 17 years' service.

FHA Official To Speak At Area Meeting

Charles Borcherding, director of the Federal Housing Administration in this district, will speak at a meeting on housing needs Thursday at 6:30 p. m. at Cumberland Country Club, the Chamber of Commerce announced yesterday.

Invitations have been issued to financial, building supply, contracting utility and other groups.

J. Carson Dowell, chairman of the Chamber's Committee on Housing, said "The people who are really interested and will really benefit from this program are the hundreds of people in Western Maryland who we are sure will be able to take advantage of the FHA plan in order to build new homes, add to or repair present homes and generallly upgrade their housing requirements."

Borcherding and his staff will explain the Certified Agency Program of the FHA. This cuts time and red tape from previous methods used in approving and governing building under the agency. The Chamber committee has also done some preliminary study on where funds for FHA loans would be available.

Reservations for the dinner-meeting may be made by calling the Chamber of Commerce PA 2-2820.

Given Beer Permit

The Allegany County Board of Alcoholic Beverage License Commissioners has granted a Class A off-sale beer license to Julia Kroll Baker for a store at 99 Washington Street, Frostburg.

Cast Is Well Selected For 'Oklahoma' Score

Sally Lance is "Laurey" in the Cumberland Elks production of "Oklahoma" which will be presented November 18, 19 and 20 in Allegany High School auditorium under the general direction of H. C. Wickard.

Those who have seen Miss Lance in rehearsal predict that her performance will be hailed as "terrific" by all who are fortunate enough to hear and see her.

Ray Vernall as "Will" and Ronald Downey as "Curly" are sure to win popular acclaim for outstanding portrayals.

Arnett "Peanut" Widener, a favorite for many years in the "Minstrelks," is certain to win new plaudits for his performance as "Ike Skidmore."

The talented and ever-popular Dixie Rafter Thompson is the equal of any professional actress as "Ado Annie." James Daly is "Jud Fry"; George Caswell is "Ali Hakim"; Stella Syckes is "Gertie Cummings"; Thomas Carroll is "Andrew Carnes," and Bert Graham is "Card Elam."

Large dancing and singing choruses are supported by an augmented orchestra, and Patricia Kirk Shaffer is principal ballerina. In a specialty dance number will be seen William Boyer, James Cumiskey and Joseph Mackert.

In addition to scenery from the original New York production, Frank Florentine is creating special settings for the local production.

Reserved seat tickets for all three performances are on sale at a special box office in the lobby of the Fort Cumberland Hotel.

Sponsored by Cumberland Lodge 63 B.P.O. Elks as a benefit for the Allegany County League for Crippled Children, "Oklahoma" is the most ambitious stage production to be attempted here in many years. In its way it will be bringing back a wonderful entertainment era when colorful and brilliant stage shows were the high events of the fall and winter season.

Board Approves Bridge Plan

A. Trago Brust, public relations director for the Luke plant of the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, appeared before the Allegany County Board of Commissioners concerning a company-owned bridge across the Potomac River.

Brust informed the board that several years ago the county by resolution granted permission for a temporary wooden and steel structure to be built across the river about 400 feet downsteam from the Luke-Piedmont bridge.

The bridge connects the company's property in Maryland and West Virginia at that point. Brust explained that the company wanted the county to amend the resolution to give the bridge permanent status.

The board granted permission to make the bridge a permanent structure and instructed Leslie Clark, its attorney, to draw up the amended resolution.

Brust told the board that the bridge will be used to transport heavy equipment, trucks and materials during the expension program now underway.

Mrs. William Flora Heads Co. Homemakers Chorus

Officers for 1960-61 were elected by the Allegany County Homemakers Chorus and a schedule outlined at the rehearsal held Monday evening at Central YMCA.

Mrs. William Flora of East Side Homemakers Club was elected president and Mrs. Paul Bradour, North Cumberland club, treasurer. Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Lulu Arnold of North Cumberland and Mrs. A. H. Baker, Twiggtown, were named on the auditing committee.

A Christmas party will be held December 7. It is to be at the Y, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Flora was chosen chairman of arrangements.

It was announced that the chorus will sing at the services at First Christian Church November 16. The selections are "My God and I" and "Blessings." An invitation also was accepted to sing at the Valley Road Homemakers Club Christmas party, December 2 at 1:15.

Three engagements to repeat the Powder Puff Minstrels were accepted. January 18 it will be given at the EUB Church, Race Street; January 29 at East Side School, sponsored by the PTA, and also late in January at Gephart School.

Mrs. Paul Gilford directed the rehearsal, with Mrs. Richard W. Trevaskis at the piano.

Mrs. Bertha Shea, 802 Shriver Avenue, is home from Memorial Hospital.

Principals Honor Member

The Elementary Principals Association honored Miss Nell Dowling for her years of service at the dinner meeting held at Salem Reformed Church, Frostburg, social room. Miss Dowling, who retired this year as principal of Westernport School, was presented a gift by Miss Sara Wright, on behalf of the association.

Miss Myra Nefflen, Cresaptown, conducted the business session. Miss Catherine Thomas, Columbia Street, was chairman for the evening. Joseph Pellerzi, delegate to the State Teachers conference in Baltimore, gave his report. Miss Grace Filer, Mount Royal, welfare chairman, gave her report for the year. January 11 was selected for the next meeting.

The guest speaker was Goodloe Jackson, president of the school board. He talked about education in general and the advantages of being an educator.

Mt. Royal School To Have Visitation

National Education Week will be observed at Mount Royal School today. Room visitation will be held from 1:30 until 3 o'clock, for parents to see the daily school program.

Tea is to be served in the cafeteria, by the PTA home room mothers. Mrs. Jack Wright is chairman.

"Wonders of the Sea," the hobby of Ellen McKenzie, is another exhibit of the show, which opens today at the Cumberland Free Public Library. The show, which will continue tomorrow and Friday, is being held on the second floor, and will be open to the public each afternoon from 2 until 5 and in the evenings from 7 until 9. Tonight at 7:45 Edward Skurzynski will speak on the "Earth Satellites Program and the American Lunar Probe." A coffee will be held tomorrow evening and awarding of ribbons Friday.

Bedford Rd. Group Plans Activities

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Bedford Road Fire Company reelected officers and decided on two purchases at the meeting Monday evening at the fire hall. The group plans to buy a coffee pot for the fire truck and five new tables for the fire hall.

Mrs. Dorothy Wilson was reelected president; Mrs. Margaret Greise, vice president; Mrs. Nancy Growden, secretary; Mrs. Anna Lee Roberts, treasurer. Mrs. Barbara Garland was named the new trustee. A joint installation with the firemen will be held at a dinner meeting January 10, instead of the third. It will be at 5 o'clock at the fire hall.

The auxiliary, firemen and Bedford Road Optimists Club will sponsor a buckwheat pancake and sausage supper November 21, from 5 until 8 at the fire hall.

Plans were made for a Christmas party at the December 14 meeting. It is to be in the form of a covered dish supper for the firemen and families. Mrs. Madelyn Little and Mrs. Barbara Garland comprise the decorations committee; Miss Maxine Sweitzer, Mrs. Little, Mrs. Inez Sweitzer and Mrs. Mary Koontz, favors and Mrs. Nancy Growden is in charge of the program.

It was announced that the Allegany-Garrett Firemen's Auxiliary Christmas party will be December 4 at Barton. The Bedford Road Auxiliary will be hostess to the group March 1. Routine reports were given by Mrs. Growden. The Lord's prayer was recited and flag salute given. Seventeen members attended. Guests were Sharon Miller, Eileen Wilson, Christine Growden and Timothy Growden.

County Gets Reports By Two Units

James W. Bishop, county treasurer, yesterday submitted a brief report to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners listing the cash position of the county.

On September 30 the county had a cash balance in local banks of $760,754.99 and receipts of $522,231.18, making a total of $1,282,986.17.

During October the county disbursed $976,235.49 leaving a cash balance in the banks of $306,750.68.

In addition, the county has $1,675,191.75 invested in U. S. Treasury notes. This is the actual cost of the Treasury notes. As each month ends the county withdraws from the total invested in government securities to meet county expenses. This is usually in $100,000 sums. Interest earned is placed in the general funds of the county.

Sheriff Paul Haberlein submitted his report for October showing an average daily prisoner list of 19 men. During the month 51 prisoners were received.

The board was also invited to attend the annual Achievement Day program of the Allegany County Council of Homemakers Clubs on Thursday. Miss Mary P. Wise, county home demonstration agent, said the board members could ascertain some of the work which is done through the Extension Service program in the county by attending.

Roads are built through the soggy peat bogs in Holland by digging canals and then filling them with sand solidly packed by huge electrical blowers.

County Board Gets Rulings By CS Board

The Civil Service Board yesterday wrote the Allegany County Board of Commissioners on several matters.

Approval was given for the granting of a six-month leave of absence to John W. Marshall, an employe of the Roads Department. Marshall wants to go to Indiana where his brother-in-law operates an equipment business in order to handle the affairs of the business during his illness.

The commissioners also received approval for changing the classification of male employes at the County Infirmary who do cleaning work. The reclassification will result in the wokers receiving a better wage for their work.

A request for organizational charts of each department of the county, with an outline of the duties and responsibilities of the workers and department heads was received rather cooly.

Commissioner John J. Rowan said he felt it was the Civil Service Board's duty to compile charts as it has jurisdiction in such matters. The Civil Service Board will be granted authority to obtain such information from the various departments, Rowan said.

The Civil Service Board is comprised of William L. Wilson, chairman; Woodrow D. Pealer and W. Eric Gibbs, members.

A letter was received by the county board from a group of 19 residents of Little Orleans in which appreciation was expressed for the recently completed hard-surfacing of a section of the Little Orleans Road.

The letter stated that much has been accomplished by the hard-surfacing work to eliminate a bad dust condition and also provide an excellent roadway for farmers and also sportsmen who travel in that area.

Will Probated

The will of Frederick A. Luhrman, city, who died October 17 was admitted to probate yesterday in Orphans Court. His widow, Mrs. Helen Luhrman, was named executrix and benificiary.

Frostburg Group To Give Hospital Plan To Governor

The suggested plan for the exploratory idea of turning over operation of Miners Hospital in Frostburg to a group in that city was submitted Monday at a meeting in the hospital.

The committee appointed by Mayor Joseph James of Frostburg, the hospital board of directors and representatives appointed by the County Commissioners attended.

William Jenkins, member of the hospital board, and John A. Moberly and W. Earle Cobey, appointed by the County Commissioners, had been selected to draw up a suggestion for the operation of the hospital.

The mayor, who called Monday's meeting, said the report will be first submitted to the Frostburg City Council, the County Commissioners and to Governor J. Millard Tawes before being released to the public.

The state of Maryland had recommended that state aid be discontinued to Miners Hospital because it was the only hospital under such operation in the state. According to the last legislature the financial aid would be withdrawn at the end of the fiscal year June 30, 1961.

Governor Tawes had asked for the study to be made and the results be submitted to him.

Attending the meeting were Mayor James representing the city of Frostburg; Frank Powers, American Legion and the service organizations; Mrs. Upton Loar, hospital auxiliary; Mrs. Kathleen Todd, Red Cross; Michael J. Byrnes, chairman of the hospital board and James Bangerd, administrator of the hospital. The group comprises the mayor's committee.

Jenkins, Moberly and Cobey represented the board appointed by the County Commissioners. Veryl Ash, James Quinn and Alvin Kreiling, members of the hospital board, also attended.

Doctor's Combination of Ingredients Stops Stomach Gas Before It Starts

Buffalo, N.Y. (Special)—Thousands of people who suffered for years from gassy stomach, heartburn, belching after meals and other symptoms of acid indigestion now report wonderful relief, thanks to a remarkable formula developed by a prominent doctor and known as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

Containing not just one or two, but a special combination of 7 ingredients, this famous medicine is designed to stop stomach gas before it even starts.

Instead of upsetting the delicate acid-balance of the stomach, as too frequent use of soda and alkalizers often does, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery actually promotes more normal stomach activity.

Taken regularly, it tones up your digestive system and helps you avoid gas pains, heartburn and sour stomach. Once your stomach is working properly, you can eat what you like without fear of distress.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has helped so many people that over 38 million bottles have been sold. Get it at your druggist's today in liquid or tablets. Your money back if not entirely satisfied.

County Gets Reports By Two Units

James W. Bishop, county treasurer, yesterday submitted a brief report to the Allegany County Board of Commissioners listing the cash position of the county.

On September 30 the county had a cash balance in local banks of $760,754.99 and receipts of $522,231.18, making a total of $1,282,986.17.

During October the county disbursed $976,235.49 leaving a cash balance in the banks of $306,750.68.

In addition, the county has $1,675,191.75 invested in U. S. Treasury notes. This is the actual cost of the Treasury notes. As each month ends the county withdraws from the total invested in government securities to meet county expenses. This is usually in $100,000 sums. Interest earned is placed in the general funds of the county.

Sheriff Paul Haberlein submitted his report for October showing an average daily prisoner list of 19 men. During the month 51 prisoners were received.

The board was also invited to attend the annual Achievement Day program of the Allegany County Council of Homemakers Clubs on Thursday. Miss Mary P. Wise, county home demonstration agent, said the board members could ascertain some of the work which is done through the Extension Service program in the county by attending.

Roads are built through the soggy peat bogs in Holland by digging canals and then filling them with sand solidly packed by huge electrical blowers.

County Board Gets Rulings By CS Board

The Civil Service Board yesterday wrote the Allegany County Board of Commissioners on several matters.

Approval was given for the granting of a six-month leave of absence to John W. Marshall, an employe of the Roads Department. Marshall wants to go to Indiana where his brother-in-law operates an equipment business in order to handle the affairs of the business during his illness.

The commissioners also received approval for changing the classification of male employes at the County Infirmary who do cleaning work. The reclassification will result in the wokers receiving a better wage for their work.

A request for organizational charts of each department of the county, with an outline of the duties and responsibilities of the workers and department heads was received rather cooly.

Commissioner John J. Rowan said he felt it was the Civil Service Board's duty to compile charts as it has jurisdiction in such matters. The Civil Service Board will be granted authority to obtain such information from the various departments, Rowan said.

The Civil Service Board is comprised of William L. Wilson, chairman; Woodrow D. Pealer and W. Eric Gibbs, members.

A letter was received by the county board from a group of 19 residents of Little Orleans in which appreciation was expressed for the recently completed hard-surfacing of a section of the Little Orleans Road.

The letter stated that much has been accomplished by the hard-surfacing work to eliminate a bad dust condition and also provide an excellent roadway for farmers and also sportsmen who travel in that area.

Will Probated

The will of Frederick A. Luhrman, city, who died October 17 was admitted to probate yesterday in Orphans Court. His widow, Mrs. Helen Luhrman, was named executrix and beneficiary.

Frostburg Group To Give Hospital Plan To Governor

The suggested plan for the exploratory idea of turning over operation of Miners Hospital in Frostburg to a group in that city was submitted Monday at a meeting in the hospital.

The committee appointed by Mayor Joseph James of Frostburg, the hospital board of directors and representatives appointed by the County Commissioners attended.

William Jenkins, member of the hospital board, and John A. Moberly and W. Earle Cobey, appointed by the County Commissioners, had been selected to draw up a suggestion for the operation of the hospital.

The mayor, who called Monday's meeting, said the report will be first submitted to the Frostburg City Council, the County Commissioners and to Governor J. Millard Tawes before being released to the public.

The state of Maryland had recommended that state aid be discontinued to Miners Hospital because it was the only hospital under such operation in the state. According to the last legislature the financial aid would be withdrawn at the end of the fiscal year June 30, 1961.

2nd Army Show Will Appear At Frostburg

Community Group Elects Officers

FROSTBURG — Walter Mackay, retiring president of the Frostburg Community Programs, has announced that the final program in the series to be presented this year will be the "One For the Road" show featuring the musical harlequins of the Showmobile Unit 2 of the Second United States Army Special Services section. The show will be presented Thursday at 8:15 p. m. In Compton Hall Auditorium of Frostburg State Teachers College.

Other selections by the community programs have included a presentation by the Garrett County Playhouse, a Talent Show and the Kiwanis Choir of Altoona.

The group is a non-profit organization devoted to bringing good entertainment to Frostburg during the early spring, summer and early fall months. State Teachers College cooperates by donating the facilities of the auditorium. Local citizens aid in building sets, when needed, and volunteering in other ways.

New officers for the 1961 season were elected recently as follows:

Rev. H. Martin P. Davidson, president; John Zimmerman, first vice president; Peter Lukas, second vice president; Mrs. Alvin Kreiling, secretary; Charles Meehan, treasurer, and Mrs. Herbert Loar, corresponding secretary.

A board of directors was also elected and includes: Walter Mackay, Edward P. Flanigan, Philip J. Jenkins, Robert W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roe, Miss Dorothy Stone White, William Price, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reford Aldridge, R. Bowen Hardesty, Miss Katherine Close, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ogden, Ruth M. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Amer Suter, Joseph James, Ralph M. Race, Mrs. Edward Solomon, Charles Catherman Jr., Mrs. Catherine Langan and Clifford Crowe.

The group will meet during the winter months to plan activities for next year.

St. Peter's Church Lists Activities

LONACONING — Miss Leah G. Miller, Glenn G. Riffey, Miss Carol A. Snelson, Miss Diana J. Snelson, Miss Georgia A. Wilson and Miss Melanie L. Wilson attended the Allegany Assembly of Young Churchmen at Holy Cross Episcopal Church, Cumberland. It was voted to have the Allegany Assembly meet on the first Sunday of each month.

Advisory Board of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will meet Friday at 8:30 p. m. in the parish house to go over final plans for the every member canvass.

Miss Helen S. Smith, 11 East Main Street, will be hostess to the church school teachers Tuesday, November 17, at 8 p. m. at her home.

Mrs. Ella M. Braznell and Mrs. Lee Russell will be hostesses at the Women of St. Peter's card party on Tuesday, November 24, at 8 p. m. at the parish house.

Appears In Second Army Show

Cory Wayne, technical director and unit manager of "One For The Road," Second Army road show appearing at Valley High School in Lonaconing, is shown here as he does his popular song-story, "Lighthouse." The show opened last night and will be repeated at Valley auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. It is sponsored, free to the public, by Alvin C. Neat Post No. 5280, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Regional Director PTA Visits Mineral Co. Council

KEYSER—Mrs. Harry M. Keiter, Martinsburg, regional director of Parent-Teacher Association of District 11, was principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Mineral County Council PTA at Fountain School.

She spoke on the "Function of the PTA in Relationship to the School." She said the PTA started because of a need for the home and the school to come together. They have a common goal "welfare of all children." The school should show no descrimination which typifies the American ideal of democracy, she said. There are over 12 million members in the National PTA and anyone interested in children and their welfare may become a member, she explained.

Mrs. Keiter stated that PTA must understand, speak, and act with the changing world, as rules and regulations of personel of schools have changed and solving behavior problems of the child has changed. The PTA, she said, coordinates all the activities of the child by influencing the life of the parents. She closed by saying that the school, home, and the church share in child rearing.

Mrs. Nora Fleming, Wiley Ford, a state chairman, also spoke. She stated there were 42 county councils in West Virginia and that community building is the job of the PTA. She read resolutions from the state and national PTA.

Following the speakers who were introduced by Albert Rogers, program chairman, a business session was held with Charles Krieger, Fort Ashby, presiding. It was announced that the February meeting will be the first Monday in Keyser.

S. T. McGee, superintendent of Mineral County Schools, told the group that the county Board of Education is sponsoring a survey team from West Virginia University to visit the schools. Vernon Staggers, principal of Piedmont schools and president of the WVEA, spoke briefly about the reappraisal problems in the counties. Michael Welschonce, assistant superintendent, also spoke.

During the evening a birthday cake was presented to Mr. McGee, whose birthday is Friday, November 13, and the group sang an orignal song written for him by Mrs. Charles Kreiger.

Following the business session refreshments were served in the cafeteria by representatives from Fountain PTA.

Other officers of the council are, Mrs. Elnora Dawson, Ridgeley, vice president; Mrs. Georgiana Whetzell, Burlington, secretary; and Mrs. I. W. Matlick, Keyser, treasurer.

MYF Sponsors Fall Workshop

KEYSER—The Moorefield District Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the Romney Methodist Church for their annual Fall Workshop. The theme of the meeting was "Missionary Outreach."

One hundred forty adults and youths registered. Classes, which were conducted by ministers, were related to various mission fields.

Plans were made at the business meeting to send at least eight delegates to the Fall Conference Workshop on November 27-29 at Camp Cedar Lakes, Ripley, W. Va. Paul Rexroad, is chairman of the delegation from the Moorefield District. Plans were formulated for the Spring Workshop to be held at Kingwood on March 25 and 26, 1960.

2nd Army Show Will Appear At Frostburg

Community Group Elects Officers

FROSTBURG — Walter Mackay, retiring president of the Frostburg Community Programs, has announced that the final program in the series to be presented this year will be the "One For the Road" show featuring the musical harlequins of the Showmobile Unit 2 of the Second United States Army Special Services section. The show will be presented Thursday at 8:15 p. m. In Compton Hall Auditorium of Frostburg State Teachers College.

Other selections by the community programs have included a presentation by the Garrett County Playhouse, a Talent Show and the Kiwanis Choir of Altoona.

The group is a non-profit organization devoted to bringing good entertainment to Frostburg during the early spring, summer and early fall months. State Teachers College cooperates by donating the facilities of the auditorium. Local citizens aid in building sets, when needed, and volunteering in other ways.

New officers for the 1961 season were elected recently as follows:

Rev. H. Martin P. Davidson, president; John Zimmerman, first vice president; Peter Lukas, second vice president; Mrs. Alvin Kreiling, secretary; Charles Meehan, treasurer, and Mrs. Herbert Loar, corresponding secretary.

A board of directors was also elected and includes: Walter Mackay, Edward P. Flanigan, Philip J. Jenkins, Robert W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Roe, Miss Dorothy Stone White, William Price, Mr. and Mrs. H. Reford Aldridge, R. Bowen Hardesty, Miss Katherine Close, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ogden, Ruth M. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Amer Suter, Joseph James, Ralph M. Race, Mrs. Edward Solomon, Charles Catherman Jr., Mrs. Catherine Langan and Clifford Crowe.

The group will meet during the winter months to plan activities for next year.

St. Peter's Church Lists Activities

LONACONING — Miss Leah G. Miller, Glenn G. Riffey, Miss Carol A. Snelson, Miss Diana J. Snelson, Miss Georgia A. Wilson and Miss Melanie L. Wilson attended the Allegany Assembly of Young Churchmen at Holy Cross Episcopal Church, Cumberland. It was voted to have the Allegany Assembly meet on the first Sunday of each month.

Advisory Board of St. Peter's Episcopal Church will meet Friday at 8:30 p. m. in the parish house to go over final plans for the every member canvass.

Miss Helen S. Smith, 11 East Main Street, will be hostess to the church school teachers Tuesday, November 17, at 8 p. m. at her home.

Mrs. Ella M. Braznell and Mrs. Lee Russell will be hostesses at the Women of St. Peter's card party on Tuesday, November 24, at 8 p. m. at the parish house.

Appears In Second Army Show

Cory Wayne, technical director and unit manager of "One For The Road," Second Army road show appearing at Valley High School in Lonaconing, is shown here as he does his popular song-story, "Lighthouse." The show opened last night and will be repeated at Valley auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. It is sponsored, free to the public, by Alvin C. Neat Post No. 5280, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Regional Director PTA Visits Mineral Co. Council

KEYSER—Mrs. Harry M. Keiter, Martinsburg, regional director of Parent-Teacher Association of District 11, was principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Mineral County Council PTA at Fountain School.

She spoke on the "Function of the PTA in Relationship to the School." She said the PTA started because of a need for the home and the school to come together. They have a common goal "welfare of all children." The school should show no descrimination which typifies the American ideal of democracy, she said. There are over 12 million members in the National PTA and anyone interested in children and their welfare may become a member, she explained.

Mrs. Keiter stated that PTA must understand, speak, and act with the changing world, as rules and regulations of personel of schools have changed and solving behavior problems of the child has changed. The PTA, she said, coordinates all the activities of the child by influencing the life of the parents. She closed by saying that the school, home, and the church share in child rearing.

Mrs. Nora Fleming, Wiley Ford, a state chairman, also spoke. She stated there were 42 county councils in West Virginia and that community building is the job of the PTA. She read resolutions from the state and national PTA.

Following the speakers who were introduced by Albert Rogers, program chairman, a business session was held with Charles Krieger, Fort Ashby, presiding. It was announced that the February meeting will be the first Monday in Keyser.

S. T. McGee, superintendent of Mineral County Schools, told the group that the county Board of Education is sponsoring a survey team from West Virginia University to visit the schools. Vernon Staggers, principal of Piedmont schools and president of the WVEA, spoke briefly about the reappraisal problems in the counties. Michael Welschonce, assistant superintendent, also spoke.

During the evening a birthday cake was presented to Mr. McGee, whose birthday is Friday, November 13, and the group sang an orignal song written for him by Mrs. Charles Kreiger.

Following the business session refreshments were served in the cafeteria by representatives from Fountain PTA.

Other officers of the council are, Mrs. Elnora Dawson, Ridgeley, vice president; Mrs. Georgiana Whetzell, Burlington, secretary; and Mrs. I. W. Matlick, Keyser, treasurer.

MYF Sponsors Fall Workshop

KEYSER—The Moorefield District Methodist Youth Fellowship met at the Romney Methodist Church for their annual Fall Workshop. The theme of the meeting was "Missionary Outreach."

Walnut Price In W.Va. Same As Last Year

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — A state-wide price of $4 per one hundred pounds of hulled and dry black walnuts has been announced by Director of Farm Marketing John Stiles. This is the same price offered last year.

Stiles said that landowners will be paid cash for nuts delivered to farmer's markets at Inwood, Weston, Gassaway, Farmington and Mannington or to the Calhoun FFA Chapter at Grantsville.

There is also a market for unhulled walnuts. Stiles said that there will be an automatic huller available at the markets. This equipment will be mounted on a trailer and moved from one location to another.

Farmer's markets will pay $1 per one hundred pounds for unhulled nuts. Stiles said that reports he has received from all parts of the state indicate the crop this year as being fair.

Market officials urged caution in the harvest of nuts. Market managers say that certain trees do not produce nuts that are completely filled with meats. Stiles said that only sound nuts would be accepted.

Walnuts can usually be harvested until mid December. After this time, freezing weather has ruined the crop.

Class To Dine

FROSTBURG—Members of the Pioneer Class of Welsh Memorial Baptist Church will hold a turkey dinner Friday at 6 p. m. in the recreation room with each member asked to bring a covered dish.

Soap powder in packages was introduced by Benjamin Babbit about 1845.

Walnut Price In W.Va. Same As Last Year

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — A state-wide price of $4 per one hundred pounds of hulled and dry black walnuts has been announced by Director of Farm Marketing John Stiles. This is the same price offered last year.

Stiles said that landowners will be paid cash for nuts delivered to farmer's markets at Inwood, Weston, Gassaway, Farmington and Mannington or to the Calhoun FFA Chapter at Grantsville.

There is also a market for unhulled walnuts. Stiles said that there will be an automatic huller available at the markets. This equipment will be mounted on a trailer and moved from one location to another.

Farmer's markets will pay $1 per one hundred pounds for unhulled nuts. Stiles said that reports he has received from all parts of the state indicate the crop this year as being fair.

Market officials urged caution in the harvest of nuts. Market managers say that certain trees do not produce nuts that are completely filled with meats. Stiles said that only sound nuts would be accepted.

Walnuts can usually be harvested until mid December. After this time, freezing weather has ruined the crop.

Class To Dine

FROSTBURG—Members of the Pioneer Class of Welsh Memorial Baptist Church will hold a turkey dinner Friday at 6 p. m. in the recreation room with each member asked to bring a covered dish.

"Don't Pet Dog" Ike Requests

Walter M. "Ike" Herboldsheimer, who operates the sundries stand at the Post Office, is asking residents not to pet his seeing-eye dog, "Dee."

He said the especially-trained dog should not be bothered while he is walking along the street. Mr. Herboldsheimer said the other day he stopped at the intersection of Liberty and Baltimore and a child began to pet the animal which started to growl.

The mother reprimanded the child who later on petted the dog which again growled. Older people often make over the dog, he said.

Trucking Firm Fined $700 In ICC Complaint

The Chaney Transportation Company of Cumberland was fined $700 in Federal District Court in Baltimore November 6 following entry of its plea of guilty to an information charging the firm with violations of regulations under Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act.

The defendant, a common carrier of property by motor vehicle in interstate commerce, was charged with failing to require drivers to prepare daily logs in the form and manner prescribed and failing to submit hours of service reports containing every instance in which drivers were permitted or required to exceed daily driving hours in violation of the Commission's Motor Carrier Safety Regulations.

This case was instituted before Chief Judge Roszel C. Thomsen at the instance of the Commission's Bureau of Inquiry and Compliance upon information furnished by the Bureau of Motor Carriers.

Farm Census Will Show Changes

The 1959 Census of Agriculture, now under way in Allegany County, will bring up to date farm statistics last collected in 1954. The last census revealed the following facts:

The value of products sold in 1954 by farm operators was $1,443,602.

The value of all crops sold was $534,900 and included $147,378 for field crops, $62,115 for vegetables, $218,557 for fruits and nuts and $106,850 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $890,921 and included $387,274 for dairy products, $242,248 for poultry and poultry products, and $261,399 for livestock and livestock products.

The value of forest products sold from the county's farms was $17,781. The statistics were provided by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

52 W.Va. Counties Get Federal Aid For Science Classes

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Fifty-two of West Virginia's 55 county school systems are taking advantage of federal aid to strengthen their science, mathematics and language courses.

Hampshire, Summers and Taylor were the only counties which had not qualified with approved plans by the required Nov. 1 date.

Verl W. Snyder, State administrator of the National Defense Education Act, reported Tuesday that $861,833 has been sent to participating counties, which must match the federal grants dollar for dollar.

$98 Settlement Ends Damage Suit

A $1,000 damage suit and out-of-court settlement of $98.15 were filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

The suit and settlement stemmed from an accident on July 25 in which eight-year-old Irene M. Springer of North Centre Street was injured when she was struck by a car driven on North Mechanic Street by Thomas W. Izat Jr., 18, of LaVale.

The declaration filed by her mother, Daisy Springer, pointed out the child was hit while walking across the street.

An estimated nine per cent of juvenile delinquents are mentally defective.

County Issues Three Permits For Dwellings

Three permits for dwellings which will be built at a total estimated cost of $34,500 have been issued by the Allegany County Assessing Department.

Howard Varner, Warfield Avenue, LaVale, plans to build a brick dwelling at an estimated cost of $16,000. It will measure 26 by 50 feet, will have a concrete block foundation, composition roof and a cellar.

Another permit was issued to John D. Ketzner, 808 Stewart Avenue, who plans to build a 24-by-34 foot brick dwelling at an estimated cost of $10,000 on Ellerslie Road. It will have a concrete block foundation, composition roof and a cellar.

Harry R. Spiker, of RD 1, Frostburg, was issued a permit to construct a frame dwelling at an estimated cost of $8,500. It will have a concrete block foundation, composition roof and a cellar.

"Don't Pet Dog" Ike Requests

Walter M. "Ike" Herboldsheimer, who operates the sundries stand at the Post Office, is asking residents not to pet his seeing-eye dog, "Dee."

He said the especially-trained dog should not be bothered while he is walking along the street. Mr. Herboldsheimer said the other day he stopped at the intersection of Liberty and Baltimore and a child began to pet the animal which started to growl.

The mother reprimanded the child who later on petted the dog which again growled. Older people often make over the dog, he said.

Trucking Firm Fined $700 In ICC Complaint

The Chaney Transportation Company of Cumberland was fined $700 in Federal District Court in Baltimore November 6 following entry of its plea of guilty to an information charging the firm with violations of regulations under Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act.

The defendant, a common carrier of property by motor vehicle in interstate commerce, was charged with failing to require drivers to prepare daily logs in the form and manner prescribed and failing to submit hours of service reports containing every instance in which drivers were permitted or required to exceed daily driving hours in violation of the Commission's Motor Carrier Safety Regulations.

This case was instituted before Chief Judge Roszel C. Thomsen at the instance of the Commission's Bureau of Inquiry and Compliance upon information furnished by the Bureau of Motor Carriers.

Residence Sold In The Dingle

A residence in The Dingle, owned by Mrs. Eloise M. Martin, Windsor Road, has been sold to Dr. and Mrs. Earl R. Paul, 624 Washington Street, according to a deed filed yesterday in the land records office of Allegany County Circuit Court.

In another transaction, the State Roads Commission purchased land on Thomas Street from J. A. Droege Jr. and Rita D. Droege of Columbia County, N. Y.

Farm Census Will Show Changes

The 1959 Census of Agriculture, now under way in Allegany County, will bring up to date farm statistics last collected in 1954. The last census revealed the following facts:

The value of products sold in 1954 by farm operators was $1,443,602.

The value of all crops sold was $534,900 and included $147,378 for field crops, $62,115 for vegetables, $218,557 for fruits and nuts and $106,850 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $890,921 and included $387,274 for dairy products, $242,248 for poultry and poultry products, and $261,399 for livestock and livestock products.

The value of forest products sold from the county's farms was $17,781. The statistics were provided by the U. S. Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census.

52 W.Va. Counties Get Federal Aid For Science Classes

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Fifty-two of West Virginia's 55 county school systems are taking advantage of federal aid to strengthen their science, mathematics and language courses.

Hampshire, Summers and Taylor were the only counties which had not qualified with approved plans by the required Nov. 1 date.

Verl W. Snyder, State administrator of the National Defense Education Act, reported Tuesday that $861,833 has been sent to participating counties, which must match the federal grants dollar for dollar.

$98 Settlement Ends Damage Suit

A $1,000 damage suit and out-of-court settlement of $98.15 were filed yesterday in Allegany County Circuit Court.

The suit and settlement stemmed from an accident on July 25 in which eight-year-old Irene M. Springer of North Centre Street was injured when she was struck by a car driven on North Mechanic Street by Thomas W. Izat Jr., 18, of LaVale.

The declaration filed by her mother, Daisy Springer, pointed out the child was hit while walking across the street.

County Issues Three Permits For Dwellings

Three permits for dwellings which will be built at a total estimated cost of $34,500 have been issued by the Allegany County Assessing Department.

Howard Varner, Warfield Avenue, LaVale, plans to build a brick dwelling at an estimated cost of $16,000. It will measure 26 by 50 feet, will have a concrete block foundation, composition roof and a cellar.

Another permit was issued to John D. Ketzner, 808 Stewart Avenue, who plans to build a 24-by-34 foot brick dwelling at an estimated cost of $10,000 on Ellerslie Road. It will have a concrete block foundation, composition roof and a cellar.

Harry R. Spiker, of RD 1, Frostburg, was issued a permit to construct a frame dwelling at an estimated cost of $8,500. It will have a concrete block foundation, composition roof and a cellar.

Reflections On Veterans' Day

Forty-one years ago the "war to make the world safe for democracy" came to an end. There were wild celebrations throughout the victorious Allied nations. Even many people in the defeated countries seemed relieved.

To most persons then it seemed that World War I had been so terrible that the civilized world would never permit another armed conflict to occur. Since then the United States has been involved in two other wars. And currently it is engaged in fashioning more powerful weapons than ever, because a possibility of even more terrible war hangs over the world.

Observance of Veterans Day comes on the date originally set aside for tribute to the men who fought and died in the First World War. But since then the ambitions of men of twisted minds have left a legacy of more dead and more veterans of wars that were not averted despite sorrowful memories of that first conflict. So the original Armistice Day now has become Veterans' Day.

The right of men to be let alone, to be free from persecution by their fellows or harassment by their state, has not been finally won. The 41 years since November 11, 1918, have given no nourishment to the hope that nations with conflicting ideologies can be content to live in peace—at least in the near future. But time has also shown that wars accomplish little unless it is to spawn conditions that beget more wars.

The four decades since the end of that war that was to make the world safe for freedom find the world living in fear of another terrible war. But it also finds free men clinging to the hope that a basis of peace will be found. As long as that spirit remains we can have faith that the sacrifices made by those who are honored today have not been in vain.

These Days

By George E. Sokolsky

The Attack On Reuther

It is a truism in the Communist movement that a Bolshevik hates a Menshevik worse than he does a capitalist. What we witnessed during Khrushchev's visit to the United States was that he got along swimmingly with the capitalists who took him to their hearts but when he sat down with labor leaders, including socialists, they gave him what for in tough language and he answered back and it all sounded like an old-time Union Square row.

Undoubtedly Khrushchev's most unpleasant experience in the United States was his meeting with these labor leaders and he is reciprocating by denouncing Walter Reuther and his brother, Victor, both of whom once were employed in a factory in Soviet Russia. He accuses Walter Reuther of having a Russian wife which, apart from the nasty moral implications, makes a bigamist of Walter Reuther. It is so characteristic of the Bolsheviks that when they want to destroy a man, they try to make everybody suffer who is associated with him. It is a cruel thing to say about a man that he deserted his wife and married another and Reuther, of course, denies the allegation. One more readily believes Reuther than Khrushchev because Khrushchev has lied on many occasions in this country.

It will cite an example of the most artful dodging. Eric Ridder of the New York Journal of Commerce gave a dinner to Khrushchev, who, on this occasion, laid himself open to questions. He was asked by Philip Cortney:

"During his interview with Eric Ridder, Mr. Khrushchev said that Russia wishes to buy all the goods she needs and to sell the merchandise she has. But trade and settlements are always done in gold. Unfortunately, the Soviet Union does not publish figures on gold production and reserves. We are alarmed by this because all the other countries publish these figures. Lack of such data concerning the Soviet Union undermines confidence and worries us."

To this Nikita Khrushchev replied:

". . . But I do not understand to what extent and why the American business quarters are worried by the fact that we do not publish figures on gold reserves. In general, I do not understand what gold has to do with it. I must say we do not prize gold too highly. I could cite in this connection the words of V. I. Lenin on gold, but I do not think it quite appropriate at a dinner table. (Laughter)"

If Khrushchev were an ignorant man, it would be possible to say that he did not know, but actually Soviet Russia has been trading in gold on the London and Zurich markets with steady regularity. Furthermore, Khrushchev knows that the United States purchases this gold at the uniform price of $35 an ounce. It does not matter what Lenin said about gold; what does matter is that Khrushchev is in the gold business when he pretends not to be.

Similarly, on this occasion, Khrushchev said:

"My dear tradesmen you have mixed everything up—trade, economy; yes, and politics. You speak of things that do not conform at all with any laws of political economy. When you were not allowed to buy German goods you were in a state of war with Germany. But we are not warring with you now! I am confident that if shops were opened to sell Soviet goods, you people would buy them with pleasure. I know that you do not like the Russian revolution, as you choose to call the great October Socialist Revolution, but you do like Russian caviar, for instance, and as I have noticed, are ready to eat it in rather large quantities. (Laughter)"

This was dodging the issue altogether. The point was made that Americans like to know where the goods they buy come from. He could not have answered Reuther that way because Reuther would have understood that Khrushchev was kidding. He would have and did demand that Khrushchev become serious; that he cut out the horseplay and that he deal with the questions asked responsibly.

Khrushchev is undoubtedly afraid of the labor unions of this country. He is not afraid of the bankers and manufacturers. He believes that he can throw the American businessman a contract and buy his principles; he has no way to win the labor unions.

It is for this reason that he smears Walter Reuther with a brutality to which no American opponent of the C.I.O. would sink.

TV Techniques, Now Being Probed, Made Richard Nixon Vice President

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — The current Congressional probe into phony TV programs and false impressions given the American public may have wider political repercussions than the probing Congressmen anticipated. One thing it might make difficult in the future is such a carefully staged TV program as the famous "little dog" telecast as that of Vice President Nixon when his $18,000 personal expense fund was challenged in the 1952 election.

Some of the Congressmen now probing TV were surprised, though pleased, that President Eisenhower expressed such indignation over rigged TV programs; also that CBS President Frank Stanton criticized canned applause and even advance rehearsals on Ed Murrow's "Person-to-Person" program.

It happens that no less than Nixon himself once gave away the secret of how his famous "little dog" telecast was staged with all of Madison Avenue's most effective techniques. Nixon let his hair down at a meeting of the Radio and TV Executives Society in New York on September 14, 1954. Much to their amazement, he told in great detail how he had staged his famed telecast.

What Nixon didn't know was that "Variety," magazine of the TV-radio and theatrical world, had a reporter present and spelled out the story later.

Ike's Surprise

It will be recalled that during the election campaign of 1952 President Eisenhower was flabbergasted to learn that a group of wealthy California businessmen had contributed $18,000 to pay what Nixon later described as some of his Senate office expenses. There was an immediate demand by many Republican leaders and newspapers that Nixon be dropped from the ticket.

The New York Herald Tribune, bellwether of the Republican press, led the demand. The Washington Post, then strongly supporting Eisenhower, did likewise. Gov. Tom Dewey in New York did not go that far, but expressed private doubts to Eisenhower. Eisenhower himself was badly shaken, especially when he learned from the newsmen on his campaign train that their vote was 40 to 2 that Nixon should be dropped.

What shook Eisenhower and stuck in the craw of newspaper editorial writers was the statement by Nixon to Peter Edson of the Scripps-Howard newspapers that he would not have been able to make the down payment on his house in Washington if he had not had the $18,000 expense fund; also the very frank statement by Dana Smith, the Los Angeles attorney who collected the $18,000.

"Dick Nixon seemed to be the best salesman against socialization available," Smith told the press. "That's his gift, really — salesmanship . . . here we had a fine salesman who didn't have enough money to do the kind of selling we wanted, so we got together and took care of some of those things."

A United States Senator is supposed to "sell" for all the American people, not just for a small group which pays him on the side. Furthermore, Nixon received $70,000 annually for office expenses from the U. S. government. So, General Eisenhower took seriously the advice of important and friendly newspapers that he be dropped.

Finally he consented to postpone any decision until Nixon could go on the air, report to the American people and let them decide. Nixon demanded that all three networks — CBS, NBC and ABC — carry his telecast. Some Republican leaders were opposed to paying out $75,000 for this, but in the end several big GOP money backers agreed to foot the bill. Later enough money flowed in from small contributors all over the country to pay for the telecast and then some.

Nixon's Strange Techniques

At this point it is interesting to note Nixon's own description of his technique as told to the radio and TV executives in New York in September 1954.

In order to build up nationwide suspense for his telecast he said he had it delayed two days. This had people tense with anticipation as to what he was going to say.

Although he carefully planned what he was going to say, he did not write it out. He had five pages of notes, but, to read his speech, he told the radio and TV executives, would have spoiled its effectiveness. You have to give the impression of ad-libbing, he advised. When you rehearse you lose in spontaneity what you gain in smoothness, he said.

On the day of the broadcast, he went swimming with his close friend Bill Rogers, now Attorney General, and did not go near NBC's TV studio until the last minute. This was part of his strategy of taking plenty of rest just before an important telecast. Otherwise you're likely to have dark circles under your eyes, regardless of makeup.

He explained, however, that Ted Rogers who handled the broadcast had a "stand-in" for Nixon so that the cameramen could get their lighting and focusing arranged in advance. At that last minute he sat down at a library table, had his wife "freeze" alongside him, and started the telecast which was to make him Vice President of the United States.

The response to that telecast was about 350 to 1 in favor of Nixon — thanks to the techniques of Madison Ave. now under Congressional scrutiny.

Steel Strike Ruling Has World Importance

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—A "shot heard around the world" came from the judicial guns of the Supreme Court of the United States over the weekend. For the order to resume steel production in America is of world-wide importance.

It means that the American dollar will stand firm among the currencies of international exchange.

It means that the wage-price spiral which has threatened the economic future of the United States has at last felt a powerful force of restraint.

It means that an era of stability in industrial prices is at hand which makes it possible for foreign as well as domestic trade to be carried on with some degree of confidence.

It means that inflation has been checked. A sound dollar, of course, gives the Treasury an opportunity to refinance its enormous debt at reasonable rates of interest.

Most Americans have not been aware of the far-reaching implications of the steel strike and the attention it has attracted abroad. Europeans have been nervously watching the battle, wondering if the whole price structure would become inflated still further and if steel would set a precedent for wage and price levels in many other industries in America.

The attitude of the customers of the steel companies throughout the United States has been especially significant. They have privately urged the steel companies to adhere to the position they have taken. This was because buyers of steel foresaw possible increases in prices which would, in turn, force them to increase their own prices, and this might bring resistance by the general public to the purchase of fabricated products.

Even among the workers many voices have been raised against the needless prolongation of the steel strike. This is because the union leadership mistakenly carried to the courts a case that was clearly a waste of time and thereby forfeited three weeks of wages which the union members would otherwise have received.

Indeed, the Supreme Court's decision by a vote of 8 to 1 was really no surprise. Even a layman like the writer predicted flatly a week ago in these dispatches the ruling the Supreme Court would surely make, based on previous precedents and decisions.

Certainly the Supreme Court now has emphasized that the Congress can deal legislatively with strikes, and thus the courts are duty bound to enforce by judicial order the will of the people's representatives in the national legislature.

The decision does, to be sure, clarify some major points. It says that the Taft-Hartley Act is constitutional. It says that an injunction requiring an 80-day "cooling-off" period is but one of many devices that Congress may put into effect constitutionally in dealing with labor troubles in an emergency or threatened emergency.

Concerted action by labor has led to concerted action by management, and it seems clear now that the public at large — sometimes called "the party of the third part" — will make itself heard in favor of new legislation at the coming session of Congress, designed to break up monopolistic power in labor as it has in management. This doesn't mean breaking up unions, but it could mean putting a brake on their hitherto unrestrained power to force prices up and inflate the dollar in total disregard of the interests of the people as a whole.

But, it will be argued, the strike isn't settled yet. A settlement will occur, however, before the 80-day injunction period has run its course. Some observers have thought that the steel-union leaders would want to wait until a secret ballot is taken after 60 days, as provided by the Taft-Hartley Law, to determine whether the workers wish to accept the final offer made by the employers. If the controversy is to go that far without a final settlement, the companies are prepared to carry on a nationwide campaign of education to put their case before the public. Even if the vote turns out to be for rejection, there might be recorded a substantial vote for acceptance. This would be damaging to the prestige of the leaders and too big a risk for them to take.

So a compromise will be worked out in a few weeks and a final settlement reached after the usual outbursts of emotion in union circles, demanding a resumption of the strike, have been superseded by calmer counsels. For if the strike were resumed, Congress would be on hand to enact even more restrictive legislation than is on the statute books today.

The steel strike has not helped the cause of labor. Steel workers are paid higher wages than in many an industry, but their leaders insisted on the strike, whose cost in wage losses to the worker can never be made up. It's a lesson that all union leaders will have to learn — that there's a limit to the granting of wage increases unless they are based on increased productivity. The public interest in a critical moment in world history requires constructive leadership by the economic forces of the country — both in management and labor — lest a controlled economy such as Nikita Khrushchev thinks is inevitable in America may be forced on an unwilling democracy.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

SABOTAGE — The FBI, which has been investigating apparently intentional damage to the atomic submarine Nautilus, believes it was perpetrated by a crank or someone with a grievance against his employer, rather than by a Communist saboteur.

The vessel, pride of the Navy and holder of some of the most enviable records for submarines including the first trans-polar trip under the ice, has been undergoing extensive overhauling at the Portsmouth, N. H., Navy yard.

Cut wires and pipes, apparently done by human hands, hampered the repair work on the vessel. The FBI has been working on its investigation for several weeks, but in the tradition of the agency has refused to discuss the matter officially.

All individuals who have had any connection with the vessel are being checked out, as are all employes who have had any possible access to it.

The main reason the FBI discounts Communist sabotage is that it can be assumed the damage would show up in the normal check-out of the vessel before it left the yard. The reasoning is that it would be an extreme risk for a professional saboteur to take with relatively small return.

A crank, perhaps someone who has a pacifist fixation, is the most likely culprit, the FBI reasons.

Colorado Tick Fever Is On The Increase

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Changes in modes of travel and easy access to remote mountain areas have led to an increase in Colorado tick fever. This may not present a dilemma to the western physician who is familiar with the disease but the Atlantic coast medico who never has seen a case may be puzzled.

This is the problem: Symptoms take three to six days to develop after the vacationer or hunter is bitten by an infected tick. If the exposed vacationer flies home, he is back in New York or Florida in a few hours but it will be several days before symptoms occur.

There is no difficulty in diagnosis when the trip to Colorado is suspected as the source of infection, especially if the individual recalls finding ticks on his body. The condition resembles severe flu and unless special blood tests are made, the true nature of the malady is missed. This is not too serious, however, because tick fever is benign and no deaths have been reported.

Symptoms may linger and the blood changes could be mistaken for leukemia — a serious disease. For this reason, the events of the past two weeks must be reviewed whenever a person becomes ill with respiratory symptoms after returning from a mountain vacation.

Colorado tick fever occurs in many western states. The causative virus is transmitted to man via the bite of an infected tick. The ailment resembles but is not the same as Rocky Mountain spotted fever.

Tick fever begins abruptly with high fever, aching, malaise, nausea, and prostration. This phase lasts a few days, when the temperature returns to normal and the victim feels better. But fever returns after a few days, only to repeat the cycle. It is this saddleback type of temperature curve that makes the physician suspicious of this type of viral infection.

TOMORROW: Curled fingers.

SMOKING AND TB

L. W. writes: If a person with arrested tuberculosis starts smoking, will the disease return?

REPLY

There is more to the problem of recurrence than smoking. I have known some persons with arrested tuberculosis who smoked and there was no recurrence, and vice versa. Smoking irritates the respiratory passageways. If I had anything wrong with my lungs I would not take a chance of aggravating the area by smoking.

PILES AND POISONS

A. T. writes: Are piles caused by an accumulation of poisons in the blood stream?

REPLY

No. Infection or irritation of the anal canal is the commonest cause of hemorrhoids. Strain and congestion of the tissues aggravate the condition. In many sufferers there is an inherent weakness of the veins, causing them to dilate and stretch easily.

INTESTINAL WORMS

C. U. writes: If a person has a worm in the stomach, can it be removed with medicine or is operation necessary?

REPLY

Medicine kills most worms. A stool specimen is examined for eggs and worm segments to determine the type of parasite so a suitable drug can be prescribed.

KINKED COLON

J. E. writes: Is operation the only cure for a kink in the intestine?

REPLY

Yes, provided the kink is causing an intestinal obstruction.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

In his entertaining "The Scandalous Scamps," Harold Mehling tells the story of one Cassie Chadwick, who had a high old time—until the cops caught up with her—posing as the daughter of steel tycoon Andrew Carnegie. Cassie ostentatiously deposited huge bundles of "securities" (blank paper they turned out to be) in various safe deposit vaults, hinting that Papa Carnegie had given her another little bundle. Bankers and merchants nodded approvingly and gave her unlimited credit—at high rates of interest.

One day the charming Chadwick came upon a grand piano that struck her fancy. "How many of these do you have in stock?" she asked the store proprietor. "Twenty-seven," he told her. "Good," said Cassie, "I'll take them all" — and she sent one grand piano to each of 27 friends. They were among the chief mourners, of course, when Cassie was led away to the pokey.

The lights from the Brooklyn Bridge reflect a spider's web in the onyx of the East River. A police car crosses from Manhattan, the red light on top winking like a firefly in summer. It slows on the Brooklyn ramp, swings right and pulls to a stop in front of the Police Laboratory.

A policeman carries a package inside. Upstairs, Lieutenant Howard Finney and his men examine evidence. These, in a sense, are the scientists of crime. Here, 40 men work in academic peace. They detect crime chemically, photographically and roentgenologically.

They mark the evidence with a tag. In a storage room, the dusty witness stand, waiting to appear at a trial. There is a storm window with two perfect handprints flat against the pane. There are whisky bottles with fingerprints, broken glass with specks of dry blood, ropes that put wrinkles in throats which had no lines, suitcases, sweaters, blood-stained trousers, a sashweight that settled an argument, zip guns, molotov cocktails, lye.

Sergeant X.F. Olivo examines a small piece of pipe brought in by two policemen of the bomb squad. It was made by a 15-year-old boy. He put a yellowish explosive powder inside the pipe, threaded the ends, screwed them on, drilled a tiny hole in one end, and placed a fuse through it. He sealed the hole with wax.

"All it needs is a match," said Olivo. He is called by a chemist. The man is working over a microscope. On a tray he has cigarets. "Take a look," the chemist says. Olivo bends over the microscope. "That's marijuana, right? It's cheap. It grows everywhere."

Olivo nods. The slide is removed. Another one is pushed in. "Take a look at this. It looks like marijuana but it has little horns growing out of the sides." Olivo agrees. "These were taken from some kids in Queens yesterday. The peddlers are cutting the marijuana. That stuff you're looking at is catnip."

Lieut. Finney, a balding man with scrubbed skin, brings a shirt to a young policeman. "D.O.A." he says. "See what you can do." The owner of the shirt was found Dead On Arrival. There is no identification. The policeman examines the shirt. No laundry mark.

He goes to another room and turns on an ultra-violet light. On the outside of the collar, numbers and letters show up clearly. It reads 2224 XB. The policeman returns to his office, pulls out a file drawer. In there are 5,000 laundry marks. He runs through the types. The one marked 2224 XB is a small dry cleaning store on Broadway in Washington Heights.

The policeman phones the 34th precinct. He gives his information precisely. In ten minutes, two detectives are at the store. It is closed. They locate the owner. He comes down and looks through his files. An hour after Lieut. Finney got the shirt, the dead man is identified as a bachelor recluse who lived on West 181st Street. He got tired of the loneliness and dropped off the George Washington Bridge.

In the laboratory is a ballistics section, a bomb squad, an X-ray division. In the spectrograph bureau, a short quiet man can identify substances by colors emitted on a machine. The X-ray division can examine the inside of a gun or a bullet without touching it.

Against a wall, an array of bottles stand. These are molotov cocktails, used by boys in gang fights. Each one is half-filled with gasoline. A rag sticks out beyond the cork. It, too, is gasoline-soaked. The boys light the rag and throw the bottle. When it smashes, the flying gasoline hits the rag.

Once, a long time ago, this laboratory worked on a case in which a young Spanish woman was assaulted and strangled in a glen in Central Park. It was a mysterious case, and her husband vowed to kill the killer himself. The husband's only trousers were sent to the laboratory. In the cuffs were found bits of weeds, grass and grains of sand.

The city toxicologist identified each one by type. Samples of weed, grass and sand were taken in three hundred sections of New York. The only place where all three matched up was the glen in Central Park.

The grieving husband had made love to his wife and killed her in the park. He had a lot of time in Sing Sing's Death House to think of scientific crime detection before they opened his cell door and said: "Next." . . .

Reflections On Veterans' Day

Forty-one years ago the "war to make the world safe for democracy" came to an end. There were wild celebrations throughout the victorious Allied nations. Even many people in the defeated countries seemed relieved.

To most persons then it seemed that World War I had been so terrible that the civilized world would never permit another armed conflict to occur. Since then the United States has been involved in two other wars. And currently it is engaged in fashioning more powerful weapons than ever, because a possibility of even more terrible war hangs over the world.

Observance of Veterans Day comes on the date originally set aside for tribute to the men who fought and died in the First World War. But since then the ambitions of men of twisted minds have left a legacy of more dead and more veterans of wars that were not averted despite sorrowful memories of that first conflict. So the original Armistice Day now has become Veterans' Day.

The right of men to be let alone, to be free from persecution by their fellows or harassment by their state, has not been finally won. The 41 years since November 11, 1918, have given no nourishment to the hope that nations with conflicting ideologies can be content to live in peace—at least in the near future. But time has also shown that wars accomplish little unless it is to spawn conditions that beget more wars.

The four decades since the end of that war that was to make the world safe for freedom find the world living in fear of another terrible war. But it also finds free men clinging to the hope that a basis of peace will be found. As long as that spirit remains we can have faith that the sacrifices made by those who are honored today have not been in vain.

These Days

The Attack On Reuther

It is a truism in the Communist movement that a Bolshevik hates a Menshevik worse than he does a capitalist. What we witnessed during Khrushchev's visit to the United States was that he got along swimmingly with the capitalists who took him to their hearts but when he sat down with labor leaders, including socialists, they gave him what for in tough language and he answered back and it all sounded like an old-time Union Square row.

Undoubtedly Khrushchev's most unpleasant experience in the United States was his meeting with these labor leaders and he is reciprocating by denouncing Walter Reuther and his brother, Victor, both of whom once were employed in a factory in Soviet Russia. He accuses Walter Reuther of having a Russian wife which, apart from the nasty moral implications, makes a bigamist of Walter Reuther. It is so characteristic of the Bolsheviks that when they want to destroy a man, they try to make everybody suffer who is associated with him. It is a cruel thing to say about a man that he deserted his wife and married another and Reuther, of course, denies the allegation. One more readily believes Reuther than Khrushchev because Khrushchev has lied on many occasions in this country.

It will cite an example of the most artful dodging. Eric Ridder of the New York Journal of Commerce gave a dinner to Khrushchev, who, on this occasion, laid himself open to questions. He was asked by Philip Cortney:

"During his interview with Eric Ridder, Mr. Khrushchev said that Russia wishes to buy all the goods she needs and to sell the merchandise she has. But trade and settlements are always done in gold. Unfortunately, the Soviet Union does not publish figures on gold production and reserves. We are alarmed by this because all the other countries publish these figures. Lack of such data concerning the Soviet Union undermines confidence and worries us."

To this Nikita Khrushchev replied:

". . . But I do not understand to what extent and why the American business quarters are worried by the fact that we do not publish figures on gold reserves. In general, I do not understand what gold has to do with it. I must say we do not prize gold too highly. I could cite in this connection the words of V. I. Lenin on gold, but I do not think it quite appropriate at a dinner table. (Laughter)"

If Khrushchev were an ignorant man, it would be possible to say that he did not know, but actually Soviet Russia has been trading in gold on the London and Zurich markets with steady regularity. Furthermore, Khrushchev knows that the United States purchases this gold at the uniform price of $35 an ounce. It does not matter what Lenin said about gold; what does matter is that Khrushchev is in the gold business when he pretends not to be.

Similarly, on this occasion, Khrushchev said:

"My dear tradesmen you have mixed everything up—trade, economy; yes, and politics. You speak of things that do not conform at all with any laws of political economy. When you were not allowed to buy German goods you were in a state of war with Germany. But we are not warring with you now! I am confident that if shops were opened to sell Soviet goods, you people would buy them with pleasure. I know that you do not like the Russian revolution, as you choose to call the great October Socialist Revolution, but you do like Russian caviar, for instance, and as I have noticed, are ready to eat it in rather large quantities. (Laughter)"

This was dodging the issue altogether. The point was made that Americans like to know where the goods they buy come from. He could not have answered Reuther that way because Reuther would have understood that Khrushchev was kidding. He would have and did demand that Khrushchev become serious; that he cut out the horseplay and that he deal with the questions asked responsibly.

Khrushchev is undoubtedly afraid of the labor unions of this country. He is not afraid of the bankers and manufacturers. He believes that he can throw the American businessman a contract and buy his principles; he has no way to win the labor unions.

It is for this reason that he smears Walter Reuther with a brutality to which no American opponent of the C.I.O. would sink.

Steel Strike Ruling Has World Importance

By David Lawrence

WASHINGTON—A "shot heard around the world" came from the judicial guns of the Supreme Court of the United States over the weekend. For the order to resume steel production in America is of world-wide importance.

It means that the American dollar will stand firm among the currencies of international exchange.

It means that the wage-price spiral which has threatened the economic future of the United States has at last felt a powerful force of restraint.

It means that an era of stability in industrial prices is at hand which makes it possible for foreign as well as domestic trade to be carried on with some degree of confidence.

It means that inflation has been checked. A sound dollar, of course, gives the Treasury an opportunity to refinance its enormous debt at reasonable rates of interest.

Most Americans have not been aware of the far-reaching implications of the steel strike and the attention it has attracted abroad. Europeans have been nervously watching the battle, wondering if the whole price structure would become inflated still further and if steel would set a precedent for wage and price levels in many other industries in America.

The attitude of the customers of the steel companies throughout the United States has been especially significant. They have privately urged the steel companies to adhere to the position they have taken. This was because buyers of steel foresaw possible increases in prices which would, in turn, force them to increase their own prices, and this might bring resistance by the general public to the purchase of fabricated products.

Even among the workers many voices have been raised against the needless prolongation of the steel strike. This is because the union leadership mistakenly carried to the courts a case that was clearly a waste of time and thereby forfeited three weeks of wages which the union members would otherwise have received.

Indeed, the Supreme Court's decision by a vote of 8 to 1 was really no surprise. Even a layman like the writer predicted flatly a week ago in these dispatches the ruling the Supreme Court would surely make, based on previous precedents and decisions.

Certainly the Supreme Court now has emphasized that the Congress can deal legislatively with strikes, and thus the courts are duty bound to enforce by judicial order the will of the people's representatives in the national legislature.

The decision does, to be sure, clarify some major points. It says that the Taft-Hartley Act is constitutional. It says that an injunction requiring an 80-day "cooling-off" period is but one of many devices that Congress may put into effect constitutionally in dealing with labor troubles in an emergency or threatened emergency.

Concerted action by labor has led to concerted action by management, and it seems clear now that the public at large — sometimes called "the party of the third part" — will make itself heard in favor of new legislation at the coming session of Congress, designed to break up monopolistic power in labor as it has in management. This doesn't mean breaking up unions, but it could mean putting a brake on their hitherto unrestrained power to force prices up and inflate the dollar in total disregard of the interests of the people as a whole.

But, it will be argued, the strike isn't settled yet. A settlement will occur, however, before the 80-day injunction period has run its course. Some observers have thought that the steel-union leaders would want to wait until a secret ballot is taken after 60 days, as provided by the Taft-Hartley Law, to determine whether the workers wish to accept the final offer made by the employers. If the controversy is to go that far without a final settlement, the companies are prepared to carry on a nationwide campaign of education to put their case before the public. Even if the vote turns out to be for rejection, there might be recorded a substantial vote for acceptance. This would be damaging to the prestige of the leaders and too big a risk for them to take.

So a compromise will be worked out in a few weeks and a final settlement reached after the usual outbursts of emotion in union circles, demanding a resumption of the strike, have been superseded by calmer counsels. For if the strike were resumed, Congress would be on hand to enact even more restrictive legislation than is on the statute books today.

The steel strike has not helped the cause of labor. Steel workers are paid higher wages than in many an industry, but their leaders insisted on the strike, whose cost in wage losses to the worker can never be made up. It's a lesson that all union leaders will have to learn — that there's a limit to the granting of wage increases unless they are based on increased productivity. The public interest in a critical moment in world history requires constructive leadership by the economic forces of the country — both in management and labor — lest a controlled economy such as Nikita Khrushchev thinks is inevitable in America may be forced on an unwilling democracy.

Inside Washington

By Henry Cathcart

SABOTAGE — The FBI, which has been investigating apparently intentional damage to the atomic submarine Nautilus, believes it was perpetrated by a crank or someone with a grievance against his employer, rather than by a Communist saboteur.

The vessel, pride of the Navy and holder of some of the most enviable records for submarines including the first trans-polar trip under the ice, has been undergoing extensive overhauling at the Portsmouth, N. H., Navy yard.

Cut wires and pipes, apparently done by human hands, hampered the repair work on the vessel. The FBI has been working on its investigation for several weeks, but in the tradition of the agency has refused to discuss the matter officially.

All individuals who have had any connection with the vessel are being checked out, as are all employes who have had any possible access to it.

The main reason the FBI discounts Communist sabotage is that it can be assumed the damage would show up in the normal check-out of the vessel before it left the yard. The reasoning is that it would be an extreme risk for a professional saboteur to take with relatively small return.

A crank, perhaps someone who has a pacifist fixation, is the most likely culprit, the FBI reasons.

Colorado Tick Fever Is On The Increase

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

Changes in modes of travel and easy access to remote mountain areas have led to an increase in Colorado tick fever. This may not present a dilemma to the western physician who is familiar with the disease but the Atlantic coast medico who never has seen a case may be puzzled.

This is the problem: Symptoms take three to six days to develop after the vacationer or hunter is bitten by an infected tick. If the exposed vacationer flies home, he is back in New York or Florida in a few hours but it will be several days before symptoms occur.

There is no difficulty in diagnosis when the trip to Colorado is suspected as the source of infection, especially if the individual recalls finding ticks on his body. The condition resembles severe flu and unless special blood tests are made, the true nature of the malady is missed. This is not too serious, however, because tick fever is benign and no deaths have been reported.

Symptoms may linger and the blood changes could be mistaken for leukemia — a serious disease. For this reason, the events of the past two weeks must be reviewed whenever a person becomes ill with respiratory symptoms after returning from a mountain vacation.

Colorado tick fever occurs in many western states. The causative virus is transmitted to man via the bite of an infected tick. The ailment resembles but is not the same as Rocky Mountain spotted fever.

Tick fever begins abruptly with high fever, aching, malaise, nausea, and prostration. This phase lasts a few days, when the temperature returns to normal and the victim feels better. But fever returns after a few days, only to repeat the cycle. It is this saddleback type of temperature curve that makes the physician suspicious of this type of viral infection.

TOMORROW: Curled fingers.

SMOKING AND TB

L. W. writes: If a person with arrested tuberculosis starts smoking, will the disease return?

REPLY

There is more to the problem of recurrence than smoking. I have known some persons with arrested tuberculosis who smoked and there was no recurrence, and vice versa. Smoking irritates the respiratory passageways. If I had anything wrong with my lungs I would not take a chance of aggravating the area by smoking.

PILES AND POISONS

A. T. writes: Are piles caused by an accumulation of poisons in the blood stream?

REPLY

No. Infection or irritation of the anal canal is the commonest cause of hemorrhoids. Strain and congestion of the tissues aggravate the condition. In many sufferers there is an inherent weakness of the veins, causing them to dilate and stretch easily.

INTESTINAL WORMS

C. U. writes: If a person has a worm in the stomach, can it be removed with medicine or is operation necessary?

REPLY

Medicine kills most worms. A stool specimen is examined for eggs and worm segments to determine the type of parasite so a suitable drug can be prescribed.

KINKED COLON

J. E. writes: Is operation the only cure for a kink in the intestine?

REPLY

Yes, provided the kink is causing an intestinal obstruction.

To the limit of space questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

In his entertaining "The Scandalous Scamps," Harold Mehling tells the story of one Cassie Chadwick, who had a high old time—until the cops caught up with her—posing as the daughter of steel tycoon Andrew Carnegie. Cassie ostentatiously deposited huge bundles of "securities" (blank paper they turned out to be) in various safe deposit vaults, hinting that Papa Carnegie had given her another little bundle. Bankers and merchants nodded approvingly and gave her unlimited credit—at high rates of interest.

One day the charming Chadwick came upon a grand piano that struck her fancy. "How many of these do you have in stock?" she asked the store proprietor. "Twenty-seven," he told her. "Good," said Cassie, "I'll take them all" — and she sent one grand piano to each of 27 friends. They were among the chief mourners, of course, when Cassie was led away to the pokey.

TV Techniques, Now Being Probed, Made Richard Nixon Vice President

By Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON — The current Congressional probe into phony TV programs and false impressions given the American public may have wider political repercussions than the probing Congressmen anticipated. One thing it might make difficult in the future is such a carefully staged TV program as the famous "little dog" telecast as that of Vice President Nixon when his $18,000 personal expense fund was challenged in the 1952 election.

Some of the Congressmen now probing TV were surprised, though pleased, that President Eisenhower expressed such indignation over rigged TV programs; also that CBS President Frank Stanton criticized canned applause and even advance rehearsals on Ed Murrow's "Person-to-Person" program.

It happens that no less than Nixon himself once gave away the secret of how his famous "little dog" telecast was staged with all of Madison Avenue's most effective techniques. Nixon let his hair down at a meeting of the Radio and TV Executives Society in New York on September 14, 1954. Much to their amazement, he told in great detail how he had staged his famed telecast.

What Nixon didn't know was that "Variety," magazine of the TV-radio and theatrical world, had a reporter present and spelled out the story later.

Ike's Surprise

It will be recalled that during the election campaign of 1952 President Eisenhower was flabbergasted to learn that a group of wealthy California businessmen had contributed $18,000 to pay what Nixon later described as some of his Senate office expenses. There was an immediate demand by many Republican leaders and newspapers that Nixon be dropped from the ticket.

The New York Herald Tribune, bellwether of the Republican press, led the demand. The Washington Post, then strongly supporting Eisenhower, did likewise. Gov. Tom Dewey in New York did not go that far, but expressed private doubts to Eisenhower. Eisenhower himself was badly shaken, especially when he learned from the newsmen on his campaign train that their vote was 40 to 2 that Nixon should be dropped.

What shook Eisenhower and stuck in the craw of newspaper editorial writers was the statement by Nixon to Peter Edson of the Scripps-Howard newspapers that he would not have been able to make the down payment on his house in Washington if he had not had the $18,000 expense fund; also the very frank statement by Dana Smith, the Los Angeles attorney who collected the $18,000.

"Dick Nixon seemed to be the best salesman against socialization available," Smith told the press. "That's his gift, really — salesmanship . . . here we had a fine salesman who didn't have enough money to do the kind of selling we wanted, so we got together and took care of some of those things."

A United States Senator is supposed to "sell" for all the American people, not just for a small group which pays him on the side. Furthermore, Nixon received $70,000 annually for office expenses from the U. S. government. So, General Eisenhower took seriously the advice of important and friendly newspapers that he be dropped.

Finally he consented to postpone any decision until Nixon could go on the air, report to the American people and let them decide. Nixon demanded that all three networks — CBS, NBC and ABC — carry his telecast. Some Republican leaders were opposed to paying out $75,000 for this, but in the end several big GOP money backers agreed to foot the bill. Later enough money flowed in from small contributors all over the country to pay for the telecast and then some.

Nixon's Strange Techniques

At this point it is interesting to note Nixon's own description of his technique as told to the radio and TV executives in New York in September 1954.

In order to build up nationwide suspense for his telecast he said he had it delayed two days. This had people tense with anticipation as to what he was going to say.

Although he carefully planned what he was going to say, he did not write it out. He had five pages of notes, but, to read his speech, he told the radio and TV executives, would have spoiled its effectiveness. You have to give the impression of ad-libbing, he advised. When you rehearse you lose in spontaneity what you gain in smoothness, he said.

On the day of the broadcast, he went swimming with his close friend Bill Rogers, now Attorney General, and did not go near NBC's TV studio until the last minute. This was part of his strategy of taking plenty of rest just before an important telecast. Otherwise you're likely to have dark circles under your eyes, regardless of makeup.

He explained, however, that Ted Rogers who handled the broadcast had a "stand-in" for Nixon so that the cameramen could get their lighting and focusing arranged in advance. At that last minute he sat down at a library table, had his wife "freeze" alongside him, and started the telecast which was to make him Vice President of the United States.

The response to that telecast was about 350 to 1 in favor of Nixon — thanks to the techniques of Madison Ave. now under Congressional scrutiny.

Sparked by quarterback Gary Keedy, who accounted for four of the eight touchdowns, Keyser High School ran roughshod over the gridders of Berkeley Springs High School yesterday at Stayman Field, Keyser, to chalk up its ninth consecutive victory of the 1959 campaign. It was the biggest scoring spree put on by Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark's team this season and the final score was 53-0.

The Golden Tornado wound up its Potomac Valley Conference campaign with a 7-0 record and tied the West Virginia School for the Deaf of Romney for the championship for the second straight season. The Lions ended their P.V.C. season with a 4-0 mark.

Seven of the eight touchdowns scored in yesterday's game were the result of runs ranging from 40 to 95 yards.

Keedy galloped 80 yards for the first touchdown of the game in the opening period. He scored on a 40-yard run in the second period and repeated in the third quarter. His final td spring covered 95 yards in the last quarter.

Keedy Increases Lead

Adding 24 points to his P.V.C. season total, Keedy upped his total to 78 on 13 touchdowns. His closest competitor is Bill Sherman, of Moorefield, with 49 tallies. Sherman plays his final PVC game of the season against Beall High on Saturday. Keedy moved into second place in area scoring with a total of 84 markers with one regular game left to play—that with Charles Town on November 20. Larry Jones, of the West Virginia School for the Deaf, the area leader, who has finished the season, has 88 points to his credit.

Keyser's other scores were credited to "Corky" Wilt, who carried from the nine in the first period, Fred Clark on a pass from Keedy which covered 49 yards in the second quarter, freshman "Chuck" Bradfield on a 55-yard sprint in the third stanza and Mike Melody on a 50-yard punt return in the final period.

Francis Sidley kicked three extra points and blocked a McCullough punt in the end zone for a Keyser safety in the third quarter.

The game attracted a large crowd on what was observed as Parents' Day.

Win 32 Straight

The victory enabled Keyser to conclude its sixth consecutive undefeated season in the P.V.C., and extended the Golden Tornado's victory skein to 32 games in that circuit. Since the last loss midway in the 1958 campaign, Keyser has reeled off 14 wins in a row, including 11 shutouts.

Berkeley Springs concluded its season with a 1-9 record. The Indians' only victory was a 7-6 decision over Ridgeley.

Orange Bowl May Be Site Of Title Bout

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The City Commission unanimously approved Tuesday Vincent J. Velella's offer of $60,000 for the Orange Bowl as the site of the return heavyweight championship fight between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson.

The decision now rests with the board of trustees of the Florida National Bank, which holds the Orange Bowl bonds.

Velella said last week the fight would be held in the bowl, probably March 1, if his offer is accepted.

Southern's Best Year
Bel Air Is Unbeaten

By C. V. BURNS

AT LEAST THREE high schools and one college in the tri-state area will have new coaches when the 1959-60 basketball season gets under way next month.

James Eckard, succeeds Wayne Boor, who was at Fort Hill just one year before transferring to Wheaton High School. "Eck" Miers takes over at Keyser High School as successor to John R. Shelton, promoted to assistant principal at that school. Carroll Michael is William "Honey" Crites' replacement at Petersburg High School and Billy O. Wireman takes over the reins at Shepherd College, succeeding Jesse Riggleman, who remains as grid mentor there.

Here are the records of a majority of the coaches in the tri-state area:

Coach	Yrs.	W	L	Pct.
John C. Meyers, Valley	6	108	38	.740
Homer Brooks, Frederick	10	153	54	.739

(*) Denotes schools at which there/are new coaches for coming season.

Paugh at Mathias four years (record there not available).

Thomas at Barton three years (1950-1952). Record 40-27.

Payne at Ridgeley four years (1953-1956). Record 52-44.

Meyers at Central six years (1948-1953). Record 89-46.

Schoonover at Parsons three years (1950-1952). Record 21-44.

Ritchie at Southern one year (1955) Record 15-9.

Riggleman at Ridgeley 7 years (1942-1944) and (1947-1950). Record 75-21. After one year at Pomeroy, Ohio, coached Petersburg five years (1952-1956). Record 71-45.

Brooks coached two years at Elk Garden, three years at Rowlesburg and four years at Parsons before going to Frederick in 1949.

CLAUDE E. WARREN is resigning after serving as coach at Harrisonburg (Va.) High School for 28 years. In the final game of the football season played by his team on Friday, the Blue Streaks battled Handley High of Winchester to a 13-13 tie.

THE HANDLEY - Martinsburg game, a fixture on Thanksgiving Day for many years, has been moved up to Friday, November 13 this year, at Martinsburg.

This series was started in 1923 and this year's game will be the 38th. Handley holds the edge in wins, 21 to 12. Four contests ended in ties.

SOUTHERN High School's Highlanders have concluded their best season since they inaugurated the grid sport at the Garrett County school in 1954.

This was Earl Adolphson's first year as head coach at Oakland and it was the first time in six seasons Southern finished with a record of .500 or better.

Southern's football records:

Year	W	L	T
1959	5	4	0
1958	2	7	0
1957	1	8	0
1956	2	7	0
1955	3	4	1
1954	1	2	1

WHEN Allegany High School faces Romney High's Pioneers here Saturday night it will be the first meeting of these schools on the gridiron in 22 years.

Their only meeting in 1937 resulted in a 60-6 win for Allegany and that was the highest score ever rolled up by a team coached by Herman Ball during the 68 games his Camper teams played over seven seasons.

BEL AIR High School's Bobcats, coached by Al Cesky, who is at the helm there for the 9th year, will finish the season undefeated if victorious over Salisbury High in the final game.

The Harford Countians are 7-0 and hold decisions over two CVAL teams, Westminster, 21-19, and Frederick, 20-19, also St. Paul's 33-20, Havre de Grace 39-12, Howard County 45-21, Annapolis 33-6 and LaPlata 39-13.

In 1956, Bel Air was headed toward an undefeated season until dumped by Salisbury in the last game, 24-21.

LASALLE High School's Explorers, who lost to such teams as Fort Hill 7-0-1, Bedford 6-2, Keyser 9-0, Allegany 6-2 and Moorefield 8-1 pick on another tartar Friday when they tackle the Marauders of Altoona Catholic High School in a night game here.

Coach Paul Bradley's quint comes here with a 7-2 record. In its last two outings ACHS has whipped Johnstown Catholic, 33-14, and Saxton-Liberty of Saxton, Pa., 26-0.

SALVATORE "Sal" Somma, a native of Ridgeley, W. Va., whose New Dorp (Staten Island) High School teams, get good press in the New York City dailies, has another winner this year. New Dorp is 4-0 and its latest win was scored at the expense of the Honest Abes of Abraham Lincoln High School, 20-0.

New Dorp is the only undefeated team in Public School Athletic League competition and has clinched at least a tie for the Division Four title.

VINNIE FARRELL, the New Jerseyite, who refereed several LaSalle basketball games here in bygone days, will officiate in the Penn State - Holy Cross football game Saturday at University Park, Pa.

Farrell is supervisor of physical education in the Newark (N. J.) public schools.

ONE of the biggest surprises in nearby Pennsylvania the past weekend was Everett Southern holding Richland Township to a 7-0 score at Windber.

It was a scoreless game until 2:44 left to play when Joe Begeny ran 62 yards for the touchdown that gave Richland its 32nd consecutive victory. It was Richland's 9th win of the year. Everett is 6-3.

Richland had whipped Bedford, 20-0, after the Bisons had trimmed Everett, 20-7.

Rabbit And Quail Season Opens Today In West Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—West Virginia hunters will have a chance Wednesday to legally kill quail, rabbit and ringnecked pheasant. A four-day season on wild turkeys also opens in three counties.

Hunters may kill seven quail a day, or 35 a season; four rabbits daily and 24 a season, and two male pheasants for the season. Wild turkey becomes legal Wednesday in Preston, Summers and Monongalia Counties until Nov. 14. The turkey season in many other West Virginia counties opened Oct. 3 and runs through Jan. 2, 1960.

Raccoon, opposum, skunk and mink become legal for trappers Wednesday until Jan. 2. There is no limit. Trappers also may take muskrats from Wednesday until Nov. 29.

The quail, rabbit and pheasant seasons end Jan. 2.

Syracuse Can Have Berth In Orange Bowl

Outcome Of Colgate Contest Is Awaited

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Syracuse players and fans, glowing over the Orange's No. 1 ranking in the weekly Associated Press poll, learned Tuesday they could have an Orange Bowl berth for the asking.

The players voted for it but university officials postponed a decision until after Saturday's game with Colgate.

Lew Andreas, Syracuse athletic director, said after a two-hour meeting the university's Athletic Board would meet again to discuss a bowl game, probably Sunday night.

Andreas said university officials had talked with representatives of the Orange, Cotton and Liberty bowls.

In Miami, Chairman Van C. Kussrow of the Orange Bowl selection committee said Tuesday night the committee will confer Wednesday in the light of indecision at Syracuse.

Kussrow said, "There are Georgia, Georgia Tech, Tennessee and several other teams we can't name now which have to be considered as an opponent for the Big Eight representative in the Orange Bowl game."

Earlier Kussrow said the bid would be extended if Syracuse would indicate quickly it was wanted.

Henry Stafford Bags Button Buck In Garrett County

Maryland State Trooper Henry Stafford, of Lonaconing, who is stationed at the Frederick Barracks, yesterday became the third bow and arrow hunter to kill a deer in Garrett county during the special season which opened November 2 and ends November 14.

He bagged a 90-pound button buck in the Bear Creek area.

The animal was checked at the LaVale Barracks of the Maryland State Police.

Nine deer have been killed in Region No. 1 to date—four in Washington county, three in Garrett and two in Allegany.

Terps Prepare For Clemson

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Maryland's football team emphasized pass drills in one and a half hours of scrimmaging Tuesday.

Coach Tom Nugent sent his regulars against the second team, a departure from the usual practice of scrimmaging against the "b" and freshman squads.

The Terps, who have won only two and suffered five defeats including two at the hands of the nation's top-ranked teams, Texas and Syracuse, aren't given much chance of upsetting Clemson Saturday.

The Tigers lead the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 5-0 record and are 6-1 in all games.

NEW YORK (UPI) — College football's "upset of the year" probably hasn't happened yet.

There have been form reversals all over the map—with Nebraska and Tennessee leading the pack—but the absence of out and out shockers could mean the worst is yet to come in this final month notorious for its upsets.

So far, Nebraska is the year's No. 1 upsetter. The Cornhuskers figured in two of the biggest—25-21 over Oklahoma and 32-12 over Minnesota.

The Oklahoma victory tops them all from the oddsmakers angle for the Sooners were favored by 16 points. Minnesota was favored by 10.

Tennessee's two major upsets over Auburn and Louisiana State shook up the national picture but the Volunteers weren't exactly long shots in either game — an underdog by seven.

Little Vs. Big

Among the worst point miscalculations were those involving Texas A&M over Michigan State, 9-7, and Harvard over Pennsylvania, 12-0. Both Harvard and the Texas Aggies were 14 point underdogs.

But where are the so - called "little schools" belting the big ones? Or the 25-point underdogs rising to smite the mighty?

Closest to that category that comes to mind is Westchester, Pa., State trumping Villanova 13-7 in the Sept. 26 opener. In September is was heart-warming to all except Villanova but today's hindsight exposes Villanova (1-7) as not much, anyway.

Only one 10-point favorite, in addition to Minnesota, suffered a reverse, according to a check of the weekly odds. That was Army, belted by Illinois, 20-14.

Yale was eight over Dartmouth and lost 12-8. Purdue was eight over Ohio State and lost, 15-0. Generally, the oddsmakers have been playing it fairly cozy and when in doubt refused to put a potentially lop-sided game on the books.

"Cautious" Favorite

In one way, Tennessee's 14-13 victory over Louisiana State certainly rated an "upset of the year" tag since it marked the first time in a 20-game surge LSU had gone down. However LSU was a cautious "favorite" at only seven points.

Northwestern, another victim last Saturday, went into the tussle with Wisconsin rated a six-point favorite.

There have been some dandy overlays on points, though, and just about tops was last week's quote making Stanford a five-point favorite over UCLA. The Uclans whacked Stanford (Wow!) —55-13.

Oklahoma was favored by 5½ and lost to Northwestern 45 - 13 under extenuating dietary circumstances. Dartmouth, five over Holy Cross, went down 31-8.

And Notre Dame, 5½ over Michigan State, wound up losing a 19-0 shutout.

But if you've been burned a bit so far—the word, as usual in November, is to proceed with extreme caution.

An 18-yard touchdown run by Gerald Lowery in the final period enabled LaSalle High School's junior varsity football team to battle the Beall High Jayvees to a 6-6 tie in a game played Monday at County Field.

It was Beall's final game of the season and gave Coach Bob Chaney's eleven a 3-3-1 record.

Jerry Delaney gave Beall a 6-0 lead in the opening period when he raced 75 yards for the initial touchdown.

Kicks for the extra points by Jim Robertson, of Beall, and John Sitter, LaSalle, were blocked.

Beall provided a thrill on the last play of the game when Jim McFarland's pass to Jerry Delaney covered 72 yards and reached the LaSalle 8-yard mark.

Sparked by quarterback Gary Keedy, who accounted for four of the eight touchdowns, Keyser High School ran roughshod over the gridders of Berkeley Springs High School yesterday at Stayman Field, Keyser, to chalk up its ninth consecutive victory of the 1959 campaign. It was the biggest scoring spree put on by Coach Frederick "Tack" Clark's team this season and the final score was 53-0.

The Golden Tornado wound up its Potomac Valley Conference campaign with a 7-0 record and tied the West Virginia School for the Deaf of Romney for the championship for the second straight season. The Lions ended their P.V.C. season with a 4-0 mark.

Seven of the eight touchdowns scored in yesterday's game were the result of runs ranging from 40 to 95 yards.

Keedy galloped 80 yards for the first touchdown of the game in the opening period. He scored on a 40-yard run in the second period and repeated in the third quarter. His final td spring covered 95 yards in the last quarter.

Keedy Increases Lead

Adding 24 points to his P.V.C. season total, Keedy upped his total to 78 on 13 touchdowns. His closest competitor is Bill Sherman, of Moorefield, with 49 tallies. Sherman plays his final PVC game of the season against Beall High on Saturday. Keedy moved into second place in area scoring with a total of 84 markers with one regular game left to play—that with Charles Town on November 20. Larry Jones, of the West Virginia School for the Deaf, the area leader, who has finished the season, has 88 points to his credit.

Keyser's other scores were credited to "Corky" Wilt, who carried from the nine in the first period, Fred Clark on a pass from Keedy which covered 49 yards in the second quarter, freshman "Chuck" Bradfield on a 55-yard sprint in the third stanza and Mike Melody on a 50-yard punt return in the final period.

Francis Sidley kicked three extra points and blocked a McCullough punt in the end zone for a Keyser safety in the third quarter.

The game attracted a large crowd on what was observed as Parents' Day.

Win 32 Straight

The victory enabled Keyser to conclude its sixth consecutive undefeated season in the P.V.C., and extended the Golden Tornado's victory skein to 32 games in that circuit. Since the last loss midway in the 1958 campaign, Keyser has reeled off 14 wins in a row, including 11 shutouts.

Berkeley Springs concluded its season with a 1-9 record. The Indians' only victory was a 7-6 decision over Ridgeley.

Orange Bowl May Be Site Of Title Bout

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The City Commission unanimously approved Tuesday Vincent J. Velella's offer of $60,000 for the Orange Bowl as the site of the return heavyweight championship fight between Ingemar Johansson and Floyd Patterson.

The decision now rests with the board of trustees of the Florida National Bank, which holds the Orange Bowl bonds.

Velella said last week the fight would be held in the bowl, probably March 1, if his offer is accepted.

AT LEAST THREE high schools and one college in the tri-state area will have new coaches when the 1959-60 basketball season gets under way next month.

James Eckard, succeeds Wayne Boor, who was at Fort Hill just one year before transferring to Wheaton High School. "Eck" Miers takes over at Keyser High School as successor to John R. Shelton, promoted to assistant principal at that school. Carroll Michael is William "Honey" Crites' replacement at Petersburg High School and Billy O. Wireman takes over the reins at Shepherd College, succeeding Jesse Riggleman, who remains as grid mentor there.

Here are the records of a majority of the coaches in the tri-state area:

(*) Denotes schools at which there are new coaches for coming season.

Paugh at Mathias four years (record there not available).

Thomas at Barton three years (1950-1952). Record 40-27.

Payne at Ridgeley four years (1953-1956). Record 52-44.

Meyers at Central six years (1948-1953). Record 89-46.

Schoonover at Parsons three years (1950-1952). Record 21-44.

Ritchie at Southern one year (1955) Record 15-5.

Riggleman at Ridgeley 7 years (1942-1944) and (1947-1950). Record 75-21. After one year at Pomeroy, Ohio, coached Petersburg five years (1952-1956). Record 71-45.

Brooks coached two years at Elk Garden, three years at Rowlesburg and four years at Parsons before going to Frederick in 1949.

CLAUDE E. WARREN is resigning after serving as coach at Harrisonburg (Va.) High School for 28 years. In the final game of the football season played by his team on Friday, the Blue Streaks battled Handley High of Winchester to a 13-13 tie.

THE HANDLEY - Martinsburg game, a fixture on Thanksgiving Day for many years, has been moved up to Friday, November 13 this year, at Martinsburg.

This series was started in 1923 and this year's game will be the 38th. Handley holds the edge in wins, 21 to 12. Four contests ended in ties.

SOUTHERN High School's Highlanders have concluded their best season since they inaugurated the grid sport at the Garrett County school in 1954.

This was Earl Adolphson's first year as head coach at Oakland and it was the first time in six seasons Southern finished with a record of .500 or better.

Southern's football records:

Year	W	L	T
1959	5	4	0
1958	2	7	0
1957	1	8	0
1956	2	7	0
1955	3	4	1
1954	1	2	1

WHEN Allegany High School faces Romney High's Pioneers here Saturday night it will be the first meeting of these schools on the gridiron in 22 years.

Their only meeting in 1937 resulted in a 60-6 win for Allegany and that was the highest score ever rolled up by a team coached by Herman Ball during the 68 games his Camper teams played over seven seasons.

BEL AIR High School's Bobcats, coached by Al Cesky, who is at the helm there for the 9th year, will finish the season undefeated if victorious over Salisbury High in the final game.

The Harford Countians are 7-0 and hold decisions over two CVAL teams, Westminster, 21-19, and Frederick, 20-19, also St. Paul's 33-20, Havre de Grace 39-12, Howard County 45-21, Annapolis 33-6 and LaPlata 39-13.

In 1956, Bel Air was headed toward an undefeated season until dumped by Salisbury in the last game, 24-21.

LASALLE High School's Explorers, who lost to such teams as Fort Hill 7-0-1, Bedford 6-2, Keyser 9-0, Allegany 6-2 and Moorefield 8-1 pick on another tartar Friday when they tackle the Marauders of Altoona Catholic High School in a night game here.

Coach Paul Bradley's quint comes here with a 7-2 record. In its last two outings ACHS has whipped Johnstown Catholic, 33-14, and Saxton-Liberty of Saxton, Pa., 26-0.

SALVATORE "Sal" Somma, a native of Ridgeley, W. Va., whose New Dorp (Staten Island) High School teams, get good press in the New York City dailies, has another winner this year. New Dorp is 4-0 and its latest win was scored at the expense of the Honest Abes of Abraham Lincoln High School, 20-0.

New Dorp is the only undefeated team in Public School Athletic League competition and has clinched at least a tie for the Division Four title.

VINNIE FARRELL, the New Jerseyite, who refereed several LaSalle basketball games here in bygone days, will officiate in the Penn State - Holy Cross football game Saturday at University Park, Pa.

Farrell is supervisor of physical education in the Newark (N. J.) public schools.

ONE of the biggest surprises in nearby Pennsylvania the past weekend was Everett Southern holding Richland Township to a 7-0 score at Windber.

It was a scoreless game until 2:44 left to play when Joe Begeny ran 62 yards for the touchdown that gave Richland its 32nd consecutive victory. It was Richland's 9th win of the year. Everett is 6-3.

Richland had whipped Bedford, 20-0, after the Bisons had trimmed Everett, 20-7.

Rabbit And Quail Season Opens Today In West Virginia

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (UPI)—West Virginia hunters will have a chance Wednesday to legally kill quail, rabbit and ringnecked pheasant. A four-day season on wild turkeys also opens in three counties.

Hunters may kill seven quail a day, or 35 a season; four rabbits daily and 24 a season, and two male pheasants for the season. Wild turkey becomes legal Wednesday in Preston, Summers and Monongalia Counties until Nov. 14. The turkey season in many other West Virginia counties opened Oct. 3 and runs through Jan. 2, 1960.

Raccoon, opossum, skunk and mink become legal for trappers Wednesday until Jan. 2. There is no limit. Trappers also may take muskrats from Wednesday until Nov. 29.

The quail, rabbit and pheasant seasons end Jan. 2.

Outcome Of Colgate Contest Is Awaited

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Syracuse players and fans, glowing over the Orange's No. 1 ranking in the weekly Associated Press poll, learned Tuesday they could have an Orange Bowl berth for the asking.

The players voted for it but university officials postponed a decision until after Saturday's game with Colgate.

Lew Andreas, Syracuse athletic director, said after a two-hour meeting the university's Athletic Board would meet again to discuss a bowl game, probably Sunday night.

Andreas said university officials had talked with representatives of the Orange, Cotton and Liberty bowls.

In Miami, Chairman Van C. Kussrow of the Orange Bowl selection committee said Tuesday night the committee will confer Wednesday in the light of indecision at Syracuse.

Kussrow said, "There are Georgia, Georgia Tech, Tennessee and several other teams we can't name now which have to be considered as an opponent for the Big Eight representative in the Orange Bowl game."

Earlier Kussrow said the bid would be extended if Syracuse would indicate quickly it was wanted.

Henry Stafford Bags Button Buck In Garrett County

Maryland State Trooper Henry Stafford, of Lonaconing, who is stationed at the Frederick Barracks, yesterday became the third bow and arrow hunter to kill a deer in Garrett county during the special season which opened November 2 and ends November 14.

He bagged a 90-pound button buck in the Bear Creek area.

The animal was checked at the LaVale Barracks of the Maryland State Police.

Nine deer have been killed in Region No. 1 to date—four in Washington county, three in Garrett and two in Allegany.

Terps Prepare For Clemson

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP)—Maryland's football team emphasized pass drills in one and a half hours of scrimmaging Tuesday.

Coach Tom Nugent sent his regulars against the second team, a departure from the usual practice of scrimmaging against the "b" and freshman squads.

The Terps, who have won only two and suffered five defeats including two at the hands of the nation's top-ranked teams, Texas and Syracuse, aren't given much chance of upsetting Clemson Saturday.

The Tigers lead the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 5-0 record and are 6-1 in all games.

Because the sloth spends most of its time upside down, its fur lies in the opposite direction to that of other animals, towards its back instead of down from it. When torrential rains fall, the moisture merely drops off instead of soaking through.

NEW YORK (UPI) — College football's "upset of the year" probably hasn't happened yet.

There have been form reversals all over the map—with Nebraska and Tennessee leading the pack—but the absence of out and out shockers could mean the worst is yet to come in this final month notorious for its upsets.

So far, Nebraska is the year's No. 1 upsetter. The Cornhuskers figured in two of the biggest—25-21 over Oklahoma and 32-12 over Minnesota.

The Oklahoma victory tops them all from the oddsmakers angle for the Sooners were favored by 16 points. Minnesota was favored by 10.

Tennessee's two major upsets over Auburn and Louisiana State shook up the national picture but the Volunteers weren't exactly long shots in either game — an underdog by seven.

Little Vs. Big

Among the worst point miscalculations were those involving Texas A&M over Michigan State, 9-7, and Harvard over Pennsylvania, 12-0. Both Harvard and the Texas Aggies were 14 point underdogs.

But where are the so - called "little schools" belting the big ones? Or the 25-point underdogs rising to smite the mighty?

Closest to that category that comes to mind is Westchester, Pa., State trumping Villanova 13-7 in the Sept. 26 opener. In September it was heart-warming to all except Villanova but today's hindsight exposes Villanova (1-7) as not much, anyway.

Only one 10-point favorite, in addition to Minnesota, suffered a reverse, according to a check of the weekly odds. That was Army, belted by Illinois, 20-14.

Yale was eight over Dartmouth and lost 12-8. Purdue was eight over Ohio State and lost, 15-0. Generally, the oddsmakers have been playing it fairly cozy and when in doubt refused to put a potentially lop-sided game on the books.

"Cautious" Favorite

In one way, Tennessee's 14-13 victory over Louisiana State certainly rated an "upset of the year" tag since it marked the first time in a 20-game surge LSU had gone down. However LSU was a cautious "favorite" at only seven points.

Northwestern, another victim last Saturday, went into the tussle with Wisconsin rated a six-point favorite.

There have been some dandy overlays on points, though, and just about tops was last week's quote making Stanford a five-point favorite over UCLA. The Uclans whacked Stanford (Wow!)—55-13.

Oklahoma was favored by 5½ and lost to Northwestern 45 - 13 under extenuating dietary circumstances. Dartmouth, five over Holy Cross, went down 31-8.

And Notre Dame, 5½ over Michigan State, wound up losing a 19-0 shutout.

But if you've been burned a bit so far—the word, as usual in November, is to proceed with extreme caution.

An 18-yard touchdown run by Gerald Lowery in the final period enabled LaSalle High School's junior varsity football team to battle the Beall High Jayvees to a 6-6 tie in a game played Monday at County Field.

It was Beall's final game of the season and gave Coach Bob Chaney's eleven a 3-3-1 record.

Jerry Delaney gave Beall a 6-0 lead in the opening period when he raced 75 yards for the initial touchdown.

Kicks for the extra points by Jim Robertson, of Beall, and John Sitter, LaSalle, were blocked.

Beall provided a thrill on the last play of the game when Jim McFarland's pass to Jerry Delaney covered 72 yards and reached the LaSalle 8-yard mark.

12 Horses Slated To Start In International Race Today

Tudor Era 2-1 Choice At Laurel

Midnight Sun 3-1; Purse Of Winner Will Be $70,000

By RAY AYRES

LAUREL, Md. (UPI) — Twelve horses from nine countries, the largest representation of nations in the history of the $100,000 Washington, D.C. International, formally were entered Tuesday for Wednesday's running of the global classic.

Tudor Era, an American entry owned by Mrs. Herbert Herff of Memphis, Tenn., is the favorite but his chances of carrying U.S. silks to a third victory in the mile and one-half event have gone up from 8 to 5 to 2 to 1. Fisherman in 1954 and Mahan in 1957 were previous American winners.

Winners Purse $70,000

In three of the seven previous renewals seven countries had horses in the race. This time Russia, France, Venezuela, England, New Zealand, Mexico, Australia and Peru as well as America will send horses after a winner's purse of $70,000.

France has two horses, Midnight Sun and Mi Carina; Pensilvania represents Venezuela; Russia has Garnir and Flang; Aggressor comes from England; Up and Coming runs for New Zealand; Lea-B. represents Mexico; Vogel travelled all the way from Australia; and Lightning appears outside his native Peru for the first time.

1958 Victor Disqualified

In addition to Tudor Era, which finished first a year ago only to be disqualified, America has Bald Eagle, owned by the Cain Hoy Stable of Harry F. Guggenheim.

The French horses appear the strongest threat with Midnight Sun, a three-year-old colt owned by Francois Dupre of Paris, second choice at 3 to 1. Mi Carina, a three-year-old filly purchased in France by the Greentree Stable of John Hay Whitney and Mrs Charles Payson, is third choice at 5 to 1 along with Bald Eagle.

Walk-up starts, with the horses running at the drop of a flag, were used in all previous runnings of the race. Last year this resulted in a long delay at the post with Zaryad from Russia breaking far behind the field.

This year a webbing arrangement used in England was imported for the start but proved faulty in tests. So the horses will lineup behind an elastic rope stretched taut by a man at each end. The men walk forward slowly with the rope as the horses move behind it. Then the inside man lets go, the rope snaps out of the way, and the race is on.

To Coach South

MIAMI, Fla (AP)—Wade Walker, head coach of Mississippi State's football team, Tuesday was named coach of the South squad for the Shrine's annual North-South college all-star game here Dec. 26. This year's North squad will be coached by Dale Hall, head coach at Army.

Nugget Makes Sweep

The Golden Nugget swept three games from the Frostburg Republican Club in an Allegany County Women's Shuffleboard League match last night. Pat Green paced the winners with 20 points while Susie Blough led the Republicans with 18 tallies.

(Final Standings)

Mt. Savage High School clinched second place in the W.M.I. Soccer League yesterday by battling the Flintstone Aggies to a 1-1 tie in the final game of the season at Mt. Savage.

It was the fifth tie game played in the league this season and the third in which Mt. Savage had engaged.

Leroy Morris kicked a penalty goal for Mt. Savage in the second period but in the same frame Paul Barnes scored from the field for Coach Orville Jackson's team which spilled Bruce, 2-1, and battled Mt. Savage on even terms in the last two games of the season after dropping six games in a row.

Fay Often, Jim DeHaven and Tom Deffenbaugh of Mt. Savage, and Haines, Puffenberger and Moyer of Flintstone were the outstanding players.

Jim Duncan, of Beall, was the scoring champion for the 1959 campaign with nine points, five field goals and four penalty goals to his credit. Leroy Morris and Dale Hott of Mt. Savage were tied for the runner-up spot with seven goals each. Jim Pollock, Valley, and Reed Clingerman, Flintstone, scored six points each.

Woodbine Double Payoff Is $1,770

TORONTO (AP)—Disarmament and Trunk Line won the first two races at Woodbine Tuesday to combine for the Ontario racing season's largest daily double of $1,770.50. Fourteen persons held $2 tickets on the winning combination. Disarmament won the first race and paid $30.40. Trunk Line paid $36.80 in the second race.

Double Pays $657.70

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lucky daily double ticket holders at Aqueduct enjoyed a $657.70 return Tuesday when Woden was disqualified as winner of the first race and Clay Street, paying $60.80, was installed in first place.

Top Double rounded out the combination with a $10.50 payoff in the second race.

Egotistical scored a length victory over Discard in the $6,000 Golden Voyage Purse.

Johnson, Ray Fight Tonight

Chicago Stadium Scene Of Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Harold Johnson, the rusty No. 1 light heavy contender with a shining record, takes on fifth-ranked Sonny Ray in a Chicago Stadium 10-rounder Wednesday night.

Johnson, 31, unbeaten in 10 bouts over the past four years, is a 3-1 favorite over Ray, who is 23.

The bout will be televised nationally (10 p.m., EST-ABC).

Johnson, from Philadelphia, has an over-all record of 61-8 including 28 knockouts. Four of those few defeats came at the hands of current 175-pound champion, Archie Moore.

Johnson has had only one start this year, knocking out Johnny York in six rounds May 4.

Johnson is trying for another shot at Moore through a convincing victory over Ray, a tough Chicagoan. Ray's record is 20-8-5. He lost his last two bouts.

Howard Grant Scores Triple

Yes You Will Cops Feature At Laurel

LAUREL, Md., Nov. 10 (AP)—Jockey Howard Grant, who has made a run-away of the Laurel Race Course's saddle contest, showed his winning form before a crowd of 9,566 on the eve of the $100,000 Washington, D. C., International here today when he rode three winners.

In the featured autumn days purse, eighth race, Grant, who'll ride the Peruvian champion Lightning in the International tomorrow, was mounted on Mrs. Edith L. Price's Yes You Will, who ran the fastest six furlongs of the meeting—1:11 4/5.

After idling away from the gate, Yes You Will was asked for top speed on the far turn, quickly moved to the lead and Grant was sitting still at the reins when the Maryland-bred 3-year-old hit the wire about four lengths in front and for a $3.20 payoff.

Grant, who increased his score for the 12-day-old meeting to 29 winners, had been aboard Flaming Susie, who took the second race, and Happy Water, the odds-on victor in the third attraction. The Welcome Purse, seventh race and secondary feature, found the Russian jockey Nikolai Nasibov, who is here to ride Garnir in the International, accepting the mount on a 99-to-1 shot, My Redbird.

Nasibov performed even better than was expected when he had the rank outsider away in front and then finished fifth on a horse which figured to be last in a nine-horse field. The Welcome Purse was won by John A. Hoy's Augment, with Chasmar Flash, the favorite under Grant, tiring to second payoff.

Hot Stove League To Elect Thursday

Officers will be elected by the Hot Stove Baseball League at a meeting to be held Thursday, November 12, at 8 p. m., at the Loyal Order of Moose Home.

Representatives of all teams in the league are urged to attend.

The present officers of the league are George Flynn, president; Earl M. Nonnenmann, vice president, and H. Frank Hinze, secretary-treasurer.

Hospital Added

BALTIMORE—Among the new improvements at Pimlico for the fall season opening November 13, is a separate building for a hospital with five beds and space for the track doctor, two nurses and all the modern equipment necessary.

Texas And Northwestern Are Six-Point Favorites

Syracuse Picked To Trim Colgate, V.P.I. Is Choice

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wisconsin, Northwestern, Texas, and Washington were listed as favorites Tuesday for important Saturday football games affecting post-season bowl hopes.

However, Oregon, currently Washington's chief rival for the western berth in the Rose Bowl, was put at only even money against Washington State in the rundown of weekend football odds.

Wisconsin, which seized a tie for the Big Ten lead by whipping Northwestern last week, was a 10 point choice to keep rolling with a victory over Illinois. Co-leader Northwestern was a more modest six point to regain the victory trail at Michigan State's expense.

Washington, tied for second place among members of the defunct Pacific Coast Conference, is a six-point choice over California.

Texas, the nation's No. 2 team with the current inside track to the Southwest Conference championship and the host role in the Cotton Bowl, is a six-point favorite over Texas Christian.

Texas is one of the four remaining major unbeaten, untied teams. Among the others, national leader Syracuse is a 36-point favorite over Colgate, third-ranked Southern California is favored by 14 over Baylor in a major intersectional, and North Texas State is a 7 point choice over Tulsa.

Here is the rundown on odds:

Friday Night:
Miami (Fla.) ½ over S. Carolina
UCLA 9 over N. Carolina St.

Saturday
Vanderbilt 1 over Tulane
Notre Dame 3 over Pittsburgh
Auburn 3 over Georgia
Va. Tech 3 over W. Virginia
Ga. Tech 6 over Alabama

12 Horses Slated To Start In International Race Today

Tudor Era 2-1 Choice At Laurel

Midnight Sun 3-1; Purse Of Winner Will Be $70,000

By RAY AYRES

LAUREL, Md. (UPI) — Twelve horses from nine countries, the largest representation of nations in the history of the $100,000 Washington, D.C. International, formally were entered Tuesday for Wednesday's running of the global classic.

Tudor Era, an American entry owned by Mrs. Herbert Herff of Memphis, Tenn., is the favorite but his chances of carrying U.S. silks to a third victory in the mile and one-half event have gone up from 8 to 5 to 2 to 1. Fisherman in 1954 and Mahan in 1957 were previous American winners.

Winners Purse $70,000

In three of the seven previous renewals seven countries had horses in the race. This time Russia, France, Venezuela, England, New Zealand, Mexico, Australia and Peru as well as America will send horses after a winner's purse of $70,000.

France has two horses, Midnight Sun and Mi Carina; Pensilvania represents Venezuela; Russia has Garnir and Flang; Aggressor comes from England; Up and Coming runs for New Zealand; Lea-B. represents Mexico; Vogel travelled all the way from Australia; and Lightning appears outside his native Peru for the first time.

1958 Victor Disqualified

In addition to Tudor Era, which finished first a year ago only to be disqualified, America has Bald Eagle, owned by the Cain Hoy Stable of Harry F. Guggenheim.

The French horses appear the strongest threat with Midnight Sun, a three-year-old colt owned by Francois Dupre of Paris, second choice at 3 to 1. Mi Carina, a three-year-old filly purchased in France by the Greentree Stable of John Hay Whitney and Mrs Charles Payson, is third choice at 5 to 1 along with Bald Eagle.

Walk-up starts, with the horses running at the drop of a flag, were used in all previous runnings of the race. Last year this resulted in a long delay at the post with Zaryad from Russia breaking far behind the field.

This year a webbing arrangement used in England was imported for the start but proved faulty in tests. So the horses will lineup behind an elastic rope stretched taut by a man at each end. The men walk forward slowly with the rope as the horses move behind it. Then the inside man lets go, the rope snaps out of the way, and the race is on.

To Coach South

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Wade Walker, head coach of Mississippi State's football team, Tuesday was named coach of the South squad for the Shrine's annual North-South college all-star game here Dec. 26. This year's North squad will be coached by Dale Hall, head coach at Army.

Nugget Makes Sweep

The Golden Nugget swept three games from the Frostburg Republican Club in an Allegany County Women's Shuffleboard League match last night. Pat Green paced the winners with 20 points while Susie Blough led the Republicans with 18 tallies.

(Final Standings)

Mt. Savage High School clinched second place in the W.M.I. Soccer League yesterday by battling the Flintstone Aggies to a 1-1 tie in the final game of the season at Mt. Savage.

It was the fifth tie game played in the league this season and the third in which Mt. Savage had engaged.

Leroy Morris kicked a penalty goal for Mt. Savage in the second period but in the same frame Paul Barnes scored from the field for Coach Orville Jackson's team which spilled Bruce, 2-1, and battled Mt. Savage on even terms in the last two games of the season after dropping six games in a row.

Fay Often, Jim DeHaven and Tom Deffenbaugh of Mt. Savage, and Haines, Puffenberger and Moyer of Flintstone were the outstanding players.

Jim Duncan, of Beall, was the scoring champion for the 1959 campaign with nine points, five field goals and four penalty goals to his credit. Leroy Morris and Dale Hott of Mt. Savage were tied for the runner-up spot with seven goals each. Jim Pollock, Valley, and Reed Clingerman, Flintstone, scored six points each.

Woodbine Double Payoff Is $1,770

TORONTO (AP)—Disarmament and Trunk Line won the first two races at Woodbine Tuesday to combine for the Ontario racing season's largest daily double of $1,770.50. Fourteen persons held $2 tickets on the winning combination. Disarmament won the first race and paid $30.40. Trunk Line paid $36.80 in the second race.

Double Pays $657.70

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lucky daily double ticket holders at Aqueduct enjoyed a $657.70 return Tuesday when Woden was disqualified as winner of the first race and Clay Street, paying $60.80, was installed in first place.

Top Double rounded out the combination with a $10.50 payoff in the second race.

Egotistical scored a length victory over Discard in the $6,000 Golden Voyage Purse.

Johnson, Ray Fight Tonight

Chicago Stadium Scene Of Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—Harold Johnson, the rusty No. 1 light heavy contender with a shining record, takes on fifth-ranked Sonny Ray in a Chicago Stadium 10-rounder Wednesday night.

Johnson, 31, unbeaten in 10 bouts over the past four years, is a 3-1 favorite over Ray, who is 23.

The bout will be televised nationally (10 p.m., EST-ABC).

Johnson, from Philadelphia, has an over-all record of 61-8 including 28 knockouts. Four of those few defeats came at the hands of current 175-pound champion, Archie Moore.

Johnson has had only one start this year, knocking out Johnny York in six rounds May 4.

Johnson is trying for another shot at Moore through a convincing victory over Ray, a tough Chicagoan. Ray's record is 20-8-5. He lost his last two bouts.

Howard Grant Scores Triple

Yes You Will Cops Feature At Laurel

LAUREL, Md., Nov. 10 (AP)—Jockey Howard Grant, who has made a run-away of the Laurel Race Course's saddle contest, showed his winning form before a crowd of 9,566 on the eve of the $100,000 Washington, D. C., International here today when he rode three winners.

In the featured autumn days purse, eighth race, Grant, who'll ride the Peruvian champion Lightning in the International tomorrow, was mounted on Mrs. Edith L. Price's Yes You Will, who ran the fastest six furlongs of the meeting—1:11 4/5.

After idling away from the gate, Yes You Will was asked for top speed on the far turn, quickly moved to the lead and Grant was sitting still at the reins when the Maryland-bred 3-year-old hit the wire about four lengths in front and for a $3.20 payoff.

Grant, who increased his score for the 12-day-old meeting to 29 winners, had been aboard Flaming Susie, who took the second race, and Happy Water, the odds-on victor in the third attraction. The Welcome Purse, seventh race and secondary feature, found the Russian jockey Nikolai Nasibov, who is here to ride Garnir in the International, accepting the mount on a 99-to-1 shot, My Redbird.

Nasibov performed even better than was expected when he had the rank outsider away in front and then finished fifth on a horse which figured to be last in a nine-horse field. The Welcome Purse was won by John A. Hoy's Augment, with Chasmar Flash, the favorite under Grant, tiring to second payoff.

Hot Stove League To Elect Thursday

Officers will be elected by the Hot Stove Baseball League at a meeting to be held Thursday, November 12, at 8 p. m., at the Loyal Order of Moose Home.

Representatives of all teams in the league are urged to attend.

The present officers of the league are George Flynn, president; Earl M. Nonnenmann, vice president, and H. Frank Hinze, secretary-treasurer.

Hospital Added

BALTIMORE—Among the new improvements at Pimlico for the fall season opening November 13, is a separate building for a hospital with five beds and space for the track doctor, two nurses and all the modern equipment necessary.

Texas And Northwestern Are Six-Point Favorites

Syracuse Picked To Trim Colgate, V.P.I. Is Choice

NEW YORK (UPI) — Wisconsin, Northwestern, Texas, and Washington were listed as favorites Tuesday for important Saturday football games affecting post-season bowl hopes.

However, Oregon, currently Washington's chief rival for the western berth in the Rose Bowl, was put at only even money against Washington State in the rundown of weekend football odds.

Wisconsin, which seized a tie for the Big Ten lead by whipping Northwestern last week, was a 10 point choice to keep rolling with a victory over Illinois. Co-leader Northwestern was a more modest six point to regain the victory trail at Michigan State's expense.

Washington, tied for second place among members of the defunct Pacific Coast Conference, is a six-point choice over California.

Texas, the nation's No. 2 team with the current inside track to the Southwest Conference championship and the host role in the Cotton Bowl, is a six-point favorite over Texas Christian.

Texas is one of the four remaining major unbeaten, untied teams. Among the others, national leader Syracuse is a 36-point favorite over Colgate, third-ranked Southern California is favored by 14 over Baylor in a major intersectional, and North Texas State is a 7 point choice over Tulsa.

Here is the rundown on odds:

Friday Night:
Miami (Fla.) ½ over S. Carolina
UCLA 9 over N. Carolina St.

Saturday

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market attention was glued again Tuesday to developments in the wake of the Supreme Court's interruption of the steel strike.

Uncertainties of the situation made analysts cautious in their interpretations of the outlook.

Investors displayed their own uncertainty.

Steel shares were mixed, with some of the major companies showing declines on the New York Stock Exchange.

"It is a bit dangerous at this point to say how much is changed in the stock market as a result of the injunction," observed W. E. Huttong & Co. "It looks as though the fight will go on at least for the major part of the 80 - day cooling-off period.

"It is too late to avoid the great damage to corporation earnings and wage - earner buying power caused by the 116-day work stoppage of around 87 or 88 per cent of the country's steelmaking capacity, and the consequences will be felt in the steel-using industries for at least two or three months.

"It would seem logical, right now at least, to assume that stocks will be selective during the further waiting period. If confidence is to be restored, it will come gradually rather than all of a sudden unless there is a settlement of the steel issue which is generally recognized as inflationary."

"The steel strike has had its effects like a recession," says Moody's Investors' Service. "It has built up potentials for the period following it. On this basis, we would wait for a better market sentiment o develop before making investment adjustments in the conservative direction, which is indicated as a logical policy on a longer term basis.

Bache & Co. comments, "The market's technical situation has shown a tendency toward deterioration rather than the construction of an important base. The continuing uncertainty regarding the steel situation remains. These factors, combined with the resistance barrier which lies just above current levels are likely to exert further depressing influence on the list as a whole. Individual issues will continue to outperform the general list but the irregular pattern which has developed during the past several weeks is likely to rule market action over the intermediate term."

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN: You and your pat answers. It sounds so simple when you reel off those high-sounding phrases, but putting them into practice is another story.

I've been married to a cake of ice for 12 years. We have three children. They are here only because my wife's sister-in-law had three and she wasn't going to be outdone.

I've threatened to get affection elsewhere and her reply is "It would be a relief. Just leave ME alone."

She's under 30 years of age, a smart dresser, wonderful housekeeper and 100% all-out mother. Of course I can't discuss this with anyone we know, but I need outside help. Tell me what to do about a woman who is FROZEN.

— Z-RO

DEAR Z-RO: Many are cold—but few are frozen. This story is an old one. Unfortunately your wife is probably a chip off the old glacier. A woman who tells her husband to find romance elsewhere and leave her alone, knows very well she's inviting trouble—and she'd probably collapse if you took her up on it.

You both should have a frank talk with the family doctor. This is "strictly business" to him. Perhaps something in your approach has frozen her up. She owes it to you to discuss this problem with a professional and be a full-time wife.

DEAR ANN: My step-daughter married a no good bum. They both like to drink. As a result they can't hold jobs because they get nasty when they're stiff — which is all the time.

Last month, my husband took $672 out of the bank and gave them a down payment for a car. I raised holy Ned with my husband and he said it was HIS money because he had earned it. I've kept house, cooked, ironed, and nursed him in illness for 20 years. Do I have a right to feel that half of what he has belongs to me? — BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED UP: You do, indeed. What some men can't get through their heads is this: A wife is a partner in marriage and shares her husband's harness sores even if she doesn't bring home a paycheck.

A wife who lets her husband dole out paltry sums when he feels big-hearted is a fool. As a matter of dignity every woman should have some money to call her own. She should not have to beg. Nor should she be so ignorant about finances that her husband can draw $672 out of the bank without her knowledge. (Guess I gave you more information than you asked for, but this is one of my pet subjects!)

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please don't throw this letter away because it's not earth shaking. Your answer could mean a lot to millions of girls my age.

I am 13 — too young for this and too old for that. In other words, I'm a nothing.

How old should a girl be before she wears hose and heels? Mom says I'm too young but some girls in my class have been doing it since they were 12. Whatever you say is law.

— SOCKS TO STOCKINGS

DEAR SOCKS: High school (about 15) is time enough to change from socks to stockings and from flats to heels. Of course this means special evening occasions, only. AND it also means you must behave like a lady if you expect Mom to let you dress like one.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Secrets Of Charm

by John Robert Powers

Charm That's Quick On The Up-Take

Did you ever blunder, hopelessly, at the office before everyone, or in a social group — and have someone come to the rescue with just the right words and action to save the situation? Most of us have at some time in our lives. And we'll never forget the person who relieved our embarrassment!

Admiration never flares as quickly as it does when an awkward situation is smoothed out in a flash — the diplomat who does the smoothing immediately stands high in the opinion of everyone and with good reason. Tactful and gracious reaction on the spur of a difficult moment can come only from kindness, understanding and the wish to be helpful that is established in character.

It takes more than quick thinking to do and say the right thing in the tight spot someone else got into — it seems that the saving impulse comes without thinking. There's not a chance that you'll help anyone in a pinch if you enjoy discomfiture for others. You won't find the soft answer that turns away condemnation of mistakes if you care very little. You can hardly relieve tension in disputes on controversial subjects if you see only one side of a subject. You'll be more likely to make things worse than better when prejudiced words hurt and antagonize if you're full of narrow prejudices yourself.

It can't be said too often that charm must begin deeply below-surface. Be happy to see results of your charm-seeking in delightful appearance and sparkling manner, but remember that you are making the best of yourself so you will have more to offer others in so many ways. Inner graciousness prompts graciousness that shows when the chips are down. The right spirit behind it makes it easy to be quick on the up-take with charm in any situation.

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market attention was glued again Tuesday to developments in the wake of the Supreme Court's interruption of the steel strike.

Uncertainties of the situation made analysts cautious in their interpretations of the outlook.

Investors displayed their own uncertainty.

Steel shares were mixed, with some of the major companies showing declines on the New York Stock Exchange.

"It is a bit dangerous at this point to say how much is changed in the stock market as a result of the injunction," observed W. E. Huttong & Co. "It looks as though the fight will go on at least for the major part of the 80 - day cooling-off period.

"It is too late to avoid the great damage to corporation earnings and wage - earner buying power caused by the 116-day work stoppage of around 87 or 88 per cent of the country's steelmaking capacity, and the consequences will be felt in the steel-using industries for at least two or three months.

"It would seem logical, right now at least, to assume that stocks will be selective during the further waiting period. If confidence is to be restored, it will come gradually rather than all of a sudden unless there is a settlement of the steel issue which is generally recognized as inflationary."

"The steel strike has had its effects like a recession," says Moody's Investors' Service. "It has built up potentials for the period following it. On this basis, we would wait for a better market sentiment o develop before making investment adjustments in the conservative direction, which is indicated as a logical policy on a longer term basis.

Bache & Co. comments, "The market's technical situation has shown a tendency toward deterioration rather than the construction of an important base. The continuing uncertainty regarding the steel situation remains. These factors, combined with the resistance barrier which lies just above current levels are likely to exert further depressing influence on the list as a whole. Individual issues will continue to outperform the general list but the irregular pattern which has developed during the past several weeks is likely to rule market action over the intermediate term."

NEW MILL PLANNED

ST. JOE, Fla. (UPI) —Florida Gulf Fibre Co., a new concern, will build and operate a $13,500,000 paper mill here, according to Roger L. Main, president of St. Joe Paper Co. He did not disclose the connection between Florida Gulf and St. Joe which is controlled by the estate of Alfred I. Du Pont.

ANNOUNCES MERGER PLANS

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (UPI)—Lucky Stores, Inc., announced merger plans with Market Basket of Los Angeles. Market Basket stockholders would receive 1¼ Lucky Stores shares for each of the 792.926 shares outstanding shares of Market Basket.

Ann Landers . . .

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN: You and your pat answers. It sounds so simple when you reel off those high-sounding phrases, but putting them into practice is another story.

I've been married to a cake of ice for 12 years. We have three children. They are here only because my wife's sister-in-law had three and she wasn't going to be outdone.

I've threatened to get affection elsewhere and her reply is "It would be a relief. Just leave ME alone."

She's under 30 years of age, a smart dresser, wonderful housekeeper and 100% all-out mother. Of course I can't discuss this with anyone we know, but I need outside help. Tell me what to do about a woman who is FROZEN.
— Z-RO

DEAR Z-RO: Many are cold—but few are frozen. This story is an old one. Unfortunately your wife is probably a chip off the old glacier. A woman who tells her husband to find romance elsewhere and leave her alone, knows very well she's inviting trouble—and she'd probably collapse if you took her up on it.

You both should have a frank talk with the family doctor. This is "strictly business" to him. Perhaps something in your approach has frozen her up. She owes it to you to discuss this problem with a professional and be a full-time wife.

DEAR ANN: My step-daughter married a no good bum. They both like to drink. As a result they can't hold jobs because they get nasty when they're stiff — which is all the time.

Last month, my husband took $672 out of the bank and gave them a down payment for a car. I raised holy Ned with my husband and he said it was HIS money because he had earned it. I've kept house, cooked, ironed, and nursed him in illness for 20 years. Do I have a right to feel that half of what he has belongs to me? — BURNED UP

DEAR BURNED UP: You do, indeed. What some men can't get through their heads is this: A wife is a partner in marriage and shares her husband's harness sores even if she doesn't bring home a paycheck.

A wife who lets her husband dole out paltry sums when he feels big-hearted is a fool. As a matter of dignity every woman should have some money to call her own. She should not have to beg. Nor should she be so ignorant about finances that her husband can draw $672 out of the bank without her knowledge. (Guess I gave you more information than you asked for, but this is one of my pet subjects!)

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Please don't throw this letter away because it's not earth shaking. Your answer could mean a lot to millions of girls my age.

I am 13 — too young for this and too old for that. In other words, I'm a nothing.

How old should a girl be before she wears hose and heels? Mom says I'm too young but some girls in my class have been doing it since they were 12. Whatever you say is law.
— SOCKS TO STOCKINGS

DEAR SOCKS: High school (about 15) is time enough to change from socks to stockings and from flats to heels. Of course this means special evening occasions, only. AND it also means you must behave like a lady if you expect Mom to let you dress like one.

To learn the knack of feeling comfortable with the opposite sex, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "How To Be Date Bait," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Card Of Thanks

We take this means to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved mother and sister, Mrs. Agnes C. Pratt. We also wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent flowers and loaned cars for the funeral.
THE PRATT FAMILY
And The Minke Brothers

We wish to thank all our neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, following the death of our husband and father, Francis Leroy (Roy) Wilhelm. We also want to thank Rev. Robert Current, those who sent floral tributes, the pallbearers and those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral.
WIFE AND SONS

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Cpl. Harry R. Keller, who died 14 years ago November 11, 1945.

Our loved ones gone from us away,
To dwell in Heaven through endless day,
How sad it was to see him go.
And leave us here who loved him so.
Our home has now a vacant place,
A silent voice an absent face.
We know his smile we'll see no more,
Until we reach that Golden Shore.
Very Much Missed by his Mother, Brothers and Sisters

In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, William T. Rice, Jr., born Nov. 11, 1958 and died Nov. 11, 1958.

Dear is the grave where our darling is laid,
Sweet is the memory that never will fade,
His little soul, so pure and sweet,
Will blossom at our Saviour's feet.
Sadly missed by his Mommy and Daddy, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rice, Mt. Ranier, Md., and his sister.

Card Of Thanks

We take this means to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for their kindness to us during our recent bereavement, the death of our beloved mother and sister, Mrs. Agnes C. Pratt. We also wish to thank the pallbearers, those who sent flowers and loaned cars for the funeral.

THE PRATT FAMILY
And The Minke Brothers

We wish to thank all our neighbors and friends who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement, following the death of our husband and father, Francis Leroy (Roy) Wilhelm. We also want to thank Rev. Robert Current, those who sent floral tributes, the pallbearers and those who donated the use of their cars for the funeral.

WIFE AND SONS

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Cpl. Harry R. Keller, who died 14 years ago November 11, 1945.

Our loved ones gone from us away,
To dwell in Heaven through endless day.
How sad it was to see him go,
And leave us here who loved him so.
Our home has now a vacant place,
A silent voice an absent face.
We know his smile we'll see no more,
Until we reach that Golden Shore.
Very Much Missed by his Mother, Brothers and Sisters

In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, William T. Rice, Jr., born Nov. 11, 1958 and died Nov. 11, 1958.

Dear is the grave where our darling is laid,
Sweet is the memory that never will fade,
His little soul, so pure and sweet,
Will blossom at our Saviour's feet.
Sadly missed by his Mommy and Daddy, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rice, Mt. Ranier, Md., and his sister.

IMPALA

This is a beautiful light blue finished, 1 owner car that shows the excellent care it has received. It has the big V8 engine plus Automatic transmission that makes it a wonderful car to own. Other equipment includes radio, heater, defroster, signal lights, backup lights, power brakes, power steering, white sidewall tires plus all the other small accessories. The interior is all washable with plastic and nylon of two tone light and dark blue. This is a car you would be proud to own and there should not be any expense for repairs.

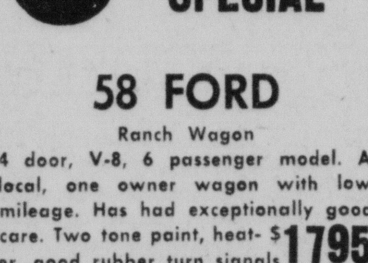
Armstrong's Cushiontone



Noise is no problem with this ceiling

The way to keep the noise from becoming a problem is to install ceilings of Armstrong's Cushiontone. This fiberboard acoustical tile traps sound in its perforated surface—keeps it from becoming an irritating racket. Armstrong's Cushiontone is low in cost.

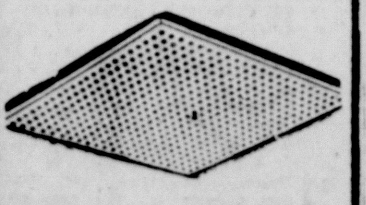
Armstrong's Cushiontone



Noise is no problem with this ceiling

The way to keep the noise from becoming a problem is to install ceilings of Armstrong's Cushiontone in the noisy rooms This fiberboard acoustical tile traps sound in its perforated surface—keeps it from growing into an irritating racket.

Armstrong's Cushiontone is low in cost and easily installed.

Space Age Stocks Score Gains In Mixed Market

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market staged a mixed and narrow performance highlighted by a number of good gains among the glamor stocks.

Brokers said the market failed to carry through on its initial burst of strength on Monday in spite of the steel injunction because the points at issue in the wage negotiations still are unresolved.

Traders turned away from steel shares and resumed their interest in the space age stocks — electronics, aircrafts and makers of rocket fuel.

Trading dropped to 3,020,000 shares from 3,700,000 shares the day before The market narrowed to 1,208 issues as against 1,250 on Monday. Of these, 575 declined, 484 advanced and 209 held unchanged. New highs for the year were registered by 11 issues, while 31 touched new lows.

American Motors was the most active issue of the day with 119,700 shares traded.

Steels failed to develop any definite trend as the industry went about the task of refiring its furnaces. U.S. Steel fell more than a half to 97¼. Bethlehem firmed. Lukens ran up a gain of more than 1.

Space age features included gains of 5½ in Motorola, 3½ in Litton Industries, and more than a point in Varian. The aircrafts, another branch of the glamor group, showed gains of 2¾ in Boeing and a rise of 1 or more in Douglas and Martin.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Wheat and oats were strong Tuesday on the Chicago Board of Trade, but other grains were lower.

At the closing bell, wheat was up ⅛ to 1⅛; corn off ⅛ to ¾; oats off ¼ to up 2; rye off ⅛ to up ⅛ and soybeans off ½ to 1.

Much of the trading in corn and soybeans took the form of evening up transactions in advance of the government crop estimate due later Tuesday. Clear weather was another factor in the market.

In wheat, a lively demand by commission houses continued after the opening bell, and the market held strong. March reached a new high for the season. Local longs were liberal sellers of December on the advance.

The CCC was reported to have sold nearly all of its red wheat at the gulf, a total of 700,000 bushels.

Corn prices were easier. The market underwent some hedge selling. Sales of March and May be Northwest brokers and December by eleavtors also acted to drop prices. A large commission house bought March.

Export subsidies were granted on 392,000 bushels of corn.

Oats were strong. Cash grain houses bought December and sold deferred contracts, which commission nouses picked up.

Rye futures were steady, although the Canadian market was higher.

Soybeans weakened on the evening up actions and some liquidation. Northwest brokers sold March and May. The local office of the CCC sold 1,075,000 bushels of Beans Monday.

Outside markets were mostly nigher.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
Pass	1 ♣	Pass	1 ♠
Pass	2 ♣	Pass	4 ♣
Pass	5 ♣	Pass	Pass
Pass

Opening lead: Queen of ♦.

It is with North's second bid that we take issue in today's hand. He considered that he held the equal of an opening bid facing a partner who had opened the bidding and, therefore, felt that game should be reached. He seems to have overlooked the fact that this refers to 9 or 10 trick games. Where a minor suit game is in contemplation, the partnership will require a little more.

In support of clubs, the North hand is worth 13 points (12 in high cards and 1 for distribution). Now, if opener has a minimum hand counting only 13 or 14 points, there will be no game in clubs, for such a game requires 28 or 29 points, but there may be a game in no trump, which requires about 26 high card points. In this case, a more restrained raise to only three clubs would have been sounder strategy, permitting opener to try for a no trump game if his hand is suitable.

Against five clubs the queen of diamonds was opened, and had declarer fallen into the error of taking this trick, the contract could not have been fulfilled. For as declarer attempted to establish a long spade, East could not have been prevented from obtaining the lead in time to come through the king of hearts.

When West's queen of diamonds was permitted to hold, he continued with the suit and South won with the king. After trumps were drawn in two rounds, the ace and king of spades were cashed and declarer's third spade was discarded on North's ace of diamonds. Now, a spade ruff established a long spade in the dummy upon which declarer discarded a losing heart.

Had spades not broken so fortunately, declarer could still lead a heart toward his own hand in the hope that East held the ace.

Space Age Stocks Score Gains In Mixed Market

NEW YORK (UPI) — The stock market staged a mixed and narrow performance highlighted by a number of good gains among the glamor stocks.

Brokers said the market failed to carry through on its initial burst of strength on Monday in spite of the steel injunction because the points at issue in the wage negotiations still are unresolved.

Traders turned away from steel shares and resumed their interest in the space age stocks — electronics, aircrafts and makers of rocket fuel.

Trading dropped to 3,020,000 shares from 3,700,000 shares the day before. The market narrowed to 1,208 issues as against 1,250 on Monday. Of these, 575 declined, 484 advanced and 209 held unchanged. New highs for the year were registered by 11 issues, while 31 touched new lows.

American Motors was the most active issue of the day with 119,700 shares traded.

Steels failed to develop any definite trend as the industry went about the task of refiring its furnaces. U.S. Steel fell more than a half to 97¼. Bethlehem firmed. Lukens ran up a gain of more than 1.

Space age features included gains of 5½ in Motorola, 3½ in Litton Industries, and more than a point in Varian. The aircrafts, another branch of the glamor group, showed gains of 2¾ in Boeing and a rise of 1 or more in Douglas and Martin.

Chicago Grains

CHICAGO (UPI)—Wheat and oats were strong Tuesday on the Chicago Board of Trade, but other grains were lower.

At the closing bell, wheat was up ⅛ to 1⅛; corn off ⅛ to ¾; oats off ¼ to up 2; rye off ⅛ to up ⅛ and soybeans off ½ to 1.

Much of the trading in corn and soybeans took the form of evening up transactions in advance of the government crop estimate due later Tuesday. Clear weather was another factor in the market.

In wheat, a lively demand by commission houses continued after the opening bell, and the market held strong. March reached a new high for the season. Local longs were liberal sellers of December on the advance.

The CCC was reported to have sold nearly all of its red wheat at the gulf, a total of 700,000 bushels.

Corn prices were easier. The market underwent some hedge selling. Sales of March and May be Northwest brokers and December by eleavtors also acted to drop prices. A large commission house bought March.

Export subsidies were granted on 392,000 bushels of corn.

Oats were strong. Cash grain houses bought December and sold deferred contracts, which commission nouses picked up.

Rye futures were steady, although the Canadian market was higher.

Soybeans weakened on the evening up actions and some liquidation. Northwest brokers sold March and May. The local office of the CCC sold 1,075,000 bushels of Beans Monday.

Outside markets were mostly nigher.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
Pass	1♣	Pass	1♠
Pass	2♣	Pass	4♣
Pass	5♣	Pass	Pass
Pass

Opening lead: Queen of ♦.

It is with North's second bid that we take issue in today's hand. He considered that he held the equal of an opening bid facing a partner who had opened the bidding and, therefore, felt that game should be reached. He seems to have overlooked the fact that this refers to 9 or 10 trick games. Where a minor suit game is in contemplation, the partnership will require a little more.

In support of clubs, the North hand is worth 13 points (12 in high cards and 1 for distribution). Now, if opener has a minimum hand counting only 13 or 14 points, there will be no game in clubs, for such a game requires 28 or 29 points, but there may be a game in no trump, which requires about 26 high card points. In this case, a more restrained raise to only three clubs would have been sounder strategy, permitting opener to try for a no trump game if his hand is suitable.

Against five clubs the queen of diamonds was opened, and had declarer fallen into the error of taking this trick, the contract could not have been fulfilled. For as declarer attempted to establish a long spade, East could not have been prevented from obtaining the lead in time to come through the king of hearts.

When West's queen of diamonds was permitted to hold, he continued with the suit and South won with the king. After trumps were drawn in two rounds, the ace and king of spades were cashed and declarer's third spade was discarded on North's ace of diamonds. Now, a spade ruff established a long spade in the dummy upon which declarer discarded a losing heart.

Had spades not broken so fortunately, declarer could still lead a heart toward his own hand in the hope that East held the ace.

John D. Bushby To Head SRC's 6th District

Will Take Over Post Here Dec. 9

The appointment of John D. Bushby, Baltimore, as District 6 engineer was announced yesterday by John B. Funk, chairman and director of the State Roads Commission.

Mr. Bushby, who is now serving as engineer of special operations for the SRC, will take over his new post on December 9.

As District 6 engineer, he will be stationed at the Braddock Road headquarters here, and will be in charge of all SRC maintenance and construction work in Allegany, Garrett and Washington counties.

For some time, Mr. Bushby has been stationed in Baltimore as engineer of special operations and was in charge of all highway maintenance and construction work done by SRC forces.

Is War Veteran

He is 45 and a native of Atlantic City, N. J., and received his early education there. He moved to Baltimore in 1924 and was graduated from Forest Park High School there.

After taking a two-year electrical course in Baltimore, he entered the construction field with a private contractor.

In April, 1941, Mr. Bushby joined the Army and after serving in all enlisted grades, he began OCS training at Fort Belvoir, Va., where he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the fall of 1942.

He was assigned to an Engineer company and served during World War II in the European Theatre, taking part in the Normandy invasion. While in England, he attended a military engineering school in Ripon.

Mr. Bushby returned to the United States in 1943 and after a number of Engineer assignments in the Army was sent to the Far East, where he took part in the Korean War.

Knows Whole State

He returned to the States in 1953 and a year later ended his military career with the rank of major.

Mr. Bushby joined the State Roads Commission staff in 1954, as a bridge engineer and also worked for some time in the of-

Two Injured In Collision At Keyser

Two persons, passengers in separate automobiles, were injured yesterday afternoon when the cars collided at an intersection in Keyser, about 2:30 p. m.

Admitted to Potomac Valley Hospital were Mrs. E. A. Jackson, 77, of 219 South Mineral Street, and F. E. Kady, 61, of 31 South Main Street.

Keyser police investigated the accident and said Mr. Kady was the most seriously injured. He sustained possible fractured ribs and a head concussion when he was thrown from the vehicle operated by Paul W. Ashby, 49, of New Creek.

Mrs. Jackson, a passenger in the car driven by Miss Joycelyn L. Ramsey, 17, McConnellsburg, Pa., a student at Potomac State College, had possible head injuries. She is the mother-in-law of James Goldsworthy, principal of Keyser High School.

Patrolman Harry Stewart said the accident occurred as Mr. Ashby was driving east on Piedmont Street in Keyser. He stopped for a traffic light and started across the intersection of Mineral Street when the traffic signal changed, the policeman said.

Miss Ramsey was traveling north on Mineral Street and told the officer she didn't see the signal change in the glare of strong sunlight.

Her automobile plowed into the side of Mr. Ashby's car causing considerable damage to both vehicles, the policeman stated.

Both drivers were treated at Potomac Valley Hospital and later released.

Charges are pending further investigation of the accident, Patrolman Stewart said.

Preparing TB Seals For Mailing

Kingwood Man Pleads Guilty In Morals Case

Board Of Control Will Make Check

A 39-year-old Kingwood, W. Va. man yesterday entered a plea of guilty to two morals charges involving his own daughter and a charge of burglary when he appeared before Judge Melvin C. Snyder in Preston County Circuit Court.

Arthur Paul Wilson was committed by the court to the West Virginia Board of Control for a pre-sentence social, physical and mental examination.

Prosecuting Attorney James T. Dailey Jr., said that sentences of from five to ten years may be imposed in the three charges.

It is mandatory under West Virginia law that anyone who pleads guilty to incest be taken before the Board for a pre-sentence examination, he added.

The defendant was indicted by the grand jury of Preston County on four morals charges involving his 16-year-old daughter and on two additional charges of burglarizing a dwelling near Independence located between Newburg and Grafton along the B&O right-of-way.

In another court case yesterday Billy R. Barker, of Terra Alta, W. Va., indicted on three charges of obtaining property under false pretenses, pleaded guilty and was sentenced from one to five years in the penitentiary.

Judge Snyder recommended that Barker serve three years of the sentence. The defendant is reported to have been indicted by the Garrett County grand jury on similar charges.

Elza Rummel pleaded guilty to grand larceny but his sentence was deferred by Judge Snyder. Rummel was involved in the burglarizing of the dwelling at Independence, Attorney Dailey said.

Criminal cases in Preston County Court are slated to begin tomorrow. George Thomas, 39, of Kingwood, is scheduled to go on trial Monday after being indicted on a charge of malicious assault.

Mrs. Helen Shrout and her grandson, Tony Trent Shrout, less than one year old, were wounded with a high-powered rifle allegedly fired by Thomas, who apparently fired at Betty Shrout, daughter of Mrs. Shrout and the bullet fragments wounded the woman and grandchild.

Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, will hold "open house" beginning at 2 p. m. today in observance of Veterans Day. Legionnaires and friends are welcome at the post home, Commander Fred Anderson said.

Muscular Dystrophy Fund Canvass Set November 30

The Muscular Dystrophy house-to-house fund canvass will be held November 30 in Cumberland, Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker, president of the Allegany-Garrett County Muscular Dystrophy Chapter, said yesterday.

The local fund drive will be under the direction of Arthur Nave and is expected to get under way about 5 p. m.

Chief Parker said the chapter needs at least 300 volunteer workers to help in the money-raising campaign. City firemen and volunteer firemen throughout the county are assisting in the program.

Edgar L. Bucy, city fireman, has distributed canisters in Cumberland, Chief Parker said, and Alvin Rankin of the Frostburg Volunteer Company has placed them in the Frostburg and George's Creek area. Nearly 700 canisters have been distributed.

The MD chapter has about 500 marching kits, Chief Parker stated, and they will be distributed to volunteer women for the November 30 canvass.

Frostburg's house-to-house drive has been headed by Mrs. Nell Kennedy in the past, Chief said, adding Mrs. Kennedy has been ill and may be unable to accept the position this year.

Governor J. Millard Tawes has proclaimed November as Muscular Dystrophy Month, urging all-out efforts against the chronic, non-contagious, progressive disease manifested by weakness and wasting of voluntary muscles. At present its cause and cure are unknown.

Chief Parker and Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore F. Fleming are co-chairmen of the fund drive.

Last year the local MD chapter raised about $2,500.

TB Association To Launch Seal Sale This Weekend

The Allegany-Garrettt Tuberculosis Association will launch its Christmas Seal Drive this weekend with the mailing of 28,126 letters to residents in this section.

The annual seal sale is conducted to raise sufficient funds to support the year-round program of the TB Association. The program includes free chest X-rays, free clothing for patients, mental therapy, physical therapy, medical research and education.

Officials of the association said if a husband and wife receive seals under separate mailings they should notify the association, since only one letter will be sent to a married couple.

The association also requested persons who receive duplicate letters to notify the TB office so the files may be corrected.

The TB Association is not affiliated with the County United Fund and must depend on the annual seal sale to raise funds for its work, officials of the association said.

A breakdown on the letters which will be mailed this weekend shows 24,593 letters will be sent to residents in Allegany County and 3,533 letters will be sent to Garrett County residents.

Cresaptown Pupils Plan Assemblies

Students of Cresaptown Elementary Junior High School will present two assemblies on Friday in observance of American Education Week, Miss Myra Nefflen, principal, said last night.

The intermediates in Mrs. Annetta Gerson's room will present a program at 10:30 a. m. Junior high students will present their program at 1 p. m. under the direction of Oberlin T. Chaney, assistant principal.

Yesterday was "Visitors' Day" at the school and there were 170 parents who registered by members of the Parent-Teacher Association which served refreshments. Some 225 room visits were made.

A PTA meeting will be held tomorrow evening at 8 in the school auditorium. Room visitations will be from 7:15 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Frederick H. Sheeley, visiting teacher in Allegany County public schools, will show a film and talk at the meeting, said Miss Nefflen.

"Praise and Appraise Your Schools," is the general theme of American Education Week. Illustrations depicting a theme for each day of the week appear on the school bulletin board.

Ridgeley PTA Membership 100 Per Cent

The Parent-Teachers Association of Ridgeley Elementary School has a 100 per cent membership, Mrs. Mary Jane Lindsay, membership chairman, announced during a regular meeting last night at the school.

This is the first time the membership has been 100 per cent since the organization of the PTA in 1932. There are 185 pupils enrolled in the first six grades of the school and their parents all belong to the group.

In observance of American Education Week, Junior R. Haines, guidance teacher in public schools of Mineral County, spoke on "Child Guidance" during the meeting

The annual Christmas program will be planned and committees named during the next regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. December 8 at the school. Room visitations will begin at 7 p. m., Jack Cornett, publicity chairman, said.

The PTA also is planning to present a minstrel at the school after the first of the year, he added.

He suffered a broken leg last Thursday in the crash which occurred as he was returning from Morgantown, W. Va.

Commissioners Split About Rules Changes

Wilson Opposes Majority Plan

Changes in rules and regulations governing classified employes of Allegany County who are under Civil Service was discussed yesterday during a meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

By a 2-1 vote of the commissioners it was ordered that the present system be done away with and that Leslie J. Clark, attorney to the board, draw up new regulations for classified employes.

John J. Rowan, president of the board, and Commissioner John T. Mason were in agreement with the proposed changes although Commissioner William A. Wilson did not favor the changes.

In voting negatively, Commissioner Wilson said he is in favor of strengthening the Civil Service laws but is not in favor of abolishing any parts of the laws. He is the lone Republican.

Mr. Rowan also informed the two commissioners he would like to have the Civil Service Commission hold an examination for the position of mechanic at the county garage under Classification 7.

The clerk of the board was authorized to ask the commission to arrange for the examination.

Three Area Men Enlist In Army

Three Cumberland area men who enlisted for three years in the Army at the local recruiting station will get basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., prior to being assigned to "on-the-job training."

M/Sgt. V. F. Smith said he has enlisted Robert F. Wigger, 19, of 716 North Centre; Kenneth B. Harper, 18, Fort Ashby, W. Va., and Terry R. Klahre, 18, of Ellerslie.

Wigger, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wigger, graduated from Allegany High School last year and enlisted for assignment to U. S. Army Europe Armored.

Harper, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Burley A. Harper, graduated from Fort Ashby High School and enlisted in automobile maintenance. Klahre, who lives with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Conner, graduated from Mt. Savage High School this year and enlisted in supply handling.

Yule Lighting Will Feature Spheres, Bells

Funds Are Sought For Civic Program

Vacant spots on Baltimore Street are complicating the program of the Retail Merchants Association for Christmas lights on downtown streets.

The Christmas lights will be turned on Friday, November 27, to usher in the Christmas shopping season in Cumberland, according to S. Louis Curl, Lighting committee chairman.

The first problem is that the present cables, installed a number of years ago, must be replaced this year and a system worked out for stringing wires at street intersections on Baltimore Street, where several buildings which once supported cables have been demolished.

The problem was licked at the Windsor parking lot corner with the installation of a pole high and strong enough to hold the cables. A similar problem at North Centre Street is still to be licked.

Will Add Spheres

There will be a few changes this year, Mr. Curl said, in the Christmas lighting system which has been cited as one of the brightest displays in this area.

New spheres and bells have been ordered to replace the familiar Santa Claus figures on Baltimore Street.

The Christmas lighting display, Mr. Curl said, are financed by the Retail Merchants Association and gifts from banks, utilities and merchants other than members of the association.

The Association members, however, still carries virtually all of the financial burden for the Yule display.

Officials said that last year over 100 letters were written to dentists, lawyers and firms which have second floor offices and that the only return was $5 given by a dentist who was not even located on a decorated street.

May Be Curtailed

Mr. Curl pointed out that there may not be enough funds collected from merchants on North Centre and North Mechanic streets and since Baltimore Street firms are being pressed for additional funds for improved street lighting, there may not be enough additional funds to light the side streets this year.

Last year, Baltimore Street merchants bore part of the load for the side streets, but there is no assurance that they will be able to do so this year, because of the street light proposal.

The Retail Merchants Association has adopted a $2,900 budget for Christmas street lighting this year. The lights cost $2,890.17 in 1957 and $2,937.67 last year.

The problem faced each year, officials said, is that collections have not been sufficient to allow funds to be set aside for renewal.

This year a decal will be placed on the door or window of each contributor, Mr. Curl said, so they may be identified as a supporter of the cause.

CIDC Directors Elect Standing Committees

Directors of the Cumberland Industrial Development Company met yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce office to organize.

The Executive, Employment and Auditing committees were elected at the meeting.

Named to the Executive committee were John J. McMullen, William C. Walsh, Joseph M. Miller and William H. Oburn.

The Employment committee will be composed of Lewis J. Ort, chairman, and C. M. Sanner and Simon Rosenbaum.

The Auditing committee will be headed by Robert G. Garner. Members will be Charles A. Piper, A. W. Tindal, Marcus A. Naughton and Joseph M. Naughton.

SRC Seeks Road Plans Of County

Federal Fund Projects Needed

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners has received a letter from the State Roads Commission requesting that the county prepare a construction schedule covering all projects where use of federal funds is anticipated between now and July 1, 1960.

The letter to county officials was received from Southey T. Nottingham Jr., federal aid liaison engineer of the SRC.

The request is being made at the direction of the Bureau of Public Roads, according to Mr. Nottingham, who said the project schedule must include, name of project, FAS route number, proposed advertising date, date of bid opening, award date and amount of federal aid participation for each project.

In case of County Force Account the starting date and completion date would be substituted for the advertising date, bid opening and award date.

Mr. Nottingham pointed out in the letter that all counties wishing to participate in the use of federal aid secondary funds, have this information presented to the SRC by December 15 this year.

The concurrence in the use of these funds will be dependent upon quarterly allocations prescribed by the Bureau of Public Roads.

The request was made necessary due to the reduction of federal funds coupled with the urgent need for formulating some sort of program so that the projected expenditures may be adequately planned, Mr. Nottingham said.

Election Board Asks Opinion On Boundary Plan

The Board of Election Supervisors has asked its attorney, Julius E. Schindler, to rule on whether it has the right to change established boundary rights of an election district.

The opinion was requested by Matthew J. Mullaney, board chairman, who said the Election Supervisors has received an official request from the County Commissioners, requesting the Board to change the established boundary lines of an election district.

Mr. Schindler was asked to present a written opinion, as soon as possible, on whether the board, under existing law or decisions, has the right to change the boundary, and under what circumstances.

Veterans Day Parade Here Today At 8 P. M.

Highlighting the observance of Veterans Day here today will be a six-division parade beginning at 8 p. m.

Thomas F. Conlon Sr. parade marshal, said the participating units will assemble in the vicinity of the State Armory on South Centre Street at 7:30 p. m.

His aides will be T. R. Farrell and Paul Weisenmiller. As usual the artillery unit of Voiture 164, 40 and 8 will sound off the approach of the parade sponsored by Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion.

Mr. Conlon said the paraders will proceed from South Centre Street to George Street to Baltimore Street and on to North Centre up past the City Hall reviewing stand to Smith Street.

The parade will continue down North Mechanic Street to Baltimore Street to South George to Salem Street where the units will disband.

Four More Secure Police Test Forms

City Clerk Wallace G. Ullery reported that four men secured applications yesterday for Civil Service tests for the position of patrolman.

GOP Organizes Committee For 6th Dist. Race

Beall Mentioned For Congressional Post

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—A group of Western Maryland Republicans came up Tuesday with a list of seven men who have "expressed an interest" in the party's nomination for Congress from the Sixth District.

These were the names on the list, supplied by the newly organized Sixth District Republican Congressional Committee:

J. Glenn Beall Jr., chairman of the Allegany County GOP committee and son of the U. S. senator.

James A. Buchanan IV, Rockville building contractor who has already filed as a candidate for the nomination.

Derr Is Mentioned

John Derr, former mayor of Frederick and unsuccessful GOP candidate for state comptroller last year.

Gilbert Hahn of Montgomery County.

J. Paul Marshall of Montgomery County, former member of the House of Delegates.

Charles McC. Mathias, Frederick County member of the House of Delegates.

D. Eldred Rinehart, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee and former chairman of the State Racing Commission.

Won't Endorse

A spokesman for the committee released the list after the group held its organizational meeting at a Hagerstown hotel. Twenty-four party leaders attended the session, representing the five counties in the district — Garrett, Allegany, Washington, Frederick and Montgomery.

The spokesman emphasized that the committee will not endorse any candidate and that its only purpose was to encourage capable Republicans to "make themselves available for the candidacy."

The Sixth District is now held by Rep. John R. Foley, a Montgomery County Democrat.

Delegates to the Republican congressional committee meeting elected Mrs. Alvin L. Aubinoe of Bethesda as their chairman. Other officers included Harold M. Porter, Washington County, vice chairman; J. Glenn Beall Jr., treasurer, and Edwin H. Atchison, Frederick County secretary.

Each county will provide three members of the committee, including the Central Committee chairman and two others, one a woman.

Garrett County sent a five-member delegation, headed by William Casteel, Oakland, to the conference.

John D. Bushby To Head SRC's 6th District

Will Take Over Post Here Dec. 9

The appointment of John D. Bushby, Baltimore, as District 6 engineer was announced yesterday by John B. Funk, chairman and director of the State Roads Commission.

Mr. Bushby, who is now serving as engineer of special operations for the SRC, will take over his new post on December 9.

As District 6 engineer, he will be stationed at the Braddock Road headquarters here, and will be in charge of all SRC maintenance and construction work in Allegany, Garrett and Washington counties.

For some time, Mr. Bushby has been stationed in Baltimore as engineer of special operations and was in charge of all highway maintenance and construction work done by SRC forces.

Is War Veteran

He is 45 and a native of Atlantic City, N. J., and received his early education there. He moved to Baltimore in 1924 and was graduated from Forest Park High School there.

After taking a two-year electrical course in Baltimore, he entered the construction field with a private contractor.

In April, 1941, Mr. Bushby joined the Army and after serving in all enlisted grades, he began OCS training at Fort Belvoir, Va., where he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the fall of 1942.

He was assigned to an Engineer company and served during World War II in the European Theatre, taking part in the Normandy invasion. While in England, he attended a military engineering school in Ripon.

Mr. Bushby returned to the United States in 1943 and after a number of Engineer assignments in the Army was sent to the Far East, where he took part in the Korean War.

Knows Whole State

He returned to the States in 1953 and a year later ended his military career with the rank of major.

Mr. Bushby joined the State Roads Commission staff in 1954, as a bridge engineer and also worked for some time in the of-

Two Injured In Collision At Keyser

Two persons, passengers in separate automobiles, were injured yesterday afternoon when the cars collided at an intersection in Keyser, about 2:30 p. m.

Admitted to Potomac Valley Hospital were Mrs. E. A. Jackson, 77, of 219 South Mineral Street, and F. E. Kady, 61, of 31 South Main Street.

Keyser police investigated the accident and said Mr. Kady was the most seriously injured. He sustained possible fractured ribs and a head concussion when he was thrown from the vehicle operated by Paul W. Ashby, 49, of New Creek.

Mrs. Jackson, a passenger in the car driven by Miss Joycelyn L. Ramsey, 17, McConnellsburg, Pa., a student at Potomac State College, had possible head injuries. She is the mother-in-law of James Goldsworthy, principal of Keyser High School.

Patrolman Harry Stewart said the accident occurred as Mr. Ashby was driving east on Piedmont Street in Keyser. He stopped for a traffic light and started across the intersection of Mineral Street when the traffic signal changed, the policeman said.

Miss Ramsey was traveling north on Mineral Street and told the officer she didn't see the signal change in the glare of strong sunlight.

Her automobile plowed into the side of Mr. Ashby's car causing considerable damage to both vehicles, the policeman stated.

Both drivers were treated at Potomac Valley Hospital and later released.

Charges are pending further investigation of the accident, Patrolman Stewart said.

Preparing TB Seals For Mailing

Miss Mary Margaret Smith, seal sale chairman for the Allegany-Garrett Tuberculosis Association, and Sen. Charles M. See, president of the TB Association, are shown preparing one of the many bags of mail containing the 1959 Christmas Seals. Over 28,000 letters will be sent out this weekend to residents of the two counties.

Kingwood Man Pleads Guilty In Morals Case

Board Of Control Will Make Check

A 39-year-old Kingwood, W. Va. man yesterday entered a plea of guilty to two morals charges involving his own daughter and a charge of burglary when he appeared before Judge Melvin C. Snyder in Preston County Circuit Court.

Arthur Paul Wilson was committed by the court to the West Virginia Board of Control for a pre-sentence social, physical and mental examination.

Prosecuting Attorney James T. Dailey Jr., said that sentences of from five to ten years may be imposed in the three charges.

It is mandatory under West Virginia law that anyone who pleads guilty to incest be taken before the Board for a pre-sentence examination, he added.

The defendant was indicted by the grand jury of Preston County on four morals charges involving his 16-year-old daughter and on two additional charges of burglarizing a dwelling near Independence located between Newburg and Grafton along the B&O right-of-way.

In another court case yesterday Billy R. Barker, of Terra Alta, W. Va., indicted on three charges of obtaining property under false pretenses, pleaded guilty and was sentenced from one to five years in the penitentiary.

Judge Snyder recommended that Barker serve three years of the sentence. The defendant is reported to have been indicted by the Garrett County grand jury on similar charges.

Elza Rummel pleaded guilty to grand larceny but his sentence was deferred by Judge Snyder. Rummel was involved in the burglarizing of the dwelling at Independence, Attorney Dailey said.

Criminal cases in Preston County Court are slated to begin tomorrow. George Thomas, 39, of Kingwood, is scheduled to go on trial Monday after being indicted on a charge of malicious assault.

Mrs. Helen Shrout and her grandson, Tony Trent Shrout, less than one year old, were wounded with a high-powered rifle allegedly fired by Thomas, who apparently fired at Betty Shrout, daughter of Mrs. Shrout and the bullet fragments wounded the woman and grandchild.

Open House Today

Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion, will hold "open house" beginning at 2 p. m. today in observance of Veterans Day. Legionnaires and friends are welcome at the post home, Commander Fred Anderson said.

Muscular Dystrophy Fund Canvass Set November 30

The Muscular Dystrophy house-to-house fund canvass will be held November 30 in Cumberland, Fire Chief Virgil A. Parker, president of the Allegany-Garrett County Muscular Dystrophy Chapter, said yesterday.

The local fund drive will be under the direction of Arthur Nave and is expected to get under way about 5 p. m.

Chief Parker said the chapter needs at least 300 volunteer workers to help in the money-raising campaign. City firemen and volunteer firemen throughout the county are assisting in the program.

Edgar L. Bucy, city fireman, has distributed canisters in Cumberland, Chief Parker said, and Alvin Rankin of the Frostburg Volunteer Company has placed them in the Frostburg and George's Creek area. Nearly 700 canisters have been distributed.

The MD chapter has about 500 marching kits, Chief Parker stated, and they will be distributed to volunteer women for the November 30 canvass.

Frostburg's house-to-house drive has been headed by Mrs. Nell Kennedy in the past, Chief said, adding Mrs. Kennedy has been ill and may be unable to accept the position this year.

Governor J. Millard Tawes has proclaimed November as Muscular Dystrophy Month, urging all-out efforts against the chronic, non-contagious, progressive disease manifested by weakness and wasting of voluntary muscles. At present its cause and cure are unknown.

Chief Parker and Police and Fire Commissioner Philmore F. Fleming are co-chairmen of the fund drive.

Last year the local MD chapter raised about $2,500.

TB Association To Launch Seal Sale This Weekend

The Allegany-Garrettt Tuberculosis Association will launch its Christmas Seal Drive this weekend with the mailing of 28,126 letters to residents in this section.

The annual seal sale is conducted to raise sufficient funds to support the year-round program of the TB Association. The program includes free chest X-rays, free clothing for patients, mental therapy, physical therapy, medical research and education.

Officials of the association said if a husband and wife receive seals under separate mailings they should notify the association, since only one letter will be sent to a married couple.

The association also requested persons who receive duplicate letters to notify the TB office so the files may be corrected.

The TB Association is not affiliated with the County United Fund and must depend on the annual seal sale to raise funds for its work, officials of the association said.

A breakdown on the letters which will be mailed this weekend shows 24,593 letters will be sent to residents in Allegany County and 3,533 letters will be sent to Garrett County residents.

Cresaptown Pupils Plan Assemblies

Students of Cresaptown Elementary Junior High School will present two assemblies on Friday in observance of American Education Week, Miss Myra Nefflen, principal, said last night.

The intermediates in Mrs. Annetta Gerson's room will present a program at 10:30 a. m. Junior high students will present their program at 1 p. m. under the direction of Oberlin T. Chaney, assistant principal.

Yesterday was "Visitors' Day" at the school and there were 170 parents who registered by members of the Parent-Teacher Association which served refreshments. Some 225 room visits were made.

A PTA meeting will be held tomorrow evening at 8 in the school auditorium. Room visitations will be from 7:15 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Frederick H. Sheeley, visiting teacher in Allegany County public schools, will show a film and talk at the meeting, said Miss Nefflen.

"Praise and Appraise Your Schools," is the general theme of American Education Week. Illustrations depicting a theme for each day of the week appear on the school bulletin board.

Ridgeley PTA Membership 100 Per Cent

The Parent-Teachers Association of Ridgeley Elementary School has a 100 per cent membership, Mrs. Mary Jane Lindsay, membership chairman, announced during a regular meeting last night at the school.

This is the first time the membership has been 100 per cent since the organization of the PTA in 1932. There are 185 pupils enrolled in the first six grades of the school and their parents all belong to the group.

In observance of American Education Week, Junior R. Haines, guidance teacher in public schools of Mineral County, spoke on "Child Guidance" during the meeting

The annual Christmas program will be planned and committees named during the next regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. December 8 at the school. Room visitations will begin at 7 p. m., Jack Cornett, publicity chairman, said.

The PTA also is planning to present a minstrel at the school after the first of the year, he added.

VFW Post Plans Open House Today

Henry Hart Post No. 1411, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold its traditional Veterans Day open house today, beginning at 9 a. m. at the post home, 205 Union Street.

The public is invited to inspect the facilities of the post and to attend the free dance which will begin at 9 p. m., according to Paul W. Moore, commander.

Dr. Edwards Hurt In Highway Crash

Dr. David E. Edwards, psychiatrist for the Allegany County Health Department, is recuperating at his home in Short Gap from injuries suffered in a highway accident.

He suffered a broken leg last Thursday in the crash which occurred as he was returning from Morgantown, W. Va.

Commissioners Split About Rules Changes

Wilson Opposes Majority Plan

Changes in rules and regulations governing classified employes of Allegany County who are under Civil Service was discussed yesterday during a meeting of the Board of Commissioners.

By a 2-1 vote of the commissioners it was ordered that the present system be done away with and that Leslie J. Clark, attorney to the board, draw up new regulations for classified employes.

John J. Rowan, president of the board, and Commissioner John T. Mason were in agreement with the proposed changes although Commissioner William A. Wilson did not favor the changes.

In voting negatively, Commissioner Wilson said he is in favor of strengthening the Civil Service laws but is not in favor of abolishing any parts of the laws. He is the lone Republican.

Mr. Rowan also informed the two commissioners he would like to have the Civil Service Commission hold an examination for the position of mechanic at the county garage under Classification 7.

The clerk of the board was authorized to ask the commission to arrange for the examination.

Three Area Men Enlist In Army

Three Cumberland area men who enlisted for three years in the Army at the local recruiting station will get basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., prior to being assigned to "on-the-job training."

M/Sgt. V. F. Smith said he has enlisted Robert F. Wigger, 19, of 716 North Centre; Kenneth B. Harper, 18, Fort Ashby, W. Va., and Terry R. Klahre, 18, of Ellerslie.

Wigger, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Wigger, graduated from Allegany High School last year and enlisted for assignment to U. S. Army Europe Armored.

Harper, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Burley A. Harper, graduated from Fort Ashby High School and enlisted in automobile maintenance. Klahre, who lives with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Conner, graduated from Mt. Savage High School this year and enlisted in supply handling.

Yule Lighting Will Feature Spheres, Bells

Funds Are Sought For Civic Program

Vacant spots on Baltimore Street are complicating the program of the Retail Merchants Association for Christmas lights on downtown streets.

The Christmas lights will be turned on Friday, November 27, to usher in the Christmas shopping season in Cumberland, according to S. Louis Curl, Lighting committee chairman.

The first problem is that the present cables, installed a number of years ago, must be replaced this year and a system worked out for stringing wires at street intersections on Baltimore Street, where several buildings which once supported cables have been demolished.

The problem was licked at the Windsor parking lot corner with the installation of a pole high and strong enough to hold the cables. A similar problem at North Centre Street is still to be licked.

Will Add Spheres

There will be a few changes this year, Mr. Curl said, in the Christmas lighting system which has been cited as one of the brightest displays in this area.

New spheres and bells have been ordered to replace the familiar Santa Claus figures on Baltimore Street.

The Christmas lighting display, Mr. Curl said, are financed by the Retail Merchants Association and gifts from banks, utilities and merchants other than members of the association.

The Association members, however, still carries virtually all of the financial burden for the Yule display.

Officials said that last year over 100 letters were written to dentists, lawyers and firms which have second floor offices and that the only return was $5 given by a dentist who was not even located on a decorated street.

May Be Curtailed

Mr. Curl pointed out that there may not be enough funds collected from merchants on North Centre and North Mechanic streets and since Baltimore Street firms are being pressed for additional funds for improved street lighting, there may not be enough additional funds to light the side streets this year.

Last year, Baltimore Street merchants bore part of the load for the side streets, but there is no assurance that they will be able to do so this year, because of the street light proposal.

The Retail Merchants Association has adopted a $2,900 budget for Christmas street lighting this year. The lights cost $2,890.17 in 1957 and $2,937.67 last year.

The problem faced each year, officials said, is that collections have not been sufficient to allow funds to be set aside for renewal.

This year a decal will be placed on the door or window of each contributor, Mr. Curl said, so they may be identified as a supporter of the cause.

CIDC Directors Elect Standing Committees

Directors of the Cumberland Industrial Development Company met yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce office to organize.

The Executive, Employment and Auditing committees were elected at the meeting.

Named to the Executive committee were John J. McMullen, William C. Walsh, Joseph M. Miller and William H. Oburn.

The Employment committee will be composed of Lewis J. Ort, chairman, and C. M. Sanner and Simon Rosenbaum.

The Auditing committee will be headed by Robert G. Garner. Members will be Charles A. Pipper, A. W. Tindal, Marcus A. Naughton and Joseph M. Naughton.

SRC Seeks Road Plans Of County

Federal Fund Projects Needed

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners has received a letter from the State Roads Commission requesting that the county prepare a construction schedule covering all projects where use of federal funds is anticipated between now and July 1, 1960.

The letter to county officials was received from Southey T. Nottingham Jr., federal aid liaison engineer of the SRC.

The request is being made at the direction of the Bureau of Public Roads, according to Mr. Nottingham, who said the project schedule must include, name of project, FAS route number, proposed advertising date, date of bid opening, award date and amount of federal aid participation for each project.

In case of County Force Account the starting date and completion date would be substituted for the advertising date, bid opening and award date.

Mr. Nottingham pointed out in the letter that all counties wishing to participate in the use of federal aid secondary funds, have this information presented to the SRC by December 15 this year.

The concurrence in the use of these funds will be dependent upon quarterly allocations prescribed by the Bureau of Public Roads.

The request was made necessary due to the reduction of federal funds coupled with the urgent need for formulating some sort of program so that the projected expenditures may be adequately planned, Mr. Nottingham said.

Election Board Asks Opinion On Boundary Plan

The Board of Election Supervisors has asked its attorney, Julius E. Schindler, to rule on whether it has the right to change established boundary rights of an election district.

The opinion was requested by Matthew J. Mullaney, board chairman, who said the Election Supervisors has received an official request from the County Commissioners, requesting the Board to change the established boundary lines of an election district.

Mr. Schindler was asked to present a written opinion, as soon as possible, on whether the board, under existing law or decisions, has the right to change the boundary, and under what circumstances.

Veterans Day Parade Here Today At 8 P. M.

Highlighting the observance of Veterans Day here today will be a six-division parade beginning at 8 p. m.

Thomas F. Conlon Sr. parade marshal, said the participating units will assemble in the vicinity of the State Armory on South Centre Street at 7:30 p. m.

His aides will be T. R. Farrell and Paul Weisenmiller. As usual the artillery unit of Voiture 164, 40 and 8 will sound off the approach of the parade sponsored by Fort Cumberland Post 13, American Legion.

Mr. Conlon said the paraders will proceed from South Centre Street to George Street to Baltimore Street and on to North Centre up past the City Hall reviewing stand to Smith Street.

The parade will continue down North Mechanic Street to Baltimore Street to South George to Salem Street where the units will disband.

Four More Secure Police Test Forms

City Clerk Wallace G. Ullery reported that four men secured applications yesterday for Civil Service tests for the position of patrolman.

GOP Organizes Committee For 6th Dist. Race

Beall Mentioned For Congressional Post

HAGERSTOWN (AP)—A group of Western Maryland Republicans came up Tuesday with a list of seven men who have "expressed an interest" in the party's nomination for Congress from the Sixth District.

These were the names on the list, supplied by the newly organized Sixth District Republican Congressional Committee:

J. Glenn Beall Jr., chairman of the Allegany County GOP committee and son of the U. S. senator.

James A. Buchanan IV, Rockville building contractor who has already filed as a candidate for the nomination.

Derr Is Mentioned

John Derr, former mayor of Frederick and unsuccessful GOP candidate for state comptroller last year.

Gilbert Hahn of Montgomery County.

J. Paul Marshall of Montgomery County, former member of the House of Delegates.

Charles McC. Mathias, Frederick County member of the House of Delegates.

D. Eldred Rinehart, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee and former chairman of the State Racing Commission.

Won't Endorse

A spokesman for the committee released the list after the group held its organizational meeting at a Hagerstown hotel. Twenty-four party leaders attended the session, representing the five counties in the district — Garrett, Allegany, Washington, Frederick and Montgomery.

The spokesman emphasized that the committee will not endorse any candidate and that its only purpose was to encourage capable Republicans to "make themselves available for the candidacy."

The Sixth District is now held by Rep. John R. Foley, a Montgomery County Democrat.

Delegates to the Republican congressional committee meeting elected Mrs. Alvin L. Aubinoe of Bethesda as their chairman. Other officers included Harold M. Porter, Washington County, vice chairman; J. Glenn Beall Jr., treasurer, and Edwin H. Atchison, Frederick County secretary.

Each county will provide three members of the committee, including the Central Committee chairman and two others, one a woman.
